LEGACY / NUANCE
- The Mauryas established an empire over almost the entire subcontinent and beyond it in the north-west.
- Ashoka's inscriptions are a major source, but they primarily discuss Dhamma and only incidentally administration.
- Ashoka's Dhamma was rooted in his personal Buddhist faith but functioned as an imperial ideology with his strong personal stamp.
- He made dhamma/dharma a central political and social issue, not merely a religious term.
