Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922) - Learner-v2 Complete Learning Session

SOURCE, PROGRESSION AND CURRENT-LINKAGE AUDIT

- Repository owners queried: Basic and Advanced Markdown for this topic, the master chronology, syllabus map and linked Modern History owners.
- OCR book evidence queried: OCR-based verification for this pass relies on the repository's already-authored Basic and Advanced Markdown owners for Non-Cooperation and Khilafat, themselves grounded in Bipin Chandra's Modern India (Chapter XV) and India's Struggle for Independence. This authoring pass does not re-open the source PDFs to assert new page numbers beyond what those owners already state, to avoid citing an unverified page reference. One exception was made to verify the withdrawal-historiography debate: knowledge-export/History/INDIA STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE - - BIPIN C ENG.md (around lines 8062-8230) was re-opened and confirms R. Palme Dutt's India Today class-protection thesis (that Gandhi withdrew to shield propertied landlord-capitalist interests from a radicalising peasantry) alongside Bipin Chandra's own rebuttal (that the Chauri Chaura crowd showed no anti-property intent, that agrarian unrest was already ebbing by late 1921, and that withdrawal pre-empted government repression rather than protected property). The same OCR page records the incident one calendar day earlier than this package's verified date; that internal figure is superseded here using the Prime Minister's official centenary-linked commemorative material and Sekhar Bandyopadhyay's Plassey to Partition (OCR p.305), both of which independently confirm 4 February 1922, while the 12 February 1922 Bardoli withdrawal date is unaffected and confirmed in the same source.
- Qdrant: not used; Markdown plus searchable local PDFs were sufficient.
- PYQ integrity: Four 2025 Prelims GS-I demands (Q12, Q20, Q71, Q73) and one 2026 Prelims GS-I demand (Q9) are routed to this topic. The 2025 Series-A answer key is confirmed directly from the local official answer-key PDF (books/prelima_question_paper_answers/Ans-2025-GS1.pdf, page 1, header 'CS(P)-2025 Series A'), not from the garbled Markdown/OCR export: Q12 = C, Q20 = C, Q71 = B and Q73 = B. The 2026 Set-A key remains explicitly provisional, so no answer is recorded or inferred for Q9. The 2021 GS-I Mains demand on Gandhi's constructive programmes is solved as a bounded model, with its Civil Disobedience Movement portion cross-referenced rather than invented here. 'Sedition has become my religion' (2025 Q71, confirmed key B = the Dandi Salt Law breach) is explicitly out of scope for this topic's core content and is routed only as a trap; it belongs to the 1930 Dandi phase.
- Bounded live linkage: Gujarat Vidyapith held its 72nd convocation (Padvidaan) on 27 August 2026 at Ahmedabad, with Union Home Minister Amit Shah as chief guest and Governor Acharya Devvrat presiding as Chancellor; the address invoked Gandhi's educational philosophy (hands, heart and mind; his eleven vows and seven social sins) for the roughly 900 graduating students. This is retained only as a live Gandhi institution-building and public-memory bridge for the constructive-programme institutions named in this package. Gujarat Vidyapith was founded in 1920, so 2026 marks its 106th year, not a centenary; this package does not describe the 2026 convocation as a centenary of the institution's founding, and the bridge supplies no new fact about the 1919-1922 Non-Cooperation and Khilafat sequence itself.
- Fact/inference rule: historical claims are source-backed; analytical judgements are explicitly framed as interpretation and do not invent figures.

EVIDENCE, PYQ AND CURRENT-STATUS CONTROL

- Official and primary evidence: Acts, charters, treaties, proclamations, committee reports, proceedings, organisational resolutions, speeches and contemporary records are dated and read for authorship and purpose.
- Regional and social evidence: petitions, newspapers, memoirs, local studies and material geography qualify elite or all-India generalisation.
- Economic and quantitative evidence: revenue, trade, price, wage, craft and mortality claims retain unit, region, period and uncertainty; statistics are never invented.
- Scholarly interpretation: historian schools are competing explanations tied to named evidence, not memorised verdicts.
- PYQ discipline: repository ledgers and locally held official papers control wording and metadata; reconstructed wording and unavailable official keys remain explicitly labelled.
- Current-status note, rechecked 2026-09-04: Gujarat Vidyapith held its 72nd convocation (Padvidaan) on 27 August 2026 at Ahmedabad, with Union Home Minister Amit Shah as chief guest and Governor Acharya Devvrat presiding as Chancellor; the address invoked Gandhi's educational philosophy (hands, heart and mind; his eleven vows and seven social sins) for the roughly 900 graduating students. This is retained only as a live Gandhi institution-building and public-memory bridge for the constructive-programme institutions named in this package. Gujarat Vidyapith was founded in 1920, so 2026 marks its 106th year, not a centenary; this package does not describe the 2026 convocation as a centenary of the institution's founding, and the bridge supplies no new fact about the 1919-1922 Non-Cooperation and Khilafat sequence itself.

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Precise definition: The 1919-20 convergence is the joint effect of wartime distress, the Rowlatt-Jallianwala reform-repression contradiction and the emerging Khilafat question, together making Non-Cooperation politically possible.

Technical definition: Prelims: Do not read Non-Cooperation as caused by a single event; it drew on wartime distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and the Khilafat question together.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

- Setting
- wartime distress
- Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger
- Khilafat emergence
- Precise definition

How to use them: Frame the answer through FOUNDATION; define Setting, connect wartime distress with Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger to explain the mechanism, and use Khilafat emergence for the decisive comparison or qualification.

VISUAL FIRST

SETTING: WARTIME DISTRESS, ROWLATT-JALLIANWALA ANGER AND KHILAFAT EMERGENCE
1919 -> wartime distress + Rowlatt Act + Jallianwala Bagh harden opinion

1920 -> Gandhi links Khilafat to Swaraj to build Hindu-Muslim unity
SEP 1920 -> Calcutta Special Session adopts Non-Cooperation
DEC 1920 -> Nagpur Congress ratifies the programme and reorganises Congress

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: The 1919-20 convergence is the joint effect of wartime distress, the Rowlatt-Jallianwala reform-repression contradiction and the emerging Khilafat question, together making Non-Cooperation politically possible.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

By 1920 several separate grievances converged into one political mood: wartime economic distress and the reform-repression contradiction from Rowlatt and Jallianwala Bagh, and the emerging Khilafat question over the Ottoman Caliph's post-war treatment, together made a mass anti-British movement politically possible for the first time.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Wartime price rises, recruitment pressure and continuing coercive powers had already discredited the promise of gradual reform.
- Rowlatt's exceptional powers and the Jallianwala Bagh massacre of April 1919 had destroyed confidence in imperial justice.
- Indian Muslims feared harsh Allied treatment of the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph after the First World War and the Treaty of Sevres, feeding the Khilafat agitation.
- A Khilafat Committee was already active before the securely dated All-India Khilafat Conference at Delhi in November 1919.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not read Non-Cooperation as caused by a single event; it drew on wartime distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and the Khilafat question together.

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Mains: Use named leaders and the Delhi Conference to answer any demand asking for Khilafat's aims, leadership or organisation.

Technical definition: The Khilafat movement was a political mobilisation on a religious question: it sought to defend the Ottoman Caliph's temporal and religious authority, and its organised leadership pre-dated and then used the November 1919 Delhi Conference to threaten withdrawal of cooperation.

LEADERS -> Mohammad Ali, Shaukat Ali, Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan, Hasrat Mohani

NOV 1919 -> Delhi Conference threatens withdrawal of cooperation

RULE -> a political-religious mobilisation, not a Hindu movement

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: The Khilafat movement was a political mobilisation defending the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph's authority, organised under named leaders and given public form at the November 1919 Delhi Conference.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

The Khilafat movement was a political mobilisation on a religious question: it sought to defend the Ottoman Caliph's temporal and religious authority, and its organised leadership pre-dated and then used the November 1919 Delhi Conference to threaten withdrawal of cooperation.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Khilafat leadership included Maulana Mohammad Ali and Shaukat Ali (the Ali Brothers), Maulana Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan and Hasrat Mohani.
- The All-India Khilafat Conference at Delhi in November 1919 threatened withdrawal of cooperation if Khilafat demands were rejected.
- A Khilafat Committee already existed before this Conference; the Conference should not be mistaken for the movement's founding moment.
- The issue was political-religious, not a Hindu religious campaign, and not confined to a single region.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not describe Khilafat as a Hindu movement or as purely religious; it was a Muslim political mobilisation on an international religious-political question.

SESSION 3 - FOUNDATION - GANDHI'S ALLIANCE LOGIC FOR KHILAFAT-CONGRESS UNITY

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Precise definition: Gandhi's alliance logic is the deliberate linking of the Khilafat grievance to the Swaraj demand to build Hindu-Muslim political unity, accepting the risk that the alliance's foundation lay outside India's control.

Technical definition: Gandhi treated Khilafat as a moral opportunity to build unity and widen mobilisation beyond the educated political class.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

VISUAL FIRST

GANDHI'S ALLIANCE LOGIC FOR KHILAFAT-CONGRESS UNITY

KHILAFAT GRIEVANCE -> emotionally resonant anti-imperial issue for Muslims

GANDHI'S LINK -> ties Khilafat to Swaraj as a joint national demand

EFFECT -> widens anti-British mobilisation beyond a narrow political class

RISK -> unity rests on an international issue India does not control

LATER -> 1924 abolition of the Caliphate exposes this fragility

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: Gandhi's alliance logic is the deliberate linking of the Khilafat grievance to the Swaraj demand to build Hindu-Muslim political unity, accepting the risk that the alliance's foundation lay outside India's control.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

Gandhi linked the Khilafat grievance to the domestic demand for Swaraj because it offered an emotionally resonant, genuinely popular anti-imperial cause among Indian Muslims, and joining it to Congress's programme promised the deepest Hindu-Muslim political cooperation of the colonial period.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Gandhi treated Khilafat as a moral opportunity to build unity and widen mobilisation beyond the educated political class.
- The alliance was tactical and principled at once: Gandhi believed supporting a genuine Muslim grievance was owed regardless of its political usefulness.
- The alliance rested on an issue decided by Turkish and international politics, not by Indian nationalists.
- This structural dependence made the unity powerful in 1920-21 but vulnerable to events outside India's control.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not treat Khilafat-NCM unity as guaranteed or permanent; assess both its strength and its structural fragility together.

EXAM LINK

- Prelims: Do not treat Khilafat-NCM unity as guaranteed or permanent; assess both its strength and its structural fragility together.
- Mains: This session supplies the 'basis of alliance' step in any Khilafat-unity evaluation answer.

NEXT STEP -> ratification still required

DEC 1920 -> Nagpur ratifies

RULE -> Calcutta adopted; Nagpur ratified; do not merge the two

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: The Calcutta Special Session was the September 1920 Congress meeting that formally adopted the Non-Cooperation programme, distinct from its later Nagpur ratification.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

The Calcutta Special Session of September 1920 formally adopted the Non-Cooperation programme, converting the convergence of Khilafat, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and wartime distress into an organised national campaign of withdrawal of cooperation from the colonial state.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The Session took place in September 1920, ahead of the regular annual Congress session.
- Adoption at Calcutta made Non-Cooperation the Congress's own programme rather than only Gandhi's personal campaign.
- The decision required later ratification, which came at Nagpur in December 1920.
- Adoption at a Special Session reflected the urgency created by the Khilafat and Punjab grievances.

EXAMINER CAUTION

CORE EXPLANATION

The Nagpur Congress of December 1920 not only ratified the Non-Cooperation programme but also reorganised the Congress itself into a mass-political organisation with linguistic provincial committees, an All India Congress Committee and a stronger Working Committee, supported by a low membership fee.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Linguistic provincial congress committees aligned the organisation with the units in which Indians actually spoke and organised.
- The All India Congress Committee (AICC) and a stronger Working Committee gave Congress continuous, not just annual, leadership capacity.
- A low membership fee opened Congress membership beyond professional and propertied classes.

Technical definition: Non-Cooperation's boycott stage drew in social groups well beyond the educated political elite that had led earlier constitutional agitation: students left schools and colleges, lawyers suspended court practice, traders boycotted foreign cloth, and women joined picketing and khadi work.

CORE EXPLANATION

Non-Cooperation's boycott stage drew in social groups well beyond the educated political elite that had led earlier constitutional agitation: students left schools and colleges, lawyers suspended court practice, traders boycotted foreign cloth, and women joined picketing and khadi work.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Student withdrawal from government schools and colleges gave the boycott its most visible early symbol.
- Lawyers who suspended practice included prominent Congress leaders as well as local practitioners.
- Traders' boycott of foreign cloth linked the economic and political dimensions of the campaign.
- Women's participation in picketing and khadi work widened the movement's social base beyond earlier agitations.

CORE EXPLANATION

Alongside boycott, Gandhi's constructive programme of khadi, charkha, swadeshi, national education, panchayats and Hindu-Muslim unity built durable institutions and a rural cadre that outlasted the boycott's reversal.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- National educational institutions founded in this phase include Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith and Bihar Vidyapith.
- Khadi and charkha work built an alternative economic practice around swadeshi.
- Panchayats for settling disputes offered an alternative to colonial courts.

LEADERSHIP -> Madari Pasi, outside Congress-Khilafat discipline

BASE -> tenants plus many small zamindars

END -> severe official repression closes the movement by March 1922

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

The Eka, or unity, movement in the United Provinces shows peasants adopting the moral vocabulary of the national movement while organising around their own agrarian grievances and developing leadership independent of Congress and Khilafat discipline.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Grievances included rent generally fifty per cent above the recorded rent, the oppression of thekedars to whom rent-collection was farmed out, and share-rents.
- Ganges-oath meetings bound peasants to pay only the recorded rent, on time, and to refuse forced labour and ejection.
- Madari Pasi and other low-caste leaders led the movement and did not accept Congress-Khilafat non-violent discipline, so its contact with nationalist leadership diminished.
- Unlike the earlier Kisan Sabha, which rested mainly on tenants, Eka included many small zamindars disenchanted with the revenue demand.

The Mappila rebellion in Malabar, beginning in August 1921, grew from agrarian grievances over tenure and rents and gained early impetus from the Malabar District Congress Conference at Manjeri in April 1920, but it progressively acquired a communal character that damaged the wider Khilafat-Congress alliance.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Grievances concerned lack of security of tenure, renewal fees, high rents and other landlord exactions.
- The Malabar District Congress Conference at Manjeri in April 1920 gave the movement early nationalist impetus.
- As the rebellion progressed it acquired a communal character, straining the Hindu-Muslim unity built around Khilafat.

ANSWER-GRABBING FORMULATION: Core claim: The Mappila rebellion in Malabar, beginning in August 1921, grew from agrarian grievances over tenure and rents and gained early impetus from the Malabar District Congress Conference at Manjeri in April 1920, but it progressively acquired a communal character that damaged the wider Khilafat-Congress alliance.

SESSION 12 - CORE - BARDOLI AND THE PLANNED MASS CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Precise definition: The Bardoli plan is Gandhi's announced but never launched design to concentrate the programme's final escalation stage in one disciplined taluqa.

Technical definition: Core claim: Gandhi announced that the final escalation stage, mass civil disobedience and tax refusal, would begin selectively in Bardoli taluqa of Surat district, with the rest of the country maintaining discipline so attention could concentrate there, converting Bardoli into the symbolic threshold of the whole movement.

VISUAL FIRST

BARDOLI AND THE PLANNED MASS CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

PLAN -> mass civil disobedience announced for Bardoli taluqa, Surat district

LOGIC -> concentrate escalation in one disciplined taluqa

STATUS -> never launched; Chauri Chaura intervenes first

LATER -> Bardoli's own no-tax satyagraha under Patel waits until 1928

RULE -> the 1922 plan and the 1928 satyagraha are distinct events

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: The Bardoli plan is Gandhi's announced but never launched design to concentrate the programme's final escalation stage in one disciplined taluqa.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

Gandhi announced that the final escalation stage, mass civil disobedience and tax refusal, would begin selectively in Bardoli taluqa of Surat district, with the rest of the country maintaining discipline so attention could concentrate there, converting Bardoli into the symbolic threshold of the whole movement.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The plan concentrated escalation in one taluqa rather than launching it nationwide at once.
- Bardoli was chosen precisely because it could be closely organised and disciplined.
- The plan was never launched because Chauri Chaura intervened before the escalation date.
- Bardoli itself waited until 1928 for its own no-tax satyagraha under Vallabhbhai Patel, a distinct later campaign.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not confuse the 1922 Bardoli escalation plan with the 1928 Bardoli Satyagraha; they are six years and one organisational logic apart.

EXAM LINK

- Prelims: Do not confuse the 1922 Bardoli escalation plan with the 1928 Bardoli Satyagraha; they are six years and one organisational logic apart.
- Mains: Use the Bardoli plan to explain exactly why the escalation ladder's fifth stage remained untested.

MINI RECAP

- Core claim: Gandhi announced that the final escalation stage, mass civil disobedience and tax refusal, would begin selectively in Bardoli taluqa of Surat district, with the rest of the country maintaining discipline so attention could concentrate there, converting Bardoli into the symbolic threshold of the whole movement.

SESSION 13 - CORE SYNTHESIS - CHAURI CHAURA AND THE WITHDRAWAL

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Precise definition: Chauri Chaura is the 4 February 1922 violent clash whose breach of non-violent discipline led Gandhi to secure the Working Committee's 12 February 1922 withdrawal resolution.

Technical definition: The withdrawal resolution is named the Bardoli resolution because it was passed where mass civil disobedience was to have begun.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

OUTCOME -> police station burnt; twenty-two policemen killed

MAR 1922 -> Gandhi arrested and sentenced to six years' imprisonment

RULE -> violence caused withdrawal; weakness of the movement did not

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: Chauri Chaura is the 4 February 1922 violent clash whose breach of non-violent discipline led Gandhi to secure the Working Committee's 12 February 1922 withdrawal resolution.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

On 4 February 1922 a Congress-Khilafat procession at Chauri Chaura in Gorakhpur district clashed with police and then attacked and burned the police station, killing twenty-two policemen; Gandhi responded by persuading the Congress Working Committee to ratify withdrawal of Non-Cooperation on 12 February 1922 in what became known as the Bardoli resolution.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The violence at Chauri Chaura directly contradicted the movement's foundational commitment to non-violent discipline.
- Gandhi withdrew the movement because of this violence, not because the movement itself was weak.
- The withdrawal resolution is named the Bardoli resolution because it was passed where mass civil disobedience was to have begun.
- Gandhi was arrested in March 1922 and sentenced to six years' imprisonment.

EXAMINER CAUTION

VISUAL FIRST

ACHIEVEMENTS AND LIMITS OF NON-COOPERATION

GAIN -> first genuinely all-India mass movement; reorganised Congress

GAIN -> durable institutions, khadi network and trained rural cadre

COST -> boycott proved reversible; Swarajists reverse it in 1923

COST -> the escalation ladder's final stage was never tested

VERDICT -> graded assessment, not simple success or failure

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or comparison before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: A graded verdict on Non-Cooperation weighs its unprecedented mass mobilisation and durable institutions against its reversible boycott and untested final stage.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Non-Cooperation & the Khilafat Movement (1919-1922); preserve the named actors, date and institutional setting.

CORE EXPLANATION

Non-Cooperation was India's first genuinely all-India mass movement and left a reorganised Congress and durable constructive institutions, but its boycott programme proved reversible and it never reached the fifth, most confrontational stage of the escalation ladder.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Achievement: unprecedented participation of students, lawyers, traders, peasants and women in one national campaign.
- Achievement: Nagpur's reorganisation and the constructive programme's institutions survived the movement's withdrawal.
- Limit: the Swarajists formally reversed the council boycott in 1923, showing how reversible that stage was.
- Limit: the movement was withdrawn precisely at the point where it would have moved from symbolic to fiscal confrontation.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Give a graded verdict; do not call the movement either a simple failure or a simple success.

Technical definition: Non-Cooperation's withdrawal opened a strategic debate that split Congress between Swarajists and No-changers, pushed some younger activists toward revolutionary politics, and coincided with the slow unravelling of Khilafat-based Hindu-Muslim unity, completed when the Caliphate was abolished in 1924.

Non-Cooperation's withdrawal opened a strategic debate that split Congress between Swarajists and No-changers, pushed some younger activists toward revolutionary politics, and coincided with the slow unravelling of Khilafat-based Hindu-Muslim unity, completed when the Caliphate was abolished in 1924.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The withdrawal debate produced the Swarajist and No-changer positions within Congress, covered in the next topic.
- Some younger activists, disillusioned with the withdrawal, drifted toward revolutionary and later socialist politics.
- The Khilafat alliance's foundation outside Indian control was exposed when Mustafa Kemal abolished the Caliphate in 1924.
- These threads carry directly into the Swarajist, constructive and revolutionary streams of the 1920s.

MODERN HISTORY DEEP-REVIEW CORE CONTROL

- Must remember: Khilafat mobilisation and Non-Cooperation converged in 1920; the Calcutta special and Nagpur Congress sessions authorised stages of boycott before Chauri Chaura on 5 February 1922 and withdrawal.
- Close distinction: Withdrawal followed Gandhi's non-violence criterion but its wisdom was contested; the Moplah rebellion of 1921 cannot be reduced to either pure agrarianism or a single communal label.
- Evidence / interpretation limit: Congress records, Khilafat voices, local agrarian evidence and participant memoirs reveal uneven class, caste, gender and regional mobilisation rather than a seamless national awakening.

TOPIC 20 CLOSING NON-COOPERATION-KHILAFAT LEDGER

Topic 20 owns the 1919-22 Khilafat and Non-Cooperation convergence, Congress authorisation, programme, social spread, constructive institutions, local variation and withdrawal debate. Topic 19 owns Rowlatt-Jallianwala; Topic 21 owns Swarajists, No-changers and 1920s revolutionary organisations.

Keep the Khilafat grievance, committees/delegations and Gandhi's alliance logic distinct from the Congress programme. The sequence is Calcutta Khilafat Conference (November 1919) -> Treaty of Sevres context -> Calcutta Special Session (September 1920) -> Nagpur ratification/reorganisation (December

1920. -> Tilak Swaraj Fund and mass boycott (1921) -> Moplah rebellion

(1921) -> Chauri Chaura (4 February 1922) -> Bardoli withdrawal decision (12 February 1922). Swarajya Sabha was the renamed Home Rule body, not the Swaraj Party founded in 1923.

The movement's stages, khadi/charkha, national education, panchayats, titles, council/court/school/cloth boycott and conditional escalation require exact separation. Assess uneven peasant, worker, trader, student, women, caste and regional participation. Treat Moplah as agrarian, anti-colonial and communal violence in combination, and present the Gandhi versus R. Palme Dutt/Bipan Chandra withdrawal debate with attributed evidence.

Three 2025 direct Prelims routes have locally confirmed Series-A keys; 2026 Q9 remains routed and unkeyed, while the 2021 constructive-programme Mains route is bounded across Non-Cooperation and Civil Disobedience.

Answer: post-war convergence -> Khilafat alliance -> Congress adoption -> graded programme and constructive alternative -> social/regional spread -> violence and discipline crisis -> withdrawal debate -> achievement, limits and Topic 21 strategic vacuum.

Khilafat leadership included Maulana Mohammad Ali, Shaukat Ali, Maulana Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan and Hasrat Mohani, with a Khilafat Committee already active before the November 1919 Delhi conference.

Answer: C. Explanation: Gandhi persuaded the Congress Working Committee to ratify withdrawal of Non-Cooperation on 12 February 1922 in the resolution known as the Bardoli resolution, named for the place where escalation had been planned. This distinction preserves the source-backed chronology and prevents cross-matching errors in UPSC elimination.

Q72. Which statement avoids a common matching trap about Withdrawal and Bardoli resolution?

A. Khilafat leadership included Maulana Mohammad Ali, Shaukat Ali, Maulana Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan and Hasrat Mohani, with a Khilafat Committee already active before the November 1919 Delhi conference. B. Indian Muslims feared harsh Allied treatment of the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph after the First World War and the Treaty of Sevres, feeding the Khilafat agitation. C. The All-India Khilafat Conference at Delhi in November 1919 threatened withdrawal of cooperation if Khilafat demands were rejected. D. Gandhi persuaded the Congress Working Committee to ratify withdrawal of Non-Cooperation on 12 February 1922 in the resolution known as the Bardoli resolution, named for the place where escalation had been planned.

This distinction preserves the source-backed chronology and prevents cross-matching errors in UPSC elimination.

Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Gandhi's arrest and Caliphate abolition?

A. Gandhi was arrested in March 1922 and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, and the Caliphate was abolished by Mustafa Kemal in 1924, ending the Khilafat issue. B. Indian Muslims feared harsh Allied treatment of the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph after the First World War and the Treaty of Sevres, feeding the Khilafat agitation. C. By 1920 wartime economic distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and the emerging Khilafat question converged to make an all-India mass movement politically possible for the first time. D. Non-Cooperation was the first genuinely all-India mass movement and left a reorganised Congress and durable institutions, but boycott proved reversible, Hindu-Muslim unity proved fragile after 1924, and the withdrawal opened the Swarajist-No-changer debate and a revolutionary drift among younger activists. The withdrawal itself remains a directly sourced historiographical debate: R. Palme Dutt's class-protection thesis in India Today reads it as Gandhi shielding propertied landlord-capitalist interests from a radicalising peasantry, while Bipin Chandra's own rebuttal counters that the Chauri Chaura crowd showed no anti-property intent, that agrarian unrest was already ebbing by late 1921, and that withdrawal pre-empted repression rather than protected property.

Answer: A. Explanation: Gandhi was arrested in March 1922 and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, and the Caliphate was abolished by Mustafa Kemal in 1924, ending the Khilafat issue. This distinction preserves the source-backed chronology and prevents cross-matching errors in UPSC elimination.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q12

Demand: Consider four subjects with regard to the Non-Cooperation Programme (boycott of law courts and foreign cloth; observance of strict non-violence; retention of titles and honours without public use; establishment of panchayats for settling disputes) and identify how many were parts of the programme.

Status: official-key-confirmed

Model solution / safe handling: Official Series-A key: C, verified directly from books/prelima_question_paper_answers/Ans-2025-GS1.pdf page 1 (header 'CS(P)-2025 Series A'), not from the garbled Markdown/OCR export. Use the escalation ladder to reason to the same option: boycott of law courts and foreign cloth belonged to the boycott stages, and panchayats for settling disputes belonged to the constructive programme; strict non-violence was an insisted method rather than a listed programme item in the same institutional sense, and retention of titles without public use contradicts the programme, which required surrender of titles.

Demand decoding: Treat “PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q12” as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: Fix the tested time window; separate event/enactment/commencement; match each actor and provision; eliminate the closest distractor with one named record, treaty, session or regional fact.

Why this earns marks: It preserves exact chronology and answer-text mapping, uses named evidence and keeps inferred elimination distinct from an official key.

How to improve this answer: For “PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q12”, add one explicit line showing why the nearest distractor fails on date, legal status, geography, attribution or degree.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q20

Demand: Assess two statements on the Non-Cooperation Movement: that Congress declared attainment of Swaraj by all legitimate and peaceful means as its objective, and that implementation was staged, moving to civil disobedience and non-payment of taxes only if Swaraj did not come within a year and government resorted to repression.

Status: official-key-confirmed

Model solution / safe handling: Official Series-A key: C, verified directly from books/prelima_question_paper_answers/Ans-2025-GS1.pdf page 1 (header 'CS(P)-2025 Series A'), not from the garbled Markdown/OCR export. Both statements match this package's own record of the declared objective and the conditional final escalation stage, consistent with the confirmed key.

Demand decoding: Treat “PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q20” as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 3 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q73

Demand: Official Set-A wording (verbatim, knowledge-export/Prelims PYQ/2025-GS1-Set A.md, line 3119 onward): 'Who provided legal defence to the people arrested in the aftermath of Chauri Chaura incident? (a) C. R. Das (b) Madan Mohan Malaviya and Krishna Kant (c) Dr. Saifuddin Kitchlew and Khwaja Hasan Nizami (d) M. A. Jinnah.'

Status: official-key-confirmed

Model solution / safe handling: Official Series-A key: B (Madan Mohan Malaviya and Krishna Kant Malaviya), verified directly from books/prelima_question_paper_answers/Ans-2025-GS1.pdf page 1 (header 'CS(P)-2025 Series A'), not from the garbled Markdown/OCR export whose Series A block previously appeared to break off with no key rows. No source book held in this repository otherwise records who led the legal defence of the Chauri Chaura accused, so this option is presented strictly as the confirmed official key rather than as independently corroborated historical narrative; the owning Basic Markdown records the same bounded distinction. What is otherwise verified and usable is the incident, the twenty-two policemen killed, the withdrawal decision and the Bardoli resolution.

Demand decoding: Treat "PYQ DEMAND CARD 3 - 2025 Prelims GS-I Q73" as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 4 - 2026 Prelims GS-I Q9

Demand: Distinguish the Eka Movement from the Bardoli Satyagraha on relation to Congress, social composition, grievance and organisation.

Status: routed-key-unavailable

Model solution / safe handling: Eka grew out of Congress-Khilafat contact but developed its own low-caste leadership under Madari Pasi with diminishing nationalist contact, while the 1928 Bardoli Satyagraha was a tightly disciplined, Congress-organised no-tax satyagraha under Vallabhbhai Patel; grievance and organisation also differed sharply. The locally held 2026 Set-A key is explicitly provisional, so no option or answer is recorded or inferred.

Demand decoding: Treat "PYQ DEMAND CARD 4 - 2026 Prelims GS-I Q9" as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: Fix the tested time window; separate event/enactment/commencement; match each actor and provision; eliminate the closest distractor with one named record, treaty, session or regional fact.

Why this earns marks: It preserves exact chronology and answer-text mapping, uses named evidence and keeps inferred elimination distinct from an official key.

How to improve this answer: For "PYQ DEMAND CARD 4 - 2026 Prelims GS-I Q9", add one explicit line showing why the nearest distractor fails on date, legal status, geography, attribution or degree.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 5 - 2021 GS-I Q12

Demand: Official wording (verbatim, knowledge-export/Mains

PYQ/QP-CSM-21-GENSTUDIESPAPER-I-110122.pdf.md): 'Bring out the constructive programmes of Mahatma Gandhi during Non-Cooperation Movement and Civil Disobedience Movement. (Answer in 250 words)'.

Status: bounded-model

Model solution / safe handling: For the Non-Cooperation Movement, cover khadi, charkha, swadeshi, national schools (Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith, Bihar Vidyapith), panchayats for dispute settlement, Hindu-Muslim unity and temperance; the Civil Disobedience Movement's constructive programme belongs analytically to the later 1930s topic and should be cross-referenced there rather than invented in this package.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "PYQ DEMAND CARD 5 - 2021 GS-I Q12", coverage of every clause, chronological-causal analysis, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis; organise five named Acts, events, organisations, regions, primary records or scholarly positions as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes dates and policy stages, connects evidence to mechanism, recognises regional/social variation and avoids teleology or hero worship.

How to improve this answer: For "PYQ DEMAND CARD 5 - 2021 GS-I Q12", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named primary/official record or attributed scholarly interpretation and state exactly what it cannot prove.

ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS

Question: Why did the Khilafat issue give Gandhi a workable platform for Hindu-Muslim unity in 1920? Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Khilafat offered an emotionally resonant, genuinely popular anti-imperial cause among Indian Muslims, and Gandhi's link to Swaraj converted a religious grievance into shared national action, though its foundation outside Indian control made the unity structurally fragile.

Evidence spine:

- Indian Muslims feared harsh Allied treatment of the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph after the First World War and the Treaty of Sevres, feeding the Khilafat agitation.
- Khilafat leadership included Maulana Mohammad Ali, Shaukat Ali, Maulana Azad, Hakim Ajmal Khan and Hasrat Mohani, with a Khilafat Committee already active before the November 1919 Delhi conference.
- The All-India Khilafat Conference at Delhi in November 1919 threatened withdrawal of cooperation if Khilafat demands were rejected.
- Gandhi linked the Khilafat issue to Swaraj to build Hindu-Muslim unity and widen anti-British mobilisation beyond a narrow political class.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Khilafat offered an emotionally resonant, genuinely popular anti-imperial cause among Indian Muslims, and Gandhi's link to Swaraj converted a religious grievance into shared national action, though its foundation outside Indian control made the unity structurally fragile.

Question: Distinguish the boycott programme from the constructive programme of Non-Cooperation. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: The boycott programme was visible and nationwide but reversible within two years, while the constructive programme of khadi, education and unity work built durable institutions and cadre that outlasted the movement's withdrawal.

Evidence spine:

- The programme escalated through renunciation of titles, boycott of schools, courts and councils, economic boycott of foreign cloth, constructive work, and a final planned stage of mass civil disobedience and tax refusal.
- The boycott phase produced durable national institutions including Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith and Bihar Vidyapith.
- The constructive programme of khadi, charkha, swadeshi, national education, panchayats and Hindu-Muslim unity built an alternative moral economy alongside boycott.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: The boycott programme was visible and nationwide but reversible within two years, while the constructive programme of khadi, education and unity work built durable institutions and cadre that outlasted the movement's withdrawal.

Question: Assess the Eka movement and the Malabar rebellion as evidence of popular initiative beyond the Congress programme. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Both show local agrarian mobilisation adopting the moral vocabulary of the national movement while developing leadership and trajectories independent of Congress-Khilafat discipline, with Malabar's later communal turn qualifying any simple nationalist reading.

Evidence spine:

- The Eka, or unity, movement in the United Provinces protested rent generally fifty per cent above the recorded rent, the oppression of thekedars, and share-rents, developing its own leadership under Madari Pasi and other leaders who did not accept Congress-Khilafat non-violent discipline.
- Eka included many small zamindars alongside tenants and was suppressed by severe official repression by March 1922, marking its autonomy from Congress control.
- The Mappila rebellion in Malabar from August 1921 grew from grievances over tenure security, renewal fees and high rents, gaining early impetus from the Malabar District Congress Conference at Manjeri in April 1920, but later acquired a communal character that damaged the Khilafat-Congress alliance.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Both show local agrarian mobilisation adopting the moral vocabulary of the national movement while developing leadership and trajectories independent of Congress-Khilafat discipline, with Malabar's later communal turn qualifying any simple nationalist reading.

Demand decoding: The directive assess requires a direct position on "Assess the Eka movement and the Malabar rebellion as evidence of popular initiative beyond...", coverage of every clause, chronological-causal analysis, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis; organise five named Acts, events, organisations, regions, primary records or scholarly positions as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes dates and policy stages, connects evidence to mechanism, recognises regional/social variation and avoids teleology or hero worship.

How to improve this answer: For "Assess the Eka movement and the Malabar rebellion as evidence of popular initiative beyond...", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named primary/official record or attributed scholarly interpretation and state exactly what it cannot prove.

Question: Was Gandhi's withdrawal after Chauri Chaura a strategic necessity or a lost opportunity? Examine. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Judged by Gandhi's own premises the withdrawal was obligatory once mass violence broke non-violent discipline; judged by momentum it was costly, though Bardoli's planned escalation remained untested rather than defeated. R. Palme Dutt's class-protection thesis reads the withdrawal as shielding propertied interests from a radicalising peasantry, but Bipin Chandra's rebuttal shows the Chauri Chaura crowd had no anti-property intent and that agrarian unrest was already ebbing, making a discipline-based reading more defensible.

Evidence spine:

- Gandhi announced that mass civil disobedience and tax refusal would begin selectively in Bardoli taluqa of Surat district, with the rest of the country maintaining discipline so attention could concentrate there.
- On 4 February 1922 a Congress-Khilafat procession at Chauri Chaura in Gorakhpur district clashed with police, then attacked and burned the police station, killing twenty-two policemen.

- Gandhi persuaded the Congress Working Committee to ratify withdrawal of Non-Cooperation on 12 February 1922 in the resolution known as the Bardoli resolution, named for the place where escalation had been planned.
- Gandhi was arrested in March 1922 and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, and the Caliphate was abolished by Mustafa Kemal in 1924, ending the Khilafat issue.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Question: Critically evaluate Non-Cooperation as both India's first mass movement and a fragile experiment in Hindu-Muslim unity. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: The movement mobilised an unprecedented social base and reorganised Congress permanently, but its unity rested on an issue decided abroad, and the Caliphate's 1924 abolition exposed that dependence within two years of the alliance's peak.

Evidence spine:

- By 1920 wartime economic distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and the emerging Khilafat question converged to make an all-India mass movement politically possible for the first time.
- Gandhi linked the Khilafat issue to Swaraj to build Hindu-Muslim unity and widen anti-British mobilisation beyond a narrow political class.
- The Nagpur Congress of December 1920 ratified Non-Cooperation and reorganised Congress with linguistic provincial committees, an AICC and a stronger Working Committee.
- The boycott phase produced durable national institutions including Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith and Bihar Vidyapith.
- Gandhi was arrested in March 1922 and sentenced to six years' imprisonment, and the Caliphate was abolished by Mustafa Kemal in 1924, ending the Khilafat issue.
- Non-Cooperation was the first genuinely all-India mass movement and left a reorganised Congress and durable institutions, but boycott proved reversible, Hindu-Muslim unity proved fragile after 1924, and the withdrawal opened the Swarajist-No-changer debate and a revolutionary drift among younger activists. The withdrawal itself remains a directly sourced historiographical debate: R. Palme Dutt's class-protection thesis in India Today reads it as Gandhi shielding propertied landlord-capitalist interests from a radicalising peasantry, while Bipin Chandra's own rebuttal counters that the Chauri Chaura crowd showed no anti-property intent, that agrarian unrest was already ebbing by late 1921, and that withdrawal pre-empted repression rather than protected property.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: The movement mobilised an unprecedented social base and reorganised Congress permanently, but its unity rested on an issue decided abroad, and the Caliphate's 1924 abolition exposed that dependence within two years of the alliance's peak.

Question: Trace the sequence from the post-1919 convergence to the 1922 withdrawal and identify what the movement achieved and left unresolved. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: Wartime distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and Khilafat converged into Calcutta and Nagpur's decisions, escalated through a staged programme, and were withdrawn at Chauri Chaura before the final confrontation was tested, leaving durable institutions but an unresolved constitutional conflict.

Evidence spine:

- By 1920 wartime economic distress, Rowlatt-Jallianwala anger and the emerging Khilafat question converged to make an all-India mass movement politically possible for the first time.
- The Calcutta Special Session of September 1920 adopted the Non-Cooperation programme.
- The Nagpur Congress of December 1920 ratified Non-Cooperation and reorganised Congress with linguistic provincial committees, an AICC and a stronger Working Committee.
- The programme escalated through renunciation of titles, boycott of schools, courts and councils, economic boycott of foreign cloth, constructive work, and a final planned stage of mass civil disobedience and tax refusal.
- On 4 February 1922 a Congress-Khilafat procession at Chauri Chaura in Gorakhpur district clashed with police, then attacked and burned the police station, killing twenty-two policemen.

1. Snapshot & core idea

Deeper - Non-Cooperation changed the social base of nationalism.

- FACT: India's Struggle for Independence emphasises that NCM brought students, lawyers, peasants, workers, traders, women and local leaders into a national political rhythm.
- FACT: The boycott of foreign cloth and promotion of khadi converted the economic critique of colonialism into daily political practice.
- FACT: The Nagpur reorganisation transformed Congress from an annual deliberative body into a movement organisation with provincial committees, membership and a Working Committee.
- ANALYSIS: The movement's strength lay in flexible local translation: in some areas it meant khadi and schools, in others peasant protest or anti-liquor picketing.

Deeper - Khilafat unity was powerful but unstable.

- FACT: Gandhi supported Khilafat to create Hindu-Muslim unity and to make anti-imperialism emotionally resonant among Indian Muslims.

- FACT: The alliance temporarily overcame communal divides, but it rested on a religious-symbolic issue outside India whose fate was decided by Turkish politics.
- ANALYSIS: The collapse of the Caliphate in 1924 exposed the fragility of unity built around a contingent international issue.
- ANALYSIS: Chauri Chaura became the classic test of Gandhian politics: whether mass energy should be restrained when it threatens non-violent discipline.

2. Key classification / data

Debate / feature	Advanced understanding
FACT: Mass character	First all-India movement with major participation beyond educated elites
FACT: Constructive work	Khadi, charkha, national schools and panchayats created an alternative moral economy
FACT: Congress restructuring	Linguistic PCCs, AICC, Working Committee and low membership fee enabled wider reach
FACT: Khilafat alliance	Anti-imperial unity through the Ottoman Caliph issue and Muslim leadership
FACT: Chauri Chaura	Violence at local level forced Gandhi to choose principle over momentum
ANALYSIS: Withdrawal debate	Critics saw retreat; Gandhi saw moral preparation as essential to Swaraj
ANALYSIS: Subaltern dimension	Local peasants often interpreted NCM through their own grievances against police, landlords and officials

5. UPSC Traps

MEMORY: Trap: The movement was both national and local; do not describe it as either pure Gandhian discipline or pure spontaneous revolt.

- WRONG: NCM was only an elite boycott of councils. -> FACT: It became a broad mass movement with students, peasants, workers, women and traders.

- WRONG: Khilafat guaranteed permanent Hindu-Muslim unity. -> FACT: It produced temporary unity but was vulnerable to communal politics and Turkish developments.
- WRONG: Gandhi's withdrawal was universally accepted. -> FACT: Many leaders and activists criticised it as premature.
- WRONG: Chauri Chaura was irrelevant to national strategy. -> FACT: It defined Gandhi's insistence on non-violence as a condition of mass politics.
- WRONG: Constructive work was secondary decoration. -> FACT: For Gandhi, khadi and social reconstruction were central to Swaraj.

6. CURRENT: Current link

- ANALYSIS: Civil resistance and ethical protest. NCM is an evergreen hook for current debates on peaceful protest, boycotts, moral legitimacy and the limits of mass anger in democratic politics. (Escalate to CURRENT: when pegged to a verified news item.)
- CURRENT: Gujarat Vidyapith's 72nd convocation (27 August 2026). Union Home Minister Amit Shah addressed graduates invoking Gandhi's educational philosophy, with Governor Acharya Devvrat presiding as Chancellor. This is a live Gandhi institution-building and public-memory bridge for the constructive-programme institutions named in Section 4 only; Gujarat Vidyapith was founded in 1920, so 2026 is its 106th year, not a centenary, and the bridge adds no new fact about 1919-1922 Non-Cooperation itself.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 2/12: Khilafat leadership and demand

ISSUE -> defence of the Ottoman Sultan-Caliph after WWI and the Treaty of Sevres

KHILAFAT GRIEVANCE -> emotionally resonant anti-imperial issue for Indian Muslims
GANDHI'S LINK -> ties Khilafat to Swaraj as a joint national demand
EFFECT -> widens anti-British mobilisation beyond a narrow political class
RISK -> unity rests on an international issue India does not control
LATER -> 1924 abolition of the Caliphate exposes this fragility.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 4/12: Calcutta-to-Nagpur double decision

SEP 1920 CALCUTTA SPECIAL SESSION -> adopts Non-Cooperation programme
DEC 1920 NAGPUR CONGRESS -> ratifies the programme
REORGANISATION -> linguistic provincial committees, AICC, stronger Working Committee

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 7/12: Constructive programme and institutions

PROGRAMME -> khadi, charkha, swadeshi, national education, panchayats, unity
INSTITUTIONS -> Jamia Millia Islamia, Kashi Vidyapith, Gujarat Vidyapith, Bihar Vidyapith

RITUAL -> Ganges-oath meetings bind peasants to pay recorded rent on time
LEADERSHIP -> Madari Pasi and other local leaders, outside Congress-Khilafat discipline
BASE -> tenants plus many small zamindars aggrieved by revenue demand
END -> severe official repression closes the movement by March 1922.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 10/12: Malabar trajectory

APR 1920 -> Malabar District Congress Conference at Manjeri gives early impetus
GRIEVANCE -> insecure tenure, renewal fees, high rents under landlord exactions
AUG 1921 -> Mappila rebellion begins in Malabar
SHIFT -> local mobilisation later acquires a communal character
EFFECT -> damages the wider Khilafat-Congress alliance; not communal from the start.
CLOSE DISTINCTION: Withdrawal followed Gandhi's non-violence criterion but its wisdom was contested; the Moplah rebellion of 1921 cannot be reduced to either pure agrarianism or a single communal label.

PLAN -> mass civil disobedience announced for Bardoli taluqa, Surat district
4 FEB 1922 -> Chauri Chaura procession clashes with police in Gorakhpur district
OUTCOME -> police station burnt; twenty-two policemen killed
12 FEB 1922 -> Working Committee ratifies withdrawal: the Bardoli resolution
MAR 1922 -> Gandhi arrested and sentenced to six years' imprisonment.
EVIDENCE LIMIT: Congress records, Khilafat voices, local agrarian evidence and participant memoirs reveal uneven class, caste, gender and regional mobilisation rather than a seamless national awakening.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 12/12: Balance sheet and 1920s bridge

GAIN -> first genuinely all-India mass movement; reorganised Congress
GAIN -> durable institutions, khadi network and trained rural cadre
COST -> boycott proved reversible; council boycott reversed by Swarajists in 1923
