How to Use This Package

[FACT] The complete Basic/Core owner is taught first in source order. Cross-topic Markdown, local OCR books and verified PYQ ledgers supplement it.

[FACT] Advanced-owner material appears only after the Core and practice sections under the required optional-depth label.

[LIMIT] Part XVI is not a single reservation code. Representation, service claims, commissions and constitutional lists use different legal mechanisms. Davinder Singh (2024) permits evidence-based SC sub-classification for distribution; it does not transfer Article 341 list-alteration power to States.

M5. Assess the constitutional position of Anglo-Indian nomination after the 104th Amendment.

Directive: Assess · Marks: 15 · Suggested words: 250

Demand decode: Define the exact institutional or doctrinal issue, answer the directive, use named constitutional/statutory/judicial evidence, include the strongest counterpoint and reach a qualified verdict.

Examiner opening: Assess the constitutional position of Anglo-Indian nomination after the 104th Amendment. The issue should be analysed through constitutional purpose, operating mechanism and enforceable limitation.

- Commission Cross-Reference - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: Arts 338, 338A and 338B create NCSC, NCST and NCBC. Commission detail remains cross-owned.
- Article 339 - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: It supports Union directions and commissions concerning Scheduled Areas and ST welfare. Supervision is distinct from list and area institutions.
- Article 275 - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: It includes a fiscal route for specified ST welfare and Scheduled Area administration grants. Fiscal support does not redefine status.
- Sc/St Lists - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: President specifies; Parliament alone includes or excludes under Arts 341-342. Lists are territorial and constitutionally controlled.
- Sebc Lists - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: After the 105th Amendment Central and State/UT lists serve different governmental purposes. The federal list split is explicit.

Counter-position: Institutional reform can improve accountability, but overbroad regulation may displace autonomy, federal choice, expertise or access. The answer must identify the exact trade-off rather than offer a generic reform list.

Conclusion: Prefer a calibrated design that preserves the institution's constitutional purpose while adding transparency, independence, reason-giving and judicially reviewable safeguards.

M6. Discuss legislative representation safeguards under Articles 330-334A.

- Davinder Singh - claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification: The 2024 decision permits evidence-based SC sub-classification for benefit distribution. Distribution and identification remain separate.

OPTIONAL ADVANCED DEPTH - NOT REQUIRED FOR A CORE ANSWER

Companion to `basic/Special-Provisions-Relating-to-Certain-Classes.md`. The Core owns Part XVI. This file adds analytical depth without replacing specialist commission, reservation-doctrine or Scheduled-Area owners.

Representation, recognition and redistribution

Part XVI can be read as three constitutional moves:

- recognition through Arts 341, 342 and 342A;
- representation through Arts 330-334A; and
- oversight/claims through Arts 335 and 338-340.

Redistributive outcomes, however, also depend on Arts 15-16, legislation, budget, delimitation, service rules and welfare programmes. This explains why list status does not itself determine the kind or quantum of benefit.

Federal differentiation

SC/ST list alteration remains parliamentary under Arts 341-342. SEBC architecture is expressly dual after the 105th Amendment: a Central List for Central purposes and State/UT lists for their purposes. Federal differentiation may improve local responsiveness but demands transparent criteria and reliable data.

Sub-classification after Davinder Singh (2024)

The constitutional issue is distribution within a notified class, not list alteration. A defensible scheme should identify inadequate representation or unequal benefit capture through evidence, retain the integrity of the protected class, avoid political labelling without data and remain open to judicial review.

Duration and democratic renewal

Repeated Article 334 extensions show that political reservation is constitutionally time-framed but periodically renewed through amendment. Evaluation should combine continuing structural exclusion, representative gains, constituency accountability and the danger of treating a time-limit clause as proof that the underlying disadvantage has ended.

CONSOLIDATED REGISTER NOTES

Special Provisions Relating to Certain Classes: Rapid Constitutional Recall

- Current-control rule: The official Constitution and Social Justice/NCSC/NCST/NCBC portals were rechecked on 25 August 2026. The 106th Amendment provisions are in the constitutional text but remain tied to the census-delimitation trigger; current lists, schemes and implementation notifications remain date-specific.
- Factual caveat: Part XVI is not a single reservation code. Representation, service claims, commissions and constitutional lists use different legal mechanisms. Davinder Singh (2024) permits evidence-based SC sub-classification for distribution; it does not transfer Article 341 list-alteration power to States.

1. Core proposition

- Part XVI combines four different constitutional techniques
- REPRESENTATION SERVICES SAFEGUARDS IDENTIFICATION

- Arts 330-334 Art 335 Arts 338-340 Arts 341-342A

2. Master Article map

- Provision Subject Status/trap
- 330 SC/ST reservation in Lok Sabha Population-linked constitutional reservation
- 330A Women's reservation in Lok Sabha, including within SC/ST seats [FACT] In constitutional text; current operation/status is controlled in Parliament.md

3.1 SC/ST seats

- [FACT] Articles 330 and 332 reserve seats in the Lok Sabha and State Legislative Assemblies broadly in proportion to the relevant SC/ST population. Reservation identifies constituencies/seats; it does not create a separate electorate-voters in the constituency vote in the ordinary territorial

- [FACT] Articles 331 and 333 remain printed in the constitutional text, but the special nomination period under Article 334 was not extended beyond seventy years and ceased in 2020.
- Trap: "Article omitted" and "provision ceased to operate through the time clause" are not the

3.3 Women's reservation cross-route

- [FACT] Arts 330A, 332A and 334A are part of Part XVI. They are not a "certain class" list mechanism like Arts 341/342. The 106th Amendment placed the provisions in the Constitution, but Art 334A links their operation to a delimitation exercise undertaken after publication of the relevant figures

4. Services and posts: Article 335

- [FACT] SC/ST claims must be considered in public appointments consistently with the maintenance of administrative efficiency. The 82nd Amendment inserted a proviso allowing provisions for relaxation of qualifying marks or lowering evaluation standards for reservation in promotion.

5. Constitutional commission architecture

- Body Article Shared core Specialist route
- NCSC 338 Chair + Vice-Chair + 3 members; President appoints; safeguards, complaints, planning advice, reports, civil-court inquiry powers National-Commissions-SC-ST-BC.md
- NCST 338A Same broad architecture plus tribal-specific mandate Same

Article 339

- [FACT] The President may appoint a commission on Scheduled Areas administration and ST welfare and had to do so after ten years from commencement. Union executive power also extends to directions to a State concerning schemes essential for ST welfare.

Article 275 welfare-grant cross-link

- [FACT] Article 275(1), outside Part XVI, authorises grants-in-aid to States in need and contains a specific route for schemes promoting Scheduled Tribe welfare and raising the administration of Scheduled Areas. It is a fiscal support provision, not a power to alter an Art 342 list or replace

Article 340

- [FACT] The President may appoint a commission to investigate SEBC conditions and recommend measures and grants; its report and an action memorandum are laid before Parliament. The Kalelkar and Mandal Commissions are the standard examples.

6.1 Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes

- Initial specification President, by public notification; consultation with Governor where a State is concerned
- Inclusion/exclusion Parliament by law
- State power A State cannot independently alter the Presidential SC/ST list

6.3 List, benefit and sub-classification case matrix

- Decision Decision year Safe proposition
- Indra Sawhney v. Union of India 1992 Backward-class reservation doctrine, creamy layer and the ordinary 50% framework arise under equality provisions, not Part XVI list alteration
- E.V. Chinnaiah v. State of Andhra Pradesh 2004 Earlier decision treated notified SCs as an indivisible class for sub-classification

6.2 Socially and educationally backward classes

- [FACT] The 102nd Amendment inserted Arts 338B and 342A. After the 105th Amendment
- Central List: President specifies for Central-Government purposes; Parliament includes or
- State/UT List: each State/UT may by law prepare and maintain its own list for its own

7. Protective, developmental, permanent and transitional provisions

- Protective Commission inquiries, service safeguards, Union directions
- Developmental Planning advice, Article 340 recommendations, welfare measures
- Continuing Arts 335, 338-342A

8. Local-body reservation and owner-scope firewall

- [FACT] Articles 243D and 243T separately govern reservation in Panchayats and Municipalities, including
- SC/ST seats and offices and women's reservation. They are cross-references, not Part XVI
- legislative-seat provisions.

9.1 Demand map

- Part XVI overview Representation -> services -> commissions -> lists -> equality verdict
- SC/ST list versus sub-classification Arts 341/342 -> Parliament's list power -> Davinder Singh distribution distinction
- Backward-class architecture Art 340 -> NCBC/338B -> 102nd -> 105th -> Central/State lists

9.2 Thesis options

- Part XVI is not a single reservation code; it combines political representation, service claims,
- constitutional monitoring and list identification through legally distinct mechanisms.
- The constitutional lists answer who belongs to a protected class, while Articles 15, 16, 330,

9.3 Mark-scaled structures

- 10 Define issue -> 3-4 Articles -> one distinction -> verdict 3-4 anchors
- 15 Representation/services/commission/list map -> amendment/case -> limit -> verdict 5-6 anchors
- 20 Part XVI architecture -> equality rationale -> SC/ST/SEBC mechanisms -> federal/implementation critique -> graded conclusion 7-9 anchors

9.4 Evidence units

- Claim: list power is constitutionally centralised for SC/STs. Evidence: [FACT] Arts 341/342.
- Analysis: uniform legal alteration through Parliament protects list integrity.
- Qualification: □□ States may design evidence-based distribution within a list under

10. Must-Know Facts

- [FACT] Part XVI runs from Arts 330-342A and now also contains 330A, 332A and 334A.
- [FACT] SC/ST seat reservation and Anglo-Indian nomination have different Article 334 time positions.
- [FACT] Art 335 is a service-claim/efficiency provision, not a universal reservation clause.

11. UPSC traps and source discipline

- Do not equate SC/ST legislative reservation with separate electorates.
- Do not say States can add a caste/tribe to Arts 341/342 lists by executive order.
- Do not say the 105th Amendment abolished the Central SEBC List.

- Art 335 - SC/ST claims + administrative efficiency + relaxation proviso.

Sub-classification after Davinder Singh

- President specifies - Parliament includes/excludes.
- State designs evidence-based sub-classification within the notified class.
- data, rational basis, class integrity, non-exclusion and equality.

- SC/ST seat reservation - extended to eighty years from commencement.
- Anglo-Indian nomination - not extended beyond seventy years; ceased in 2020.

- Explain the operating mechanism with named Indian evidence.
- Separate settled law from recommendation, policy, pending litigation and dated status.
- Present the strongest democratic, federal, independence or accountability counterpoint.
