Liberalism and Neoliberalism - Twelve-Panel ASCII Master

Purpose: topic-specific rapid-revision flow; the complete teaching remains in the learner-v2 package.

PANEL 1/12 - The Liberal Family and Its Core Vocabulary

The Liberal Family and Its Core Vocabulary
* Its core vocabulary includes rights, consent, procedure, civil liberties, contract and rule-limited government (Gaub, PDF pp.40-41, 45).
* Direct-book anchors used here: PDF pp.40-42 for liberal core and internal streams; PDF pp.42-43 for neoliberalism; PDF p.43-45 for critique and contribution; PDF pp.434-435, 443 (
* UPSC often rewards answers that keep together liberalism's durable constitutional core and its debated economic program.
* Its core tenets include rational individuality, natural rights, consent, civil society and state as artificial institutions, primacy of fair procedure, civil liberties, contract an

PANEL 2/12 - Historical Spine and Essential Distinctions

Historical Spine and Essential Distinctions
* One-line answer spine: liberalism is a family doctrine of individual liberty under limited government, internally divided over how much state action liberty requires.
* Liberalism is the starting point for understanding rights, constitutionalism, limited government, consent and the rule of law in modern politics (Gaub, PDF pp.40-41, 45).
* Gaub shows that liberalism has at least two major internal turns before neoliberal revival: classical laissez-faire and welfare/positive liberalism (Gaub, PDF pp.41-42).
* The chapter also explains why neoliberalism cannot simply be equated with all liberalism; it is a contemporary restoration of the classical laissez-faire impulse (Gaub, PDF pp.42-

PANEL 5/12 - Classical, New, Welfare-State and Neoliberal Strands

Classical, New, Welfare-State and Neoliberal Strands
* Mechanism: because "liberty" is not self-defining, each strand supplies a different account of what threatens it most - the state (classical), unmet welfare needs (new/welfare, §12) * Gauba shows that liberalism has at least two major internal turns before neoliberal revival: classical laissez-faire and welfare/positive liberalism (Gauba, PDF pp.41-42). * Classical liberalism is laissez-faire and negative-state; welfare liberalism is positive-state; neoliberalism is rollback liberalism (Gauba, PDF pp.41-43). * Two-line enrichment: classical liberals fear state coercion, welfare liberals fear market-generated deprivation, and neoliberals fear the coercive growth of welfare-state control.

PANEL 6/12 - Hayek and Nozick: Different Routes to the Minimal State

Hayek and Nozick: Different Routes to the Minimal State
* Gauba then identifies neoliberalism as a twentieth-century effort, associated with Hayek, Friedman and Nozick, to roll back welfare-state expansion and restore market-led liberty (* Hayek, Friedman and Nozick are named together as chief exponents of a twentieth-century restoration of laissez-faire against the welfare state's interventionist expansion (Gaub, P * Mechanism: because "liberty" is not self-defining, each strand supplies a different account of what threatens it most - the state (classical), unmet welfare needs (new/welfare, §12 * Locke, Smith and Bentham anchor the classical, laissez-faire strand: the state is a "necessary evil" confined to protecting life, property and contract, with minimal interference i
