THE DEPENDENCE VIEW — morality needs religion ☐

CONTEXT + EXACT CORE

Divine Command Theory (DCT): an act is right because God commands it; morality is grounded in, and motivated by, God's will.

MECHANISM / ARGUMENT

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM (Recommended opening definition): The dependence view holds that morality requires religion for its authority, motivation or ultimate sanction, but these three claims must be assessed separately.

CONSEQUENCE / CONTRAST

Without God, the view argues, the ultimate authority of moral obligation becomes difficult to explain. ☐

UPSC TRAP / ANSWER USE

MECHANISM / ARGUMENT

Euthyphro dilemma (Plato): Is the pious loved by the gods because it is pious, or pious because it is loved? ☐

UPSC TRAP / ANSWER USE

ANSWER LINE: Moral obligation can be grounded independently in reason, welfare, virtue, human dignity or the reduction of suffering, even when religion strengthens motivation.

03

THE INTERACTION VIEW — mutual influence (2023 PYQ) ☐

CONTEXT + EXACT CORE

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Religion and morality are conceptually distinguishable yet historically interactive: religion shapes moral formation, while moral criticism reforms religious practice.

MECHANISM / ARGUMENT

CONSEQUENCE / CONTRAST

UPSC TRAP / ANSWER USE

Empirically: religion can promote pro-social behaviour and (misused) sanction intolerance/violence — the relation is contingent, not automatic. ☐☐

ANSWER LINE: Religion and morality are conceptually distinguishable yet historically interactive: religion shapes moral formation, while moral criticism reforms religious practice.

04

COMPARISON GRID ☐☐

CONTEXT + EXACT CORE

☐ Balanced conclusion: the Euthyphro shows morality cannot be wholly reducible to divine command (else arbitrary), so morality has autonomy; yet religion powerfully motivates and sustains morality, and morality purifies religion — hence the interaction view, not strict dependence, is soundest.
