CORE CLAIM

- JAN 1956 — 80 killed in police firings in Bombay city
- Samyukta Maharashtra Samiti and Maha Gujarat Janata Parishad lead rival movements
- 16 killed and 200 injured in police firings in Gujarat

MECHANISM

- 1956 — C.D. Deshmukh resigns from the Union Cabinet on the question
- JUN 1956 — government decides to divide, with the city a separate administered unit
- JUL 1956 — government REVERTS to a bilingual greater Bombay — opposed on BOTH sides

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT

- 1957 — the Bombay Congress scrapes through the elections
- 1959-60 — Indira Gandhi as Congress president reopens it; President S. Radhakrishnan supports
- MAY 1960 — BIFURCATION: Maharashtra (with Bombay city) + Gujarat (capital Ahmedabad)

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: MAY 1960 — BIFURCATION: Maharashtra (with Bombay city) + Gujarat (capital Ahmedabad).

09

STAGE 09 — PUNJAB 1966: A SHARED CAPITAL AND AN ATTRIBUTED READING

PUNJAB 1966 · A SHARED CAPITAL AND AN ATTRIBUTED READING · PEPSU MERGED INTO PUNJAB · A TRILINGUAL STATE · SRC REFUSES A PUNJABI SUBA · IT WOULD SOLVE "NEITHER THE LANGUAGE NOR THE COMMUNAL · DIVISION EXECUTED · HARYANA (CREATED 1966, NOT 1956)

| CORE CLAIM | MECHANISM | CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT |
|---|---|---|
| 1956 — PEPSU merged into Punjab — a TRILINGUAL state: Punjabi | Kangra + part of Hoshiarpur . to HIMACHAL PRADESH | COUNTER-EVIDENCE — the Communist Party and a section of Congress supported it |
| SRC refuses a Punjabi Suba: it would solve "neither the language nor the communal problem" | CHANDIGARH — UNION TERRITORY, JOINT capital of both states | RULE — never generalise the charge to every supporter of Punjabi |
| 1966 — DIVISION EXECUTED | ATTRIBUTED READING (local Bipan Chandra text, report it with its attribution) | CLOSE DISTINCTION: Bombay's bifurcation in 1960, Punjab reorganisation in 1966 and the |
| Punjabi-speaking — PUNJAB | the issue "assumed communal overtones" through AKALI DAL and JAN SANGH mobilisation | Official Languages Act 1963 with its 1967 amendment were related accommodation problems, not one linguistic-state event. |

CORE CLAIM

- 1956 — PEPSU merged into Punjab — a TRILINGUAL state: Punjabi
- SRC refuses a Punjabi Suba: it would solve "neither the language nor the communal problem"
- 1966 — DIVISION EXECUTED
- Punjabi-speaking — PUNJAB
- Hindi-speaking — HARYANA (created 1966, NOT 1956)

MECHANISM

- Kangra + part of Hoshiarpur . to HIMACHAL PRADESH
- CHANDIGARH — UNION TERRITORY, JOINT capital of both states
- ATTRIBUTED READING (local Bipan Chandra text, report it with its attribution)
- the issue "assumed communal overtones" through AKALI DAL and JAN SANGH mobilisation
- Nehru and most Punjab Congressmen: a communal demand "dressed up as a language plea"

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT

- COUNTER-EVIDENCE — the Communist Party and a section of Congress supported it
- RULE — never generalise the charge to every supporter of Punjabi
- CLOSE DISTINCTION: Bombay's bifurcation in 1960, Punjab reorganisation in 1966 and the
- Official Languages Act 1963 with its 1967 amendment were related accommodation problems, not one linguistic-state event.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: RULE — never generalise the charge to every supporter of Punjabi.

STAGE 10 — THE LANGUAGE SETTLEMENT AT THREE LEVELS AND ITS 1967 VOTE

THE LANGUAGE SETTLEMENT AT THREE LEVELS AND ITS 1967 · LEVEL 1 CONSTITUTIONAL TEXT (PART XVII, DEPARTMENT OF OFFICIAL · ART 343(1) HINDI IN DEVANAGARI · OFFICIAL LANGUAGE OF THE UNION · ART 343(2) ENGLISH CONTINUES FOR ALL UNION OFFICIAL PURPOSES · ART 343(3) PARLIAMENT MAY PROVIDE BY LAW FOR ENGLISH · LEVEL 2 STATUTE · OFFICIAL LANGUAGES ACT, 1963 (ACT NO. 19 OF 1963

LEVEL 1 CONSTITUTIONAL TEXT (Part XVII, Department of Official Language publication)

Art 343(1) Hindi in Devanagari = official language of the Union

Art 343(2) English continues for ALL Union official purposes for FIFTEEN YEARS

Art 343(3) Parliament MAY provide by law for English after that period

CORE CLAIM

- LEVEL 1 CONSTITUTIONAL TEXT (Part XVII, Department of Official Language publication)
- Art 343(1) Hindi in Devanagari = official language of the Union
- Art 343(2) English continues for ALL Union official purposes for FIFTEEN YEARS
- Art 343(3) Parliament MAY provide by law for English after that period
- LEVEL 2 STATUTE — Official Languages Act, 1963 (Act No.

MECHANISM

- 19 of 1963. 10 May 1963) section 3 to come into force on 26 JANUARY 1965 statutory rule
- LEVEL 3 POLITICS — Nehru's assurances, 7 August and 4 September 1959
- 26 JAN 1965 crisis — DMK conference of 17 January
- "Hindi: never, English ever" cost — over sixty lives
- Subramaniam and Alagesan resign from the Union Cabinet

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT

- 16 DEC 1967 — Lok Sabha adopts the amending bill 205 to 41 — indefinite bilingualism three-language formula for the states
- CAUTION — "associate official language" comes from the April 1960 Presidential order and the later settlement
- it is not a phrase in the Constitution's own text
- EVIDENCE LIMIT: Commission reports, parliamentary law and regional movements show that linguistic reorganisation
- often deepened federal integration, while violence and minority questions qualify a success-only narrative.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: LEVEL 2 STATUTE — Official Languages Act, 1963 (Act No. 19 of 1963, 10 May 1963) section 3 to come into force on 26 JANUARY 1965 statutory rule — English may continue to be used in addition to Hindi: criticism — "may", not "shall" — read as no statutory guarantee.

STAGE 11 — REGIONALISM TYPOLOGY AND THE GRADED VERDICT

REGIONALISM TYPOLOGY AND THE GRADED VERDICT · WHOM IS THE DEMAND DIRECTED AGAINST? · DIRECTED AT · THE UNION · FELLOW CITIZENS · NATIVIST, "SONS OF THE SOIL" · STATEHOOD, RECOGNITION, SHARE · EXCLUSION OF MIGRANTS

CRITERION — WHOM IS THE DEMAND DIRECTED AGAINST? → DIRECTED AT → THE UNION → FELLOW CITIZENS → nativist, "sons of the soil"

CORE CLAIM

- CRITERION — WHOM IS THE DEMAND DIRECTED AGAINST?
- DIRECTED AT
- THE UNION
- FELLOW CITIZENS
- nativist, "sons of the soil"

MECHANISM

- coercion against residents
- Andhra 1953: Maharashtra and
- Shiv Sena 1966 (Bal
- Gujarat 1960: Haryana 1966
- Thackeray); Bombay 1969

CONSEQUENCE / LIMIT

- absorbed; federal legitimacy
- citizenship guarantees hurt
- ARGUED VERDICT (Rajni Kothari) — language proved "a cementing and integrating influence"
- RESIDUAL COSTS — inter-state boundary disputes
- sharing of waters, power, surplus food

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: STATE IT AS — a defended conclusion supported by evidence, never as a self-evident fact.

EXTRA — SUBORDINATE ENRICHMENT — ONLY AFTER THE COMPLETE CORE

OPTIONAL ADVANCED ENRICHMENT · THE CONGRESS HAD ACCEPTED THE LINGUISTIC PRINCIPLE SINCE 1921 · THE POST-1947 HESITATION WAS TACTICAL (PARTITION, KASHMIR, ECONOMIC CRISIS) · CHANDRA'S CORE ARGUMENT, ECHOING RAJNI KOTHARI, IS THAT LANGUAGE · CEMENTING AND INTEGRATING INFLUENCE " — REORGANISATION DEFUSED, RATHER · THE ANDHRA BREAKTHROUGH (1953) SHOWS THE CAUSAL PATTERN · ELITE CAUTION · MARTYRDOM (SRIRAMULU)

OPTIONAL SOURCE DEPTH

- The Congress had accepted the linguistic principle since 1921
- the post-1947 hesitation was tactical (Partition, Kashmir, economic crisis), not a reversal of principle.
- CAUTION: Chandra's core argument, echoing Rajni Kothari, is that language became a "
- cementing and integrating influence " — reorganisation defused, rather than fuelled, secession.

ADVANCED DEBATE

- The Andhra breakthrough (1953) shows the causal pattern: elite caution → popular
- mobilisation → martyrdom (Sriramulu) → concession → generalisation via the SRC.
- CAUTION: The comparative point (against the fears of the 1950s) is that
- linguistic states made democracy and administration legible to citizens, deepening participation.

LEGACY / NUANCE

- The SRC declined to split bilingual Bombay and Punjab immediately: both were later reorganised (1960, 1966) only after sustained agitation.
- In Chandra's account, the Punjab (1966) demand had acquired communal overtones through Akali Dal and Jan Sangh mobilisation
- this does not make every supporter or the linguistic issue itself "communal".
- The official-language settlement evolved through repeated agitation into bilingualism (Hindi +

OPTIONAL STATUS — This optional depth is unnecessary for a competent core answer; use it only for added nuance after the complete core has been written.
