Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942) - Learner-v2 Complete Learning Session

SOURCE, PROGRESSION AND CURRENT-LINKAGE AUDIT

- Repository owners queried: Basic and Advanced Markdown for this topic, the master chronology, syllabus map and linked Modern History owners.
- OCR book evidence queried: The Basic and Advanced owner files were reconciled with the repository's constitutional and political-history OCR sources for the Second World War period, the August Offer, the Cripps Mission and the Quit India Movement; the 'post-dated cheque' quotation is retained only in its shorter, better-attested form.
- Qdrant: not used; Markdown plus searchable local PDFs were sufficient.
- PYQ integrity: The exact 2024 Mains GS-I Q3 stem is taken verbatim from knowledge-export/Mains PYQ/UPSC Mains 2024 GS Paper I.md and cross-confirmed against _PYQ-ROUTING-MAINS-GS1-GS2-ESSAY-2024-2025.md. The 2021 Prelims Q43 and 2022 Prelims Q54 entries are recorded as routing-ledger demand summaries from _PYQ-ROUTING-PRELIMS-2018-2023.md rather than verbatim stems, and no answer letter is asserted for either because no official stem or key is held locally.
- Bounded live linkage: A verified InsightsIAS current-affairs page dated 8 August 2026 on the Quit India Movement is used only as a restrained study-relevance bridge; any incidental claim of an official parliamentary or government tribute could not be independently verified against any official source, so this package treats it strictly as private-website study commentary and makes no claim about any 2026 official or parliamentary tribute.
- Fact/inference rule: historical claims are source-backed; analytical judgements are explicitly framed as interpretation and do not invent figures.

BASIC LEARNING SESSION

DEEP-REVIEW LEARNING CONTRACT

Control	Binding rule for this package
Syllabus boundary	Complete Modern History Core is taught chronologically and causally before optional enrichment.
Evidence method	Claim -> named Act/treaty/record/organisation/person/region or scholarly evidence -> analysis -> qualification.
Date discipline	Event, proposal, enactment, commencement, official policy, implementation and later interpretation remain distinct.
Historiography	Colonial, nationalist, Marxist, subaltern, Cambridge, feminist and other relevant arguments are attributed and tested, never used as labels alone.
Practice contract	Every solved item has demand decoding, an examiner-grade model, an executable answer/compression plan, marks rationale and answer-specific improvement.
Approval	This immutable successor remains approved: false pending explicit approval.

EVIDENCE, PYQ AND CURRENT-STATUS CONTROL

- Official and primary evidence: Acts, charters, treaties, proclamations, committee reports, proceedings, organisational resolutions, speeches and contemporary records are dated and read for authorship and purpose.
- Regional and social evidence: petitions, newspapers, memoirs, local studies and material geography qualify elite or all-India generalisation.
- Economic and quantitative evidence: revenue, trade, price, wage, craft and mortality claims retain unit, region, period and uncertainty; statistics are never invented.
- Scholarly interpretation: historian schools are competing explanations tied to named evidence, not memorised verdicts.
- PYQ discipline: repository ledgers and locally held official papers control wording and metadata; reconstructed wording and unavailable official keys remain explicitly labelled.
- Current-status note, rechecked 2026-08-31: A verified InsightsIAS current-affairs page dated 8 August 2026 on the Quit India Movement is used only as a restrained study-relevance bridge; any incidental claim of an official parliamentary or government tribute could not be independently verified against any official source, so this package treats it strictly as private-website study commentary and makes no claim about any 2026 official or parliamentary tribute.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Precise definition: Unconsulted belligerency refers to the Viceroy's 3 September 1939 declaration of India as a party to the war without any prior consultation of Indian political opinion.
- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942); retain the named actor, institution, date and chronological role.

- No Indian political party, leader or elected provincial legislature was consulted before the declaration.
- The absence of consultation, not the war itself, became the immediate political grievance.
- This single unconsulted act set the tone for Congress's response through the following months.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Congress ministries resigned between October and November 1939 in protest at the unconsulted declaration.
- The Muslim League observed 22 December 1939 as a Deliverance Day marking the resignations.
- The Lahore Resolution followed in March 1940 as a later, connected but distinct development.

- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942); retain the named actor, institution, date and chronological role.

CORE EXPLANATION

The August Offer of 8 August 1940 promised an expanded, more representative post-war constitution-making body, but attached a minority-consent condition that functioned as an effective veto and offered no immediate national government.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The Offer was announced on 8 August 1940 by the colonial government.
- It proposed a more representative body to design a post-war constitution.
- It promised that no future constitution would be adopted without the consent of India's minorities.

- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942); retain the named actor, institution, date and chronological role.

CORE EXPLANATION

Individual Satyagraha, beginning 17 October 1940, was a deliberately narrow campaign with a named first and second satyagrahi and a limited anti-war free-speech objective, not a mass movement.

- His proposals were announced in late March 1942.
- They offered Dominion status for India after the war ended.

Plain-language definition: Precise definition: The opt-out clause let provinces and princely states decline to join the proposed post-war Indian union, while princely representation in the constitution-making body was by ruler nomination rather than election.

Technical definition: Core claim: Two design features of the Cripps scheme drew heavy criticism: provinces and princely states could opt out of the future union, and princely representation would come through ruler nomination, not election.

|-- PRINCELY SEATS -> members nominated by rulers, not popularly elected
EFFECT -> both features fuelled objections from different political groups.

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or boundary before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942); retain the named actor, institution, date and chronological role.

CORE EXPLANATION

Two design features of the Cripps scheme drew heavy criticism: provinces and princely states could opt out of the future union, and princely representation would come through ruler nomination, not election.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Any province could opt out of the new Indian union the constitution-making body might create.
- Any princely state could similarly not accede to that union.
- Princely states would be represented in the constitution-making body by members nominated by their rulers.
- No popularly elected process determined princely representation under this scheme.

CORE EXPLANATION

Alongside its post-war promises, the Cripps scheme kept defence and the general conduct of the war firmly under British control and offered no immediate responsible national cabinet.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Defence and the general conduct of the war remained under British control for the duration of the war.
- No immediate responsible national cabinet was created by the proposals.
- Real executive power during the war stayed with the Viceroy and British authorities.
- This wartime-control feature is distinct from, and additional to, the opt-out and princely-nomination features already covered.

CORE EXPLANATION

Every major political formation rejected the Cripps proposals, but for different, not identical, reasons rooted in each group's own priorities.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Congress objected to the deferred, conditional nature of the offer and the absence of immediate responsible government.
- The Muslim League objected that the scheme did not guarantee a separate Pakistan.

LONGER VERSION -> adds a crashing bank -> provenance uncertain, use cautiously

RULE -> applies to Cripps only, never to the 1940 August Offer.

The visual fixes this subtopic's chronology, mechanism or boundary before the evidence.

CONCEPT DEFINITIONS

- Topic boundary: Apply this definition only within Second World War, the Cripps Mission & Quit India (1939-1942); retain the named actor, institution, date and chronological role.

CORE EXPLANATION

Gandhi's remark on the Cripps proposals is best used in its shorter, better-attested form; the longer version adding a crashing bank carries uncertain provenance and should be used only with that caveat.

EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- The short phrase describing the offer as a post-dated cheque is widely and reliably quoted.
- A longer version adding a crashing bank is commonly repeated but its exact wording and occasion are less certain.
- This package therefore uses only the shorter phrase as safely attested.
- The phrase applies specifically to the Cripps proposals, never to the earlier August Offer.

EXAMINER CAUTION

MODERN HISTORY DEEP-REVIEW CORE CONTROL

- Must remember: India was declared at war on 3 September 1939; the August Offer, Individual Satyagraha, Cripps Mission of March-April 1942 and Quit India resolution of 8 August 1942 were different constitutional-political moments.
- Close distinction: Cripps offered a post-war constitution-making route with a provincial non-accession option, not immediate full independence; Quit India combined central arrests with decentralised underground and parallel action.
- Evidence / interpretation limit: Official repression records, underground communications, local rebellions and the 1943 Bengal famine context qualify both leaderless-chaos and perfectly coordinated-revolution narratives.

Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Post-dated cheque phrase and its provenance?

A. Gandhi's remark that the offer was like a post-dated cheque is commonly quoted in its short form; the longer phrase adding a 'crashing bank' is widely repeated but its exact wording and occasion carry uncertain provenance, so this package uses only the shorter, better-attested phrase and applies it solely to the Cripps proposals, never to the August Offer. B. Gandhi's 8 August 1942 call to 'Do or Die' set the movement's tone, and Aruna Asaf Ali is associated with hoisting the Congress flag at Gowalia Tank in Bombay after the leadership's arrest. C. Quit India was suppressed by the government within months through mass arrests and force, and it did not by itself win India's independence, but it demonstrated the depth of popular anti-colonial sentiment; a verified 2024 Mains GS-I question asks what events led to the Quit India Movement and its results, and this package treats that question as its primary anchor. D. The Viceroy declared war on Germany on 3 September 1939; the Viceroy simultaneously declared India a belligerent without consulting any Indian political leader or elected legislature.

Answer: A. Explanation: The movement combined student, worker and peasant participation with regional variation in intensity and included both sabotage of communication lines and Congress's own non-violent creed; repression was harsh, but this package avoids stating unsupported exact casualty or arrest totals. This distinction preserves the source-backed chronology and prevents cross-matching errors in UPSC elimination.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2024 Mains GS-I Q3

Demand: What were the events that led to the Quit India Movement? Point out its results. (Answer in 150 words) [UPSC Mains 2024 GS Paper I.md]

Status: official-mains-question-verbatim-confirmed

Model solution / safe handling: Trace unconsulted belligerency (3 September 1939), the ministries' resignation and the Lahore Resolution chain, the August Offer's limits, Individual Satyagraha, the Cripps Mission's rejection by every major group, and the two-stage Quit India resolution (Wardha 14 July, Bombay 8 August 1942) as the events; state the results as swift suppression through Operation Zero Hour without the movement alone winning independence, alongside its lasting demonstration of popular anti-colonial sentiment.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2024 Mains GS-I Q3", coverage of every clause, chronological-causal analysis, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis; organise five named Acts, events, organisations, regions, primary records or scholarly positions as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes dates and policy stages, connects evidence to mechanism, recognises regional/social variation and avoids teleology or hero worship.

How to improve this answer: For "PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2024 Mains GS-I Q3", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named primary/official record or attributed scholarly interpretation and state exactly what it cannot prove.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2021 Prelims GS-I Q43

Demand: Quit India Resolution adopted August 1942 AICC (routing-ledger demand summary; exact stem not held locally) [_PYQ-ROUTING-PRELIMS-2018-2023.md]

Status: official-stem-verbatim-unavailable-neutral-demand-only

Model solution / safe handling: Use only the routed demand theme - the AICC's August 1942 ratification of the Quit India Resolution at Bombay on 8 August 1942 - for revision; no verbatim stem or answer letter is asserted because neither is held locally.

Demand decoding: Treat "PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2021 Prelims GS-I Q43" as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: Fix the tested time window; separate event/enactment/commencement; match each actor and provision; eliminate the closest distractor with one named record, treaty, session or regional fact.

Why this earns marks: It preserves exact chronology and answer-text mapping, uses named evidence and keeps inferred elimination distinct from an official key.

How to improve this answer: For “PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2021 Prelims GS-I Q43”, add one explicit line showing why the nearest distractor fails on date, legal status, geography, attribution or degree.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 3 - 2022 Prelims GS-I Q54

Demand: Cripps Mission proposals for Indian constitution and provinces (routing-ledger demand summary; exact stem not held locally) [PYQ-ROUTING-PRELIMS-2018-2023.md]

Status: official-stem-verbatim-unavailable-neutral-demand-only

Model solution / safe handling: Use only the routed demand theme - the Cripps proposals' post-war constitution-making body and the province/princely-state opt-out clause - for revision; no verbatim stem or answer letter is asserted because neither is held locally.

Demand decoding: Treat “PYQ DEMAND CARD 3 - 2022 Prelims GS-I Q54” as a statement-level chronology and attribution problem: verify every date, Act/provision, person, organisation, region and causal claim independently, without inventing an official key.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved analysis above is the executable content base. Preserve its exact chronology, named evidence, causal logic, counter-position and qualification.

ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS

Question: Explain how India's unconsulted entry into the Second World War as a belligerent connected to the Congress ministries' resignation and the subsequent chain of party responses. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Unilateral belligerency without consultation supplied the direct trigger for resignation, which the Muslim League marked separately through its own Deliverance Day before the Lahore Resolution followed months later as a connected, not identical, response.

Evidence spine:

- The Viceroy declared war on Germany on 3 September 1939; the Viceroy simultaneously declared India a belligerent without consulting any Indian political leader or elected legislature.
- Congress ministries resigned between October and November 1939 in protest; the Muslim League observed 22 December 1939 as a Deliverance Day, and the Lahore Resolution of March 1940 followed as one link in a chain of connected party responses rather than one simple cause.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Unilateral belligerency without consultation supplied the direct trigger for resignation, which the Muslim League marked separately through its own Deliverance Day before the Lahore Resolution followed months later as a connected, not identical, response.

Demand decoding: The directive explain requires a direct position on “Explain how India's unconsulted entry into the Second World War as a belligerent connected...”, coverage of every clause, chronological-causal analysis, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified verdict.

ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS

Question: Distinguish the August Offer of 1940 from the Cripps proposals of 1942 in their treatment of post-war constitution-making and immediate self-government. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Both offers deferred real power to a post-war constitution-making process, but the August Offer's minority-consent condition and the Cripps opt-out and nomination clauses reveal two distinct, non-identical designs for managing minority and princely consent.

Evidence spine:

- The August Offer of 8 August 1940 proposed an expanded, more representative body for post-war constitution-making and promised that minority views would be given full weight, but it did not offer an immediate national government.
- Sir Stafford Cripps arrived in India in March 1942 and announced his proposals in late March 1942, offering Dominion status after the war and a constitution-making body to be convened once the war ended.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Both offers deferred real power to a post-war constitution-making process, but the August Offer's minority-consent condition and the Cripps opt-out and nomination clauses reveal two distinct, non-identical designs for managing minority and princely consent.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Distinguish the August Offer of 1940 from the Cripps proposals of 1942 in their treatment...”, coverage of every clause, chronological-causal analysis, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified verdict.

ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS

Question: Critically examine why the Cripps proposals of 1942 were rejected by every major political formation in India. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Deferred post-war Dominion status, an opt-out clause, ruler-nominated princely representation and continued British wartime control together gave Congress, the League and other groups distinct, non-identical grounds for rejection.

Evidence spine:

- The Cripps proposals allowed any province, or any princely state, to opt out of, or not accede to, the new Indian union that the post-war constitution-making body might create.
- Princely states would be represented in the proposed constitution-making body by members nominated by their rulers rather than by any popularly elected process.
- The Cripps proposals kept defence and the general conduct of the war under British control for the war's duration and offered no immediate responsible national cabinet.
- Congress objected to the deferred and conditional nature of the offer, the League objected that it did not guarantee Pakistan, and Sikh, Hindu Mahasabha and some princely opinion raised separate objections, so the rejection was multi-party and not uniform in its reasoning.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Deferred post-war Dominion status, an opt-out clause, ruler-nominated princely representation and continued British wartime control together gave Congress, the League and other groups distinct, non-identical grounds for rejection.

Question: Examine the character and limited objective of Individual Satyagraha, distinguishing it clearly from a mass civil-disobedience movement. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Individual Satyagraha's narrow anti-war free-speech objective and its individually selected participants mark it as a deliberately restrained campaign, distinct in scale and method from the harsh but genuinely mass repression later associated with Quit India.

Evidence spine:

- Individual Satyagraha began on 17 October 1940 with Vinoba Bhave offering civil disobedience first, followed by Jawaharlal Nehru as the second satyagrahi, each individually courting arrest rather than launching mass action.
- Individual Satyagraha pursued a limited anti-war free-speech objective - the right to publicly oppose India's forced participation in the war - and must not be described as a mass movement.
- The movement combined student, worker and peasant participation with regional variation in intensity and included both sabotage of communication lines and Congress's own non-violent creed; repression was harsh, but this package avoids stating unsupported exact casualty or arrest totals.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Question: Critically examine the Cripps Mission's proposals of 1942 and the reasons for their rejection by different Indian political groups. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: The Cripps scheme combined a genuine post-war constitutional offer with an opt-out clause, ruler-nominated princely representation and continued British wartime control, producing a multi-party rejection whose reasoning differed sharply across Congress, the League and other groups.

Evidence spine:

- Sir Stafford Cripps arrived in India in March 1942 and announced his proposals in late March 1942, offering Dominion status after the war and a constitution-making body to be convened once the war ended.
- The Cripps proposals allowed any province, or any princely state, to opt out of, or not accede to, the new Indian union that the post-war constitution-making body might create.
- Princely states would be represented in the proposed constitution-making body by members nominated by their rulers rather than by any popularly elected process.
- The Cripps proposals kept defence and the general conduct of the war under British control for the war's duration and offered no immediate responsible national cabinet.
- Congress objected to the deferred and conditional nature of the offer, the League objected that it did not guarantee Pakistan, and Sikh, Hindu Mahasabha and some princely opinion raised separate objections, so the rejection was multi-party and not uniform in its reasoning.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: The Cripps scheme combined a genuine post-war constitutional offer with an opt-out clause, ruler-nominated princely representation and continued British wartime control, producing a multi-party rejection whose reasoning differed sharply across Congress, the League and other groups.

Question: Trace the full chain of developments from India's forced entry into the Second World War to the Quit India Movement, and evaluate the movement's immediate and long-term results. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: Unconsulted belligerency, the resignation-to-Lahore chain, the Cripps Mission's failure and the two-stage Quit India resolution together explain the movement's origins, while its swift suppression alongside its lasting demonstration of popular anti-colonial sentiment together define its results.

Evidence spine:

- The Viceroy declared war on Germany on 3 September 1939; the Viceroy simultaneously declared India a belligerent without consulting any Indian political leader or elected legislature.
- Sir Stafford Cripps arrived in India in March 1942 and announced his proposals in late March 1942, offering Dominion status after the war and a constitution-making body to be convened once the war ended.
- The Quit India resolution was adopted in two stages: the Congress Working Committee approved it at Wardha on 14 July 1942, and the All-India Congress Committee ratified it at Bombay on 8 August 1942 - a two-stage process that should never be collapsed into a single date.
- Quit India was suppressed by the government within months through mass arrests and force, and it did not by itself win India's independence, but it demonstrated the depth of popular anti-colonial sentiment; a verified 2024 Mains GS-I question asks what events led to the Quit India Movement and its results, and this package treats that question as its primary anchor.

Balance: Distinguish intention from outcome, identify regional or social variation, and avoid treating a formal measure as complete implementation.

Conclusion: Unconsulted belligerency, the resignation-to-Lahore chain, the Cripps Mission's failure and the two-stage Quit India resolution together explain the movement's origins, while its swift suppression alongside its lasting demonstration of popular anti-colonial sentiment together define its results.

1. Snapshot & core idea

Deeper - wartime politics made the Raj appear morally and administratively indefensible.

- FACT: India's Struggle for Independence presents the war years as a decisive phase in which imperial claims to defend democracy clashed with the denial of Indian self-government.
- FACT: The Congress response was not isolationist; it objected to being committed to war without a declaration that India would be free and without an immediate national government.
- FACT: The August Offer retained the Viceroy's control and gave minorities a practical veto, strengthening the colonial pattern of using communal safeguards to block national transfer of power.
- FACT: The Cripps proposals recognised constitution-making but weakened national unity by allowing British Indian provinces not to accept the new constitution; princely-state representation remained controlled by rulers rather than popular election.

Deeper - Quit India combined spontaneity, organisation and a new threshold of defiance.

- FACT: The arrest of the entire top leadership on 9 August 1942 produced a decentralised upsurge; local activists, students, workers, peasants and underground socialists carried the struggle forward.
- FACT: The movement included strikes, processions, attacks on railways and telegraphs, disruption of police stations, underground bulletins and clandestine radio broadcasts.
- FACT: Parallel governments at Ballia, Tamluk and Satara showed that Quit India was not merely protest; in pockets it attempted alternative authority.
- ANALYSIS: The movement's significance lay less in immediate success and more in making long-term British rule appear unworkable in the face of recurring mass refusal.

2. Key classification / data

Debate / dimension	Advanced takeaway
FACT: Congress war position	Support for anti-fascist principles required Indian freedom and responsible government
FACT: August Offer problem	Dominion goal postponed; minority veto entrenched; no immediate transfer
FACT: Cripps contradiction	Constitution-making conceded, but unity weakened by provincial non-accession and undemocratic princely-state representation
FACT: Spontaneity vs organisation	Leader arrests caused spontaneity; underground networks supplied continuity
FACT: Violence question	Sabotage and attacks occurred; official repression was severe; ideology remained anti-colonial mass resistance
FACT: Parallel governments	Ballia, Tamluk and Satara represented local experiments in national authority
FACT: Political alignments	Muslim League, Hindu Mahasabha and Communists did not join Congress-led Quit India
ANALYSIS: Historical significance	Final mass movement that convinced Britain that ruling India indefinitely was untenable

5. UPSC Traps

MEMORY: Trap: Quit India was not a simple centrally planned campaign; it became a leaderless but not purposeless mass upsurge after arrests.

- WRONG: The Cripps Mission accepted Pakistan. -> It did not create Pakistan, but the provincial option to stay out made partition implicit as a possibility.
- WRONG: Congress rejected Cripps because it opposed constitution-making. -> Congress rejected the lack of immediate self-government and the secession clause.
- WRONG: Quit India failed because British repression crushed it quickly. -> It failed as an immediate transfer strategy but succeeded in showing that rule required continuous coercion.

- WRONG: The Communists led Quit India. -> They stayed aloof because the Soviet Union's entry into war made it a People's War against fascism.
- WRONG: Parallel governments were symbolic only. -> Some performed local administrative, judicial and relief functions before repression.

6. CURRENT: Current link

- ANALYSIS: Civil liberties during national emergencies. Quit India's arrests, censorship and repression are an evergreen anchor for GS-2/GS-1 discussions on preventive detention, emergency powers and the legitimacy of mass civil resistance. (Escalate to CURRENT: when pegged to a verified news item.)

7. Mains angles

- ANALYSIS: GS-1: "Quit India was spontaneous, but not unorganised." Evaluate with reference to underground networks and parallel governments.
- ANALYSIS: GS-1: Examine whether the Cripps Mission failed because of British insincerity, Congress maximalism or communal deadlock.
- ANALYSIS: GS-1: Discuss the violence question in Quit India without losing sight of colonial repression and the larger anti-imperialist context.
- ANALYSIS: GS-1: Compare Non-Cooperation, Civil Disobedience and Quit India as three stages of Gandhian mass mobilisation.

 PROMISE -> expanded, representative post-war constitution-making body
 CONDITION -> no constitution without minority consent (effective veto)
 LIMIT -> no immediate national government offered.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 3/12: Individual Satyagraha: sequence and limited objective

17 OCT 1940 -> Vinoba Bhave, first satyagrahi
NEXT -> Jawaharlal Nehru, second satyagrahi
METHOD -> selected individuals publicly assert the right to oppose the war
OBJECTIVE -> limited anti-war free-speech right, not mass civil disobedience.

LATE MAR 1942 -> proposals announced
OFFER -> Dominion status after the war + post-war constitution-making body
LIMIT -> no change to India's status during the war itself.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 5/12: Cripps scheme: opt-out and princely nomination

OPT-OUT -> any province or princely state may not join the new union
PRINCELY SEATS -> members nominated by rulers, not popularly elected
UNION DESIGN -> accession would be negotiated after the war
EFFECT -> both features fuelled objections from different political groups.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 6/12: British wartime control and no immediate cabinet

DEFENCE + WAR CONDUCT -> remain under British control throughout the war
NATIONAL CABINET -> none created immediately
EXECUTIVE GAP -> Indian leaders receive no present control over the wartime state

CONGRESS -> deferred, conditional offer; no immediate responsible government
LEAGUE -> no guarantee of a separate Pakistan
SIKH / HINDU MAHASABHA -> separate minority and communal objections
PRINCELY OPINION -> concerns over opt-out and accession arrangements.

9 AUG 1942 (early hours) -> Operation Zero Hour: mass arrests begin
CONSEQUENCE -> central leadership is removed before an organised campaign develops
RULE -> within hours, on the following calendar day; not a full 24-hour gap.
CLOSE DISTINCTION: Cripps offered a post-war constitution-making route with a provincial non-accession option, not immediate full independence; Quit India combined central arrests with decentralised underground and parallel action.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 11/12: Do or Die, Gowalia Tank and underground resistance

8 AUG 1942 -> Gandhi's "Do or Die" call, before his arrest
GOWALIA TANK, BOMBAY -> Aruna Asaf Ali hoists the Congress flag
UNDERGROUND -> Usha Mehta's Congress Radio
UNDERGROUND -> Jayaprakash Narayan and Ram Manohar Lohia organise resistance.
EVIDENCE LIMIT: Official repression records, underground communications, local rebellions and the 1943 Bengal famine context qualify both leaderless-chaos and perfectly coordinated-revolution narratives.

ASCII MASTER FLOW - PANEL 12/12: Parallel governments, social base and results

PARALLEL GOVERNMENTS -> Ballia; Jatiya Sarkar (Tamluk); Prati Sarkar (Satara)
BASE -> students, workers, peasants; regionally variable intensity
ALIGNMENTS -> League aloof/opposed; CPI People's War line; Mahasabha/princes distant
