CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS / ARTICLE

- MLA VALUE: 1971 population / elected MLAs / 1000 with constitutional rounding
- MP VALUE: total MLA vote value / elected MPs of both Houses
- The same elected-MP vote value applies in Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha

POWER / PROCEDURE

- PR-STV uses ranked secret ballots and transferable preferences
- Winning quota is more than half of valid vote value
- ARTICLE 71: Supreme Court finally decides both presidential and vice-presidential disputes

CHECK / LIMIT

- Weighted votes seek Union-State parity, while transferable preferences seek majority support for a single office.
- ANSWER LINE
- Vacancies in the college do not invalidate the election, and a void election does not erase prior official acts.

FEDERAL / RIGHTS IMPACT

- PR-STV uses ranked secret ballots and transferable preferences

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Vacancies in the college do not invalidate the election, and a void election does not erase prior official acts.
