OPTIONAL SOURCE DEPTH
- The Buddha's first sermon was delivered in a deer park near Benaras, remembered as dharmachakka-pavattana .
- He taught for over four decades and established an order of monks and nuns called the sangha .
- Upinder Singh describes Jain doctrine through right faith, right knowledge and right conduct, with five great vows for monks and nuns.
- Buddhist and Jain communities depended on lay support, merchants and urban networks.

ADVANCED DEBATE
- The sangha created a portable institution that helped Buddhism travel across regions.
- CAUTION: Decline of Buddhism in India must be explained through changing patronage.
- absorption, institutional vulnerability and later political disruptions — not one cause.
- Buddha's first sermon near Benaras is dharmachakka- pavattana .

LEGACY / NUANCE
- Buddha established the sangha of monks and nuns.
- Jain Tirtatna: right faith, right knowledge, right conduct.
- Jain five vows: ahimsa, satya, asteya, brahmacharya, non-possession.
- Shvetambaras later predominated in western India; Digambaras in the south.
