STAGE 00 FOUR-LENS DECISION ARCHITECTURE

FOUR-LENS DECISION ARCHITECTURE | CENTRAL FOCUS | 1. FOUR-LENS DECISION ARCHITECTURE | [1] STATE THE DILEMMA AND IDENTIFY THE GENUINELY COMPETING | [2] KANT TEST ONE | FORMULATE AND UNIVERSALISE THE PROPOSED MAXIM. | [3] KANT TEST TWO | ENSURE EVERY AFFECTED PERSON IS TREATED AS AN END.

CORE CLAIM	MECHANISM	CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
CENTRAL FOCUS	[3] Kant test two: ensure every affected person is treated as an end.	[7] Rawls test: examine the underlying rule from the least-advantaged position.
1. Four-lens decision architecture	[4] Mill test one: compare benefits, harms, probability, duration and distribution.	[8] Map convergence and justify a transparent tie-break where theories diverge.
[1] State the dilemma and identify the genuinely competing values.	[5] Mill test two: ask whether coercion prevents harm or merely enforces preference.	VERDICT → No single lens is automatically decisive; name convergence and defend the tie-break.
[2] Kant test one: formulate and universalise the proposed maxim.	[6] Aristotle test: identify the virtues, extremes and context-sensitive proportion.	ANSWER USE → Use as the opening framework for multi-value dilemmas and Section B case studies.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 1. Four-lens decision architecture
- [1] State the dilemma and identify the genuinely competing values.
- [2] Kant test one: formulate and universalise the proposed maxim.

MECHANISM
- [3] Kant test two: ensure every affected person is treated as an end.
- [4] Mill test one: compare benefits, harms, probability, duration and distribution.
- [5] Mill test two: ask whether coercion prevents harm or merely enforces preference.
- [6] Aristotle test: identify the virtues, extremes and context-sensitive proportion.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Rawls test: examine the underlying rule from the least-advantaged position.
- [8] Map convergence and justify a transparent tie-break where theories diverge.
- VERDICT → No single lens is automatically decisive; name convergence and defend the tie-break.
- ANSWER USE → Use as the opening framework for multi-value dilemmas and Section B case studies.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → No single lens is automatically decisive; name convergence and defend the tie-break.

STAGE 01 SOCRATIC EXAMINATION LOOP

SOCRATIC EXAMINATION LOOP | CENTRAL FOCUS | 2. SOCRATIC EXAMINATION LOOP | [1] PAUSE BEFORE DISCRETION TURNS AN INHERITED ASSUMPTION INTO | [2] SURFACE THE FACTUAL, MORAL AND IDENTITY-BASED ASSUMPTIONS BEHIND | [3] ASK WHAT REASONS AND EVIDENCE SUPPORT EACH ASSUMPTION. | [4] TEST WHETHER THE REASONS CONTRADICT ANOTHER ACCEPTED PUBLIC. | [5] INVITE AN AFFECTED CITIZEN OR COLLEAGUE TO SUPPLY

CENTRAL FOCUS → 2. Socratic examination loop → [1] Pause before discretion turns an inherited assumption into official action. → [2] Surface the factual, moral and identity-based assumptions behind the first view. → [3] Ask what reasons and evidence support each assumption.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 2. Socratic examination loop
- [1] Pause before discretion turns an inherited assumption into official action.
- [2] Surface the factual, moral and identity-based assumptions behind the first view.

MECHANISM
- [3] Ask what reasons and evidence support each assumption.
- [4] Test whether the reasons contradict another accepted public principle.
- [5] Invite an affected citizen or colleague to supply a counter-view.
- [6] Identify incentives, ego, prejudice and hierarchy that may distort judgment.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Revise the decision when reasons fail rather than defending sunk authority.
- [8] Record the final reasons so reflection becomes publicly reviewable.
- VERDICT → Socratic reflection becomes administrative ethics only when it produces revisable reasons.
- ANSWER USE → Use for bias, conscience, discretion, consultation and ethical-leadership answers.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Socratic reflection becomes administrative ethics only when it produces revisable reasons.

CENTRAL FOCUS

3. Plato's soul-city harmony → [1] Reason identifies the good and should govern the individual. → [2] Spirit supplies courage and disciplined support to rational judgment.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 3. Plato's soul-city harmony
- [1] Reason identifies the good and should govern the individual.
- [2] Spirit supplies courage and disciplined support to rational judgment.

MECHANISM
- [3] Appetite supplies necessary desire but must not capture decision-making.
- [4] Inner justice exists when the three parts perform ordered functions.
- [5] Rulers deliberate for the common good rather than private appetite.
- [6] Auxiliaries protect the polity under rational and lawful direction.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Produces sustain material life without usurping every public function.
- [8] Modern use requires participation, rights and checks against elite domination.
- VERDICT → Plato supplies an order-and-competence analogy, not a licence for unaccountable technocracy.
- ANSWER USE → Use for Plato, institutional role clarity, self-mastery and merit-with-accountability.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Plato supplies an order-and-competence analogy, not a licence for unaccountable technocracy.

STAGE 03 ARISTOTLE'S VIRTUE AND PROPORTIONALITY MAP

ARISTOTLE'S VIRTUE AND PROPORTIONALITY MAP | CENTRAL FOCUS | 4. ARISTOTLE'S VIRTUE AND PROPORTIONALITY MAP | [1] HUMAN TELOS DIRECTS ETHICS TOWARD EUDAIMONIA OR WHOLE-LIFE | [2] VIRTUE IS A STABLE DISPOSITION, NOT A SINGLE | [3] HABITUATION FORMS RELIABLE COURAGE, JUSTICE, TEMPERANCE AND GENEROSITY. | [4] DEFICIENCY MARKS ONE VICE, SUCH AS COWARDICE OR | [5] EXCESS MARKS THE OPPOSITE VICE, SUCH AS RASHNESS

CENTRAL FOCUS

4. Aristotle's virtue and proportionality map → [1] Human telos directs ethics toward eudaimonia or whole-life flourishing. → [2] Virtue is a stable disposition, not a single conspicuous good act.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 4. Aristotle's virtue and proportionality map
- [1] Human telos directs ethics toward eudaimonia or whole-life flourishing.
- [2] Virtue is a stable disposition, not a single conspicuous good act.

MECHANISM
- [3] Habituation forms reliable courage, justice, temperance and generosity.
- [4] Deficiency marks one vice, such as cowardice or negligent inaction.
- [5] Excess marks the opposite vice, such as rashness or punitive over-reaction.
- [6] The mean is relative to circumstances, never a fixed numerical midpoint.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Phronesis identifies the fitting action through trained practical judgment.
- [8] Law, evidence and review prevent practical wisdom becoming arbitrary discretion.
- VERDICT → The virtuous mean is reasoned proportion bounded by law, not compromise at any cost.
- ANSWER USE → Use for proportionality, crowd control, crisis judgment and virtue-ethics questions.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → The virtuous mean is reasoned proportion bounded by law, not compromise at any cost.

04

STAGE 04 KANTIAN CATEGORICAL IMPERATIVE DECISION TEST

KANTIAN CATEGORICAL IMPERATIVE DECISION TEST | CENTRAL FOCUS | 5. KANTIAN CATEGORICAL IMPERATIVE DECISION TEST | [1] STATE THE MAXIM DESCRIBING WHAT THE OFFICIAL PROPOSES | [2] IMAGINE THE MAXIM OPERATING AS A UNIVERSAL RULE | [3] TEST CONTRADICTION IN CONCEPTION | WOULD UNIVERSAL PRACTICE DESTROY THE INSTITUTION? | [4] TEST CONTRADICTION IN WILL

CENTRAL FOCUS

5. Kantian Categorical Imperative decision test → [1] State the maxim describing what the official proposes and why. → [2] Imagine the maxim operating as a universal rule for all officials.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 5. Kantian Categorical Imperative decision test
- [1] State the maxim describing what the official proposes and why.
- [2] Imagine the maxim operating as a universal rule for all officials.

MECHANISM
- [3] Test contradiction in conception: would universal practice destroy the institution?
- [4] Test contradiction in will: could a rational person accept that universal world?
- [5] Apply the humanity formula to every affected person's agency and dignity.
- [6] Reject manipulation, coercion or concealment that uses persons merely as means.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Distinguish acting from duty from strategic outward conformity.
- [8] Choose the duty-consistent option and state consequences only as implementation factors.
- VERDICT → Favourable consequences cannot cure an impermissible maxim or instrumental treatment.
- ANSWER USE → Use for honesty, confidentiality, consent, corruption and rights-based dilemmas.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Favourable consequences cannot cure an impermissible maxim or instrumental treatment.

CENTRAL FOCUS

6. Kant 2024 quotation provenance ladder → [1] UPSC 2024 Q1(c) prints the law-versus-ethics guilt formulation. → [2] The wording is absent from Kant's published Groundwork and mature ethical treatises.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 6. Kant 2024 quotation provenance ladder
- [1] UPSC 2024 Q1(c) prints the law-versus-ethics guilt formulation.
- [2] The wording is absent from Kant's published Groundwork and mature ethical treatises.

MECHANISM
- [3] Louis Infield's 1930 Lectures on Ethics contains the closely matching passage.
- [4] The passage appears under 'Innocence' on printed pages 212-13.
- [5] The German reconstruction used Brauer's student notebook as its principal base.
- [6] Kutzner and Mrongovius notebooks were used for collation and correction.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] UPSC modernises 'harboured the thought' into 'only thinks of doing so.'
- [8] Answer the proposition while identifying it as a student-note-based adapted passage.
- VERDICT → The idea is substantively Kantian, but the printed UPSC sentence is textually adapted.
- ANSWER USE → Use as the provenance box and opening qualification for the 2024 PYQ.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — VERDICT → The idea is substantively Kantian, but the printed UPSC sentence is textually adapted.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: ANSWER USE → Use as the provenance box and opening qualification for the 2024 PYQ.

STAGE 06 UTILITARIAN POLICY CALCULUS

UTILITARIAN POLICY CALCULUS | CENTRAL FOCUS | 7. UTILITARIAN POLICY CALCULUS | [1] IDENTIFY EVERY AFFECTED GROUP, INCLUDING DIFFUSE AND POLITICALLY | [2] LIST DIRECT, INDIRECT AND OPPORTUNITY BENEFITS RATHER THAN | [3] LIST PHYSICAL, ECONOMIC, DIGNITY, ECOLOGICAL AND INSTITUTIONAL HARMS. | [4] ESTIMATE PROBABILITY AND UNCERTAINTY INSTEAD OF TREATING PROJECTIONS | [5] SEPARATE IMMEDIATE EFFECTS FROM CUMULATIVE AND INTERGENERATIONAL CONSEQUENCES.

CENTRAL FOCUS → 7. Utilitarian policy calculus → [1] Identify every affected group, including diffuse and politically weak interests. → [2] List direct, indirect and opportunity benefits rather than one headline output. → [3] List physical, economic, dignity, ecological and institutional harms.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 7. Utilitarian policy calculus
- [1] Identify every affected group, including diffuse and politically weak interests.
- [2] List direct, indirect and opportunity benefits rather than one headline output.

MECHANISM
- [3] List physical, economic, dignity, ecological and institutional harms.
- [4] Estimate probability and uncertainty instead of treating projections as certainties.
- [5] Separate immediate effects from cumulative and intergenerational consequences.
- [6] Test distribution because aggregate gain may conceal concentrated severe loss.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Evaluate both the particular act and the consequences of its general rule.
- [8] Apply rights and harm safeguards before declaring the largest total decisive.
- VERDICT → Aggregation is informative only when uncertainty, distribution and liberty are visible.
- ANSWER USE → Use for cost-benefit policy, triage, infrastructure and resource-allocation answers.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Aggregation is informative only when uncertainty, distribution and liberty are visible.

STAGE 07 MILL'S HARM-PRINCIPLE GATE

MILL'S HARM-PRINCIPLE GATE | CENTRAL FOCUS | 8. MILL'S HARM-PRINCIPLE GATE | [1] CONFIRM WHETHER THE PERSON IS A COMPETENT ADULT | [2] ASK WHETHER THE CONDUCT IS SUBSTANTIALLY SELF-REGARDING. | [3] IDENTIFY CONCRETE OTHER-REGARDING EFFECTS RATHER THAN VAGUE SOCIAL | [4] SEPARATE DEMONSTRABLE HARM FROM OFFENCE, IMMORALITY CLAIMS AND | [5] PLACE THE EVIDENTIARY BURDEN FOR COERCION ON THE

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 8. Mill's harm-principle gate
- [1] Confirm whether the person is a competent adult exercising meaningful agency.
- [2] Ask whether the conduct is substantially self-regarding.

MECHANISM
- [3] Identify concrete other-regarding effects rather than vague social dislike.
- [4] Separate demonstrable harm from offence, immorality claims and paternalism.
- [5] Place the evidentiary burden for coercion on the public authority.
- [6] Select the least restrictive effective measure where harm is established.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Protect minority individuality against majoritarian social pressure.
- [8] Review spillovers and evidence because the boundary of harm can change.
- VERDICT → Liberty is presumed; coercion requires demonstrable harm and proportionate means.
- ANSWER USE → Use for speech, lifestyle, surveillance, public health and paternalism questions.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Liberty is presumed; coercion requires demonstrable harm and proportionate means.

STAGE 08 RAWLSIAN LEXICAL-PRIORITY STAIRCASE

RAWLSIAN LEXICAL-PRIORITY STAIRCASE | CENTRAL FOCUS | 9. RAWLSIAN LEXICAL-PRIORITY STAIRCASE | [1] BEGIN WITH PERSONS AS FREE AND EQUAL MORAL | [2] SECURE A FULLY ADEQUATE EQUAL SCHEME OF BASIC | [3] REFUSE TO TRADE THOSE LIBERTIES FOR INCOME OR | [4] NEXT SECURE FAIR EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY FOR OFFICES | [5] TEST SUBSTANTIVE ACCESS, NOT MERELY FORMAL ABSENCE OF

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 9. Rawlsian lexical-priority staircase
- [1] Begin with persons as free and equal moral agents.
- [2] Secure a fully adequate equal scheme of basic liberties.

MECHANISM
- [3] Refuse to trade those liberties for income or administrative efficiency.
- [4] Next secure fair equality of opportunity for offices and prospects.
- [5] Test substantive access, not merely formal absence of discrimination.
- [6] Give fair opportunity priority over the difference principle.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Permit inequality only when it benefits the least advantaged.
- [8] Treat efficiency as a separate feasibility consideration constrained by justice.
- VERDICT → The lexical order is liberty, fair opportunity, then the difference principle.
- ANSWER USE → Use to present the most common Rawls sequencing error in welfare answers.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → The lexical order is liberty, fair opportunity, then the difference principle.

STAGE 09 VEIL-OF-IGNORANCE POLICY TEST

VEIL-OF-IGNORANCE POLICY TEST | CENTRAL FOCUS | 10. VEIL-OF-IGNORANCE POLICY TEST | [1] DEFINE THE RULE AFFECTING SOCIETY'S BASIC INSTITUTIONS AND | [2] BRACKET KNOWLEDGE OF THE DESIGNER'S CLASS, IDENTITY, TALENT | [3] IDENTIFY THE PRIMARY GOODS DISTRIBUTED BY THE PROPOSED | [4] REASON FROM THE POSSIBILITY OF OCCUPYING ANY AFFECTED | [5] TEST ACCESS AND BURDEN FROM THE MOST VULNERABLE

CENTRAL FOCUS → 10. Veil-of-ignorance policy test → [1] Define the rule affecting society's basic institutions and opportunities. → [2] Bracket knowledge of the designer's class, identity, talent and eventual position. → [3] Identify the primary goods distributed by the proposed rule.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 10. Veil-of-ignorance policy test
- [1] Define the rule affecting society's basic institutions and opportunities.
- [2] Bracket knowledge of the designer's class, identity, talent and eventual position.

MECHANISM
- [3] Identify the primary goods distributed by the proposed rule.
- [4] Reason from the possibility of occupying any affected social position.
- [5] Test access and burden from the most vulnerable plausible standpoint.
- [6] Compare feasible alternatives rather than declaring one abstract design perfect.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Use reflective equilibrium to revise both principles and considered judgments.
- [8] Publish the fairness rationale, exclusions, evidence and review mechanism.
- VERDICT → The veil is a fairness heuristic for institutional design, not literal ignorance.
- ANSWER USE → Use for subsidy, reservation-adjacent, health, education and algorithmic eligibility.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → The veil is a fairness heuristic for institutional design, not literal ignorance.

CORE CLAIM	MECHANISM	CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
CENTRAL FOCUS	[3] Kant requires dignity, agency, consultation and non-instrumental treatment.	[7] Rawls asks whether the design genuinely benefits the least advantaged.
11. Displacement-project four-lens comparison	[4] Mill compares comprehensive long-term welfare rather than headline monetary output.	[8] Reach conditional approval, redesign or rejection with enforceable safeguards.
[1] State the public benefits claimed for the infrastructure project.	[5] Mill's harm principle places the burden on coercive displacement.	VERDICT → Aggregate gain cannot substitute for dignity, proportionality and worst-off protection.
[2] Identify concentrated livelihood, cultural and ecological costs to the community.	[6] Aristotle tests alternatives, proportion and the administrator's practical wisdom.	ANSWER USE → Use for dams, mining, border infrastructure and development-versus-rights dilemmas.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 11. Displacement-project four-lens comparison
- [1] State the public benefits claimed for the infrastructure project.
- [2] Identify concentrated livelihood, cultural and ecological costs to the community.

MECHANISM
- [3] Kant requires dignity, agency, consultation and non-instrumental treatment.
- [4] Mill compares comprehensive long-term welfare rather than headline monetary output.
- [5] Mill's harm principle places the burden on coercive displacement.
- [6] Aristotle tests alternatives, proportion and the administrator's practical wisdom.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Rawls asks whether the design genuinely benefits the least advantaged.
- [8] Reach conditional approval, redesign or rejection with enforceable safeguards.
- VERDICT → Aggregate gain cannot substitute for dignity, proportionality and worst-off protection.
- ANSWER USE → Use for dams, mining, border infrastructure and development-versus-rights dilemmas.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Aggregate gain cannot substitute for dignity, proportionality and worst-off protection.

CENTRAL FOCUS → 12. Provenance-to-AI-governance bridge → [1] Begin with the exact official paper or government-document wording. → [2] Search for a primary text before assigning book, speech or page. → [3] Classify the material as direct, adapted, widely attributed or unverified.

CORE CLAIM
- CENTRAL FOCUS
- 12. Provenance-to-AI-governance bridge
- [1] Begin with the exact official paper or government-document wording.
- [2] Search for a primary text before assigning book, speech or page.

MECHANISM
- [3] Classify the material as direct, adapted, widely attributed or unverified.
- [4] Answer the ethical proposition without fabricating authority.
- [5] Map People First to Kant only as an analytical inference.
- [6] Map Fairness and Equity to Rawls only as an analytical inference.

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT
- [7] Map safety, proportion and understandability to Mill, Aristotle and Socrates cautiously.
- [8] End with accountability, human oversight and publicly reviewable reasons.
- VERDICT → Source honesty and explicit inference labels make current-affairs application defensible.
- ANSWER USE → Use for quotation answers and the India AI Governance Guidelines current anchor.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: VERDICT → Source honesty and explicit inference labels make current-affairs application defensible.
