

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 1/8: 1. Definition and possibility test

CAN RELIGION EXIST WITHOUT A CREATOR GOD?

religion may organise:

ultimate concern | sacred value | ritual | community | moral discipline

worldview | transformation | liberation

THEISM is sufficient for many religions, not conceptually necessary for all test a tradition by doctrine + practice + soteriology, not by a Western creator template

TRAP: non-theistic != atheistic; silence, irrelevance and denial are different positions.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 2/8: 2. Four negative positions

ATHEISM: denies that God exists

AGNOSTICISM: suspends judgement because knowledge/evidence is insufficient

NON-THEISM: God is absent or non-central to the path

ANTI-THEISM: holds God-belief harmful or false in a stronger evaluative sense

IGNOSTICISM: “God” must be made meaningful before existence is debated practical atheism: life organised without reference to God keep epistemic suspension separate from metaphysical denial.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 3/8: 3. Buddhism

FOUR NOBLE TRUTHS -> dependent origination -> eightfold path -> nirvāṇa

no eternal creator is needed; suffering has conditioned causes, not divine decree

devas may occur in cosmology but are impermanent and unsaving

Buddha rejects speculative questions when they do not conduce to cessation of duḥkha

objection: karma/order functions like hidden providence

reply: causal-moral regularity is impersonal; no omnipotent allocator or creator follows.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 4/8: 4. Jainism, Mīmāṃsā and Sāṃkhya

JAINISM: eternal jīva/ajīva; karmic matter; tīrthaṅkara teaches, not creates

MĪMĀṂSĀ: authorless eternal Veda; ritual action generates apūrva; no divine author needed

SĀṂKHYA: prakṛti evolves for plural puruṣas; unconscious teleology without creator shared anti-creator pressure: if God is perfect, why create? if embodied, who made body?

distinctions: Jainism retains worshipful exemplars; Mīmāṃsā centres dharma/ritual;

Sāṃkhya centres discriminative metaphysics and kaivalya.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 5/8: 5. Cārvāka as limit case

CĀRVĀKA denies God, afterlife, karma, Vedic authority and mokṣa embodied this-worldly flourishing replaces salvation

DOES IT COUNT AS RELIGION?

doctrinal-historical member of Indian philosophical debate: YES sacred/transcendent/soteriological practice in robust sense: largely NO limit case shows that “philosophy without God” is easier than “religion without God”;

Buddhism/Jainism better preserve ritual, community and liberation functions.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 6/8: 6. Nietzsche and post-theism

“GOD IS DEAD” = collapse of the Christian-metaphysical value horizon

danger: nihilism, herd morality exposed, no transcendent guarantor task: revaluation of values -> self-overcoming -> life-affirmation

not a simple empirical proof that no deity exists objection: self-created values risk arbitrariness or domination

reply: genealogy tests inherited values; affirmative creation accepts responsibility

POST-THEISM asks what religious depth survives after classical supernatural belief.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 7/8: 7. Naturalism and fictionalism

RELIGIOUS NATURALISM: nature is ultimate; awe, gratitude, ritual and ethics without supernaturalism

FICTIONALISM: participate in God-language/practice without literal ontological assent

SEA OF FAITH / non-realism: religious symbols shape life rather than report a transcendent entity objections: worship without real object is make-believe; prayer loses address; truth is sacrificed replies: symbols and communal narratives can disclose value and transform conduct pressure remains: can function alone preserve religion's claim to truth and transcendence?

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 8/8: 8. PYQ and qualified verdict

DEFINE religion by clustered features -> distinguish four negative positions

-> demonstrate Buddhism/Jainism/Mīmāṃsā/Sāṃkhya -> use Cārvāka boundary

-> Nietzsche/post-theism -> naturalism/fictionalism -> objection on truth/object

VERDICT BY CRITERION

creator-belief necessary? NO | ultimate concern/ritual/transformation possible? YES

personal worship and providence preserved? often NO

CLOSE: religion without God is coherent, but not religion without any ultimate value, disciplined practice, communal form or account of transformation.
