

POLITY 44 | PRESSURE GROUPS

Continuous core-first map: organised influence, constitutional limits and accountable reform

ANSWER LINE: No separate fundamental right to lobby.

04

ASSOCIATION AND LABOUR

CORE

Damyanti: associational composition/continuity.

CHANNEL

AIBEA: objectives/tactics not automatically fundamental.

LIMIT

Kameshwar/T.K. Rangarajan: no general strike FR.

ANSWER LINE: Association, bargaining, strike and violence are separate.

05

PROTEST CASE LINE

Himat Lal: regulate, no unguided refusal.

Bharat Kumar: coercive bandh not protected.

Ramlila + MKSS: facilitate and proportionately balance rights.

ANSWER LINE: Peaceful dissent is not compelled closure or indefinite obstruction.

06

METHOD SPECTRUM

1

Petition, meeting, committee and consultation.

2

Lobbying, research, media, campaign and digital mobilisation.

3

Litigation/PIL, bargaining, strike and demonstration.

ANSWER LINE: Lawful persuasion is not bribery; each protest method has its own law.

07

INSTITUTIONAL CHANNELS

07

INSTITUTIONAL CHANNELS

Parliamentary committees and ministries.

Regulatory consultations and reasoned response.

Social audit, public hearing, courts and media.

ANSWER LINE: Access is participation, not acceptance or control.

08

POLICY CYCLE

CORE

Agenda -> formulation -> adoption.

CHANNEL

Implementation -> monitoring -> feedback.

LIMIT

Test text, enforcement, distribution and durability.

ANSWER LINE: Policy success does not prove capture.

09

INDIA ACTOR MAP

Business, labour, farmers and professionals.

Students, identity groups and issue networks.

Environment, consumers, rights and marginalised voices.

ANSWER LINE: Resources differ: money, expertise, numbers, location and moral claim.

10

THEORY TOOLKIT

1

Pluralism and countervailing groups.

2

Neo-pluralism, elite power and capture.

10

THEORY TOOLKIT

1

Pluralism and countervailing groups.

2

Neo-pluralism, elite power and capture.

3

Corporatism, social movements and issue networks.

ANSWER LINE: Use multiple lenses; no single theory explains India.

11

LEGITIMACY AND VARIATION

Representation, internal democracy and evidence.

Funding/access disclosure; revolving-door conflicts.

Union-State-local variation and inclusion barriers.

ANSWER LINE: Lawful method + mandate + transparency + fair distribution.

12

REFORM AND ANSWER SPINE

CORE

Lobby register, meetings, clients and funding.

CHANNEL

Consultation papers, reasons, recusal and cooling-off.

LIMIT

Facilitate peaceful protest; punish coercion, not dissent.

ANSWER LINE: Define -> classify -> channel -> evidence -> policy stage -> reform.