STAGE 00 OFFICIAL BOUNDARY AND THE TWO-AXIS CONTROL

OFFICIAL BOUNDARY AND THE TWO-AXIS CONTROL GENERATED 2026-08-27 APPROVAL FALSE OFFICIAL CLAUSE ANALOGICAL AND SYMBOLIC; COGNITIVIST AND NON-COGNITIVE HOW DOES A PREDICATE REFER? DOES THE UTTERANCE STATE A TRUTH?

"GOD IS GOOD" MAY BE ANALOGICAL AND COGNITIVE AT

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- IDENTITY → learner-v2:g12
- generated 2026-08-27
- approval FALSE

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- OFFICIAL CLAUSE → analogical and symbolic; cognitivist and non-cognitive
- HOW DOES A PREDICATE REFER?
- DOES THE UTTERANCE STATE A TRUTH?

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- CONTROL → "God is good" may be ANALOGICAL and COGNITIVE at once.
- Never infer truth-status from semantic mode or semantic mode from use.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Separate semantic mode from truth-aptness: analogy or symbol explains how a statement signifies, not by itself whether it is true.

STAGE 01 AQUINAS AND SCOTUS: CONTINUITY WITHOUT COLLAPSE

AQUINAS AND SCOTUS CONTINUITY WITHOUT COLLAPSE PURE PERFECTION EXISTS IN GOD ESSENTIALLY AND EMINENTLY RES PERFECTION SIGNIFIED APPLIES TRULY TO GOD MODUS SIGNIFICANDI CREATURE-DERIVED MANNER REMAINS INADEQUATE AQUINAS REJECTS

SYSTEM / DOCTRINE

- AQUINAS → pure perfection exists in God ESSENTIALLY AND EMINENTLY res significata = perfection signified applies truly to
- God modus significandi = creature-derived manner remains inadequate

DECISIVE DISTINCTION

- Aquinas REJECTS: "God is good" merely means God causes goodness later Thomist/Cajetan: attribution and proportionality systematisation
- SCOTUS → semantic, NOT ontological, univocity secures valid inference one common concept; FINITE / INFINITE INTRINSIC MODES preserve the gulf

EVALUATION / TRAP

- TRADE-OFF → univocity risks anthropomorphism; analogy risks indeterminacy.
- AQUINAS → pure perfection exists in God ESSENTIALLY AND EMINENTLY res significata = perfection signified applies truly to

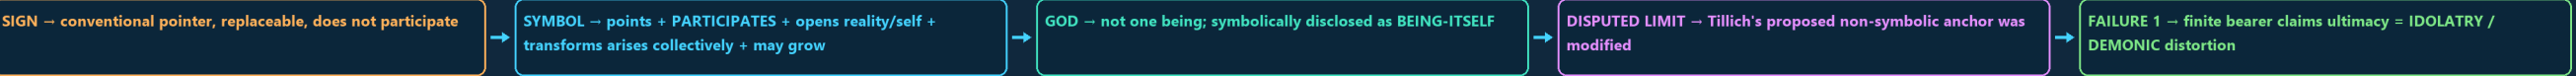

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Aquinas preserves real predication through causal participation, while Scotus secures inference through semantic—not ontological—univocity.

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- SIGN → conventional pointer, replaceable, does not participate
- SYMBOL → points + PARTICIPATES + opens reality/self + transforms arises collectively + may grow and die
- GOD → not one being; symbolically disclosed as BEING-ITSELF

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- DISPUTED LIMIT → Tillich's proposed non-symbolic anchor was modified
- FAILURE 1 → finite bearer claims ultimacy = IDOLATRY / DEMONIC distortion
- FAILURE 2 → unconstrained participation = vague or circular reference

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- VERDICT → symbolic realism needs participation and referential discipline.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Tillichian symbols participate and transform rather than merely point, but symbolic realism still owes a disciplined referent.

03

STAGE 03 VERIFICATION, FALSIFICATION AND THE COGNITIVE SPECTRUM

VERIFICATION, FALSIFICATION AND THE COGNITIVE SPECTRUM COGNITIVE REALISM CLAIMS MAY BE TRUE OR FALSE; ANALOGY CAN QUALIFY UNVERIFIABLE THEOLOGY IS LITERALLY MEANINGLESS WHAT COULD COUNT AGAINST IT? DEATH BY A THOUSAND

03

STAGE 03 VERIFICATION, FALSIFICATION AND THE COGNITIVE SPECTRUM

VERIFICATION, FALSIFICATION AND THE COGNITIVE SPECTRUM

COGNITIVE REALISM

CLAIMS MAY BE TRUE OR FALSE; ANALOGY CAN QUALIFY

UNVERIFIABLE THEOLOGY IS LITERALLY MEANINGLESS

WHAT COULD COUNT AGAINST IT? DEATH BY A THOUSAND

NON-FACTUAL WORLD-ORIENTATION CAN STILL GOVERN LIFE

TRUTH-APT DEFEASIBLE TRUST ADMITS ADVERSE EVIDENCE

ESCHATOLOGICAL VERIFICATION

DOCTRINE / CLAIM

- COGNITIVE REALISM → claims may be true or false; analogy can qualify mode
- AYER → unverifiable theology is literally meaningless
- FLEW → what could count against it? death by a thousand qualifications

OBJECTION / PRESSURE

- HARE → blik: non-factual world-orientation can still govern life
- MITCHELL → partisan: truth-apt DEFEASIBLE TRUST admits adverse evidence
- HICK → eschatological verification: confirmable at the journey's end

REPLY / RESIDUAL

- BRAITHWAITE → moral commitment; constructive, not Ayer's elimination
- CONTROL → unverifiability is not automatically a formal contradiction.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Ayer questions verification, Flew falsification, Hare offers bliks, Mitchell defeasible trust and Hick possible eschatological confirmation.

04

STAGE 04 BRAITHWAITE AND QUALIFIED WITTGENSTEINIAN USE

BRAITHWAITE AND QUALIFIED WITTGENSTEINIAN USE

LATER WITTGENSTEINIANS

LANGUAGE-GAME, GRAMMAR AND FORM OF LIFE

D. Z. PHILLIPS

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- BRAITHWAITE → "God is love" avows an AGAPEISTIC MORAL POLICY stories sustain intention; strength = conduct; risk = reductionism
- WITTGENSTEIN'S LECTURES → Last Judgement differs from ordinary prediction
- LATER WITTGENSTEINIANS → language-game, grammar and form of life

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- D. Z. PHILLIPS → resisted reductionist/simple non-cognitivist labels
- OBJECTION → internal grammar can become fideistic insulation
- REPLY → use explains intelligibility, not automatic truth or immunity

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- VERDICT → practical force may supplement rather than erase assertion.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Braithwaite captures moral commitment and Wittgensteinian grammar captures life-orientation, but neither should erase believers' realist intent.

SPEECH ACTS, RAMSEY AND MIMAMSA

LOCUTIONARY CONTENT

ILLOCUTIONARY FORCE

PERLOCUTIONARY EFFECT

SELF-INVOLVING LANGUAGE COMMITS SPEAKER AND CONSTITUTES RELATION

EVANS → SELF-INVOLVING language commits speaker and constitutes relation

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- AUSTIN → locutionary content
- illocutionary force
- perlocutionary effect
- EVANS → SELF-INVOLVING language commits speaker and constitutes relation

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- RAMSEY → ordinary MODEL + QUALIFIER → disclosure situation
- MIMAMSA → VIDHI has priority in disclosing DHARMA
- not all sastra is grammatically imperative
- MANTRA functions as ritual instrument sabda-nityatva = eternity of word/sound and word-meaning relation

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- GRAMMARIANS → classical SPHOTA (sentence-whole disclosure), especially Bharthari
- CONTROL → performative force does not by itself cancel cognitive content.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Performative and self-involving force can supplement cognitive content; Ramsey's model-and-qualifier stretches ordinary language without equivocation.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Braithwaite captures moral commitment and Wittgensteinian grammar captures life-orientation, but neither should erase believers' realist intent.

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- BRAHMAN → SAT, but NON-OBJECTIFIABLE; words turn back
- MAYA / WORLD-APPEARANCE → ANIRVACANIYA: neither absolutely real nor unreal
- NETI NETI (not this, not this) → ELIMINATIVE removal of finite limits

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- LAKSANA (indirect indication) → retain intended import when literal sense fails
- BHAGA-TYAGA → discard incompatible connotations in "tat tvam asi"
- SUBLATION → teaching language removes error like a thorn, then is cancelled

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- TRAP → never call Brahman neither real nor unreal in maya's technical sense.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Advaita negates and indirectly indicates, Ramanuja affirms real attributes, Buddhism uses conventional truth and Jainism qualifies standpoint.

- SELF-EFFACEMENT → possible IMMEDIACY beyond mediation
- OMKARA: A-U-M → waking/dream/deep sleep → soundless AMATRA / TURIYA

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- COUNTER-CASE idolatry arrests
- KATZ: symbols constitute experience
- iconoclasm deletes ethics, inquiry and grace show NON-NECESSITY; no symbol guarantees mysticism

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- VERDICT → normal and powerful route, but neither necessary nor sufficient.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Symbol may lead toward mysticism by becoming self-effacing, but it can also arrest in literalism or constitute experience from the start.
