- WORLD: involuntary sensory ideas require an active cause; veracity blocks deception
- LIMIT: body-existence is stronger than exact resemblance of sensible qualities.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: God is the epistemic hinge of Cartesian reconstruction because divine non-deception extends clear and distinct certainty beyond the cogito, yet that hinge creates the Cartesian Circle.

STAGE 03 DESCARTES ON SUBSTANCE, INTERACTION AND FREEDOM

REAL DISTINCTION

CLEAR CONCEPTION OF EACH WITHOUT THE OTHER

GOD = INFINITE SUBSTANCE, ABSOLUTELY INDEPENDENT

RES COGITANS: attribute thought; modes include ideas and volitions

- RES EXTENSA: attribute extension; modes include shape and motion

→ REAL DISTINCTION: clear conception of each without the other

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- GOD = INFINITE SUBSTANCE, ABSOLUTELY INDEPENDENT
- RES COGITANS: attribute thought; modes include ideas and volitions
- RES EXTENSA: attribute extension; modes include shape and motion
- REAL DISTINCTION: clear conception of each without the other

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- SUBSTANTIAL UNION: one embodied person experiences cross-domain coordination
- OBJECTION: how can unextended mind cause extended motion? causal-closure pressure
- REPLY: primitive notion of union; RESIDUAL: no transparent mechanism
- OTHER MINDS: inferred through embodied behaviour, not given by the cogito

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- FREEDOM: will assents or withholds; error occurs when will outruns intellect
- LIMIT: created substances depend continuously on God.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — Clear and distinct conceivability supports real distinction, while the human union is treated as a primitive lived fact rather than a third substance.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Cartesian dualism gains conceptual clarity by separating thought from extension, but its success in distinction becomes its central causal problem because heterogeneous substances must still explain one life.

04

STAGE 04 SPINOZA'S SUBSTANCE-ATTRIBUTE-MODE HIERARCHY AND IMMANENT GOD

ACOSMISM; REPLY

MODES RETAIN DEPENDENT REALITY.

ONE SELF-CAUSED, NECESSARILY EXISTING, ABSOLUTELY INFINITE SUBSTANCE

= DEUS SIVE NATURA infinitely many ATTRIBUTES humans know THOUGHT and EXTENSION finite minds and

- ▶ GOD = immanent cause; whatever is, is in God; no external created realm

→ OBJECTION: acosmism; REPLY: modes retain dependent reality.

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- ONE SELF-CAUSED, NECESSARILY EXISTING, ABSOLUTELY INFINITE SUBSTANCE
- = DEUS SIVE NATURA infinitely many ATTRIBUTES humans know THOUGHT and EXTENSION finite minds and bodies are MODES

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- GOD = immanent cause; whatever is, is in God; no external created realm

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- ONE SELF-CAUSED, NECESSARILY EXISTING, ABSOLUTELY INFINITE SUBSTANCE
- = DEUS SIVE NATURA infinitely many ATTRIBUTES humans know THOUGHT and EXTENSION finite minds and bodies are MODES

MECHANISM / VERDICT — Because substance is conceived through itself and cannot be limited by another substance of the same nature, the system culminates in one infinite substance.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: All modes are in God by immanent necessity, yet no finite mode or finite aggregate is numerically identical with the whole infinite divine essence.

05

STAGE 05 SPINOZA'S PARALLELISM AND ROUTE FROM BONDAGE TO FREEDOM

NO CROSS-ATTRIBUTE CAUSAL TRANSFER; PARALLELISM REPLACES CARTESIAN INTERACTION

FINITE MODES ARE NECESSARILY CAUSED; CONTINGENCY RECORDS IGNORANCE OF

ONE EVENT → under THOUGHT: idea → under EXTENSION: body-state

ORDER AND CONNECTION OF IDEAS = ORDER AND CONNECTION OF THINGS

- ▶ NO cross-attribute causal transfer; parallelism replaces Cartesian interaction

- FINITE MODES are necessarily caused; contingency records ignorance of causes

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

- ONE EVENT → under THOUGHT: idea → under EXTENSION: body-state
- ORDER AND CONNECTION OF IDEAS = ORDER AND CONNECTION OF THINGS
- NO cross-attribute causal transfer; parallelism replaces Cartesian interaction

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

- FINITE MODES are necessarily caused; contingency records ignorance of causes
- CONATUS = each thing's striving to persevere in being
- INADEQUATE IDEAS + external causes → passive affects → BONDAGE

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

- COMMON NOTIONS / REASON / INTUITION → ADEQUATE IDEAS → ACTIVITY
- FREEDOM = acting from understood nature within necessity, not uncaused choice
- LIMIT: autonomy survives, but alternative possibilities do not.

COMMON NOTIONS / REASON / INTUITION → ADEQUATE IDEAS → ACTIVITY

FREEDOM = acting from understood nature within necessity, not uncaused choice

LIMIT: autonomy survives, but alternative possibilities do not.

MECHANISM / VERDICT

The same modal event is expressed under Thought as an idea and under Extension as a body-state, eliminating cross-attribute causal transfer.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE

WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Spinoza reconciles freedom with determinism by treating freedom not as uncaused choice but as adequate self-determination within the necessary order of God or Nature.

STAGE 06

LEIBNIZ'S MONAD HIERARCHY, PERCEPTION AND INDIVIDUALITY

WHY MONADS? EXTENSION IS DIVISIBLE; ULTIMATE SUBSTANCE MUST BE

NECESSARY SUPREME MONAD

COMPLETE INTELLIGENCE

RATIONAL SPIRITS

APPERCEPTION + REASON + MORAL AGENCY

ANIMAL SOULS

MEMORY + CLEARER PERCEPTION

WHY MONADS? extension is divisible; ultimate substance must be simple

RATIONAL SPIRITS: apperception + reason + moral agency

ANIMAL SOULS: memory + clearer perception

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

WHY MONADS? extension is divisible; ultimate substance must be simple

GOD: necessary supreme monad / complete intelligence

RATIONAL SPIRITS: apperception + reason + moral agency

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

ANIMAL SOULS: memory + clearer perception

BARE MONADS: obscure petites perceptions

EVERY MONAD: simple, unextended, windowless, perceptive and appetitive

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

APPETITION = internal transition; each perspective expresses the universe

IDENTITY OF INDISCERNIBLES secures uniqueness

BODIES = well-founded phenomena, not ultimate substances.

MECHANISM / VERDICT

Appetition moves each monad from one perception to another according to its own law, while its perspective differentiates it from every other monad.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE

WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Created monads perceive and appetitively unfold; minute perception differs from apperception, and God is their unique uncreated necessary source.

STAGE 07

LEIBNIZIAN HARMONY, SUFFICIENT REASON, CONTINGENCY AND FREEDOM

LEIBNIZIAN HARMONY, SUFFICIENT REASON, CONTINGENCY AND FREEDOM

SOURCE / DOCTRINE

GOD chooses a compossible best world under the PRINCIPLE OF SUFFICIENT REASON mind-monad states unfold internally

bodily/organic states unfold internally

PRE-ESTABLISHED HARMONY makes them correspond without interaction

ARGUMENT / MECHANISM

TRUTHS OF REASON: opposite contradictory → logically necessary

TRUTHS OF FACT: opposite conceivable → contingent though certain

COMPLETE CONCEPT: all predicates belong to the individual known fully by God

FREEDOM: spontaneity + intelligence + contingency; reasons incline, not coerce

IMPLICATION / VERDICT

OBJECTION: programming/evil; REPLY: self-expression + optimal compossibility

LIMIT: compatibility is stronger than libertarian freedom.

MECHANISM / VERDICT

Truths of reason are necessary; truths of fact remain logically contingent through possible worlds despite complete-concept certainty in the actual world.

WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Leibniz preserves freedom by distinguishing certainty from absolute necessity: rational actions arise spontaneously from the agent's own reasons, which incline without necessitating in the logical sense.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — Each successor accepts the Cartesian pressure but redistributes substance and causation to avoid direct interaction between heterogeneous realities.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Spinoza removes the interaction gap by collapsing Cartesian substances into attributes of one order, while Leibniz restores plurality by replacing interaction with divinely coordinated internal activity.
