OPTIONAL SOURCE DEPTH

The Buddha's first sermon was delivered in a deer park near Benaras, remembered as dhammachakka-pavattana .

He taught for over four decades and established an order of monks and nuns called the sangha .

Upinder Singh describes Jain doctrine through right faith, right knowledge and right conduct, with five great vows for monks and nuns.

Buddhist and Jain communities depended on lay support, merchants and urban networks.

ADVANCED DEBATE

The sangha created a portable institution that helped Buddhism travel across regions.

CAUTION: Decline of Buddhism in India must be explained through changing patronage, absorption, institutional vulnerability and later political disruptions — not one cause.

Buddha's first sermon near Benaras is dhammachakka-pavattana .

LEGACY / NUANCE

Buddha established the sangha of monks and nuns.

Jain five vows: ahimsa, satya, asteya, brahmacharya, non-possession.

Shvetambaras later predominated in western India; Digambaras in the south.
