- [1] Natural inequality vs conventional inequality: Gauba uses Rousseau's distinction to show that gender inequality belongs to the alterable second category. (PDF p.86)

v

- [2] Legal equality vs substantive equality: early feminism attacked barriers to education, property and vote; later feminism asks whether equal law alone changes social.

v

- [3] Equal treatment vs compensatory support: Gauba notes two broad views, one insisting on sameness of legal regime and another allowing maternity-related protections.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 4/12: Illustrations, Comparative Matrix and Trap Repair

CENTRAL FOCUS

Illustrations, Comparative Matrix and Trap Repair

- [1] Gauba's examples of girls being socialized toward obedience and boys toward assertiveness show how gender roles are culturally produced. (PDF p.87)

v

- [2] The early rights agenda focused on education, property, divorce and suffrage because these exclusions had no necessary connection with female biology. (PDF pp.87-88)

v

- [3] A safe classroom example is to contrast biological maternity with culturally assigned ideas that women must therefore remain outside public life.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 6/12: Later Provenance and Marxist Feminism

CENTRAL FOCUS

Later Provenance and Marxist Feminism

- [1] Gauba's chapter grounds the sex/gender distinction and the liberal/radical/socialist typology; it does not itself discuss Simone de Beauvoir, Gayle Rubin, Ann.

v

- [2] Ann Oakley (Sex, Gender and Society, 1972) is usually credited with popularising the working sex/gender terminology in sociology – sex as biological, gender as the.

v

- [3] Gayle Rubin ("The Traffic in Women", 1975) supplies the mechanism often paired with the distinction: the "sex/gender system" – social arrangements that transform.

v

- [4] This basic file (like Gauba) uses "socialist feminism" as the umbrella term (Rowbotham) for the patriarchy-plus-capitalism synthesis. Marxist feminism is a related.

v

SYNTHESIS -> Later Provenance and Marxist Feminism is best presented through its central claim, causal logic, strongest limit and qualified verdict.

EXAM ROUTE -> define precisely -> explain the mechanism -> test the limit -> conclude with a qualified political judgment.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 7/12: Pateman and Okin: Contract, Justice and the Family

CENTRAL FOCUS

Pateman and Okin: Contract, Justice and the Family

- [1] Susan Moller Okin (Justice, Gender, and the Family, 1989): Claim – theories of justice (she targets Rawls) wrongly treat the family as a pre-political given rather.

v

- [2] Gauba's chapter grounds the sex/gender distinction and the liberal/radical/socialist typology; it does not itself discuss Simone de Beauvoir, Gayle Rubin, Ann.

|

v

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 8/12: Butler, Performativity and Intersectionality

CENTRAL FOCUS

Butler, Performativity and Intersectionality

- [1] Judith Butler (Gender Trouble, 1990): gender is not a cultural coating on a stable biological sex but performative – produced through repeated, stylised acts.

v

- [2] Gauba's chapter grounds the sex/gender distinction and the liberal/radical/socialist typology; it does not itself discuss Simone de Beauvoir, Gayle Rubin, Ann.

v

- [3] Objection: if gender is entirely performative/socially constructed (Butler), feminism loses a stable category of "woman" around which to organise and to claim.

v

- [4] Gauba treats feminism as a protest against the inferior status assigned to women by patriarchy, not as a denial that biological differences exist. (PDF pp.84-86)

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 9/12: Objection-Reply Chains and Cautious Indian Application

CENTRAL FOCUS

Objection-Reply Chains and Cautious Indian Application

- [1] Objection: if gender is entirely performative/socially constructed (Butler), feminism loses a stable category of "woman" around which to organise and to claim.

v

- [2] Objection: radical feminism's emphasis on patriarchy as the primary, near-universal structure of oppression risks treating "women" as one undifferentiated class.

v

- [3] Savitribai Phule is widely associated, with Jyotirao Phule, with pioneering girls' education in nineteenth-century Maharashtra – use as an illustration of an early.

v

- [4] The broader Indian women's movement (legal-reform and political-representation campaigns from the 1970s onward) is a standard illustrative anchor for "formal legal.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 10/12: Directive Decoding and Mark-Scaled Answer Architecture

CENTRAL FOCUS

Directive Decoding and Mark-Scaled Answer Architecture

[1] "Discuss/Examine feminism as a critique of patriarchy" → needs both diagnosis (what patriarchy is, how gender is produced) and the feminist reply; do not describe.

v

[2] "Distinguish sex and gender" → definitional/analytical directive: give the distinction plus why it matters, not two one-line definitions.

v

[3] "Critically examine feminist perspectives on X" → requires thesis + at least two schools compared + at least one objection/reply, ending in a reasoned verdict, not.

v

[4] Thesis (1-2 lines): feminism protests patriarchal subordination via the sex/gender distinction; formal legal equality alone is insufficient.

v

SYNTHESIS -> Directive Decoding and Mark-Scaled Answer Architecture is best presented through its central claim, causal logic, strongest limit and qualified verdict.

EXAM ROUTE -> define precisely -> explain the mechanism -> test the limit -> conclude with a qualified political judgment.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 12/12: PYQ Ownership and Answer Practice

CENTRAL FOCUS

PYQ Ownership and Answer Practice

[1] Formal equality demands the removal of explicit differential rules; substantive equality goes further, licensing affirmative measures to correct unequal starting.

v

[2] Objection: treating equality and empowerment as compatible obscures a real tension -- substantive-equality measures (affirmative action) can be attacked as unearned.

v

[3] Butler's Gender Trouble argues gender is constituted through performative repetition of stylised acts within a regulatory, discursive frame -- there is no gendered.

v

[4] Objection (essentialism objection): without any stable pre-discursive sex or subject, feminism risks losing the category 'woman' in whose name it claims to act.

v

SYNTHESIS -> PYQ Ownership and Answer Practice is best presented through its central claim, causal logic, strongest limit and qualified verdict.

EXAM ROUTE -> define precisely -> explain the mechanism -> test the limit -> conclude with a qualified political judgment.
