

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 1/12: From 1967 instability to the 52nd and 91st Amendment design

ROOT QUESTION

How can party-government stability be protected without extinguishing legislative judgment?

1967 defections -> Committee on Defections -> 52nd Amendment Act 1985.

Tenth Schedule effective 1 March 1985.

52ND AMENDMENT

Articles 101, 102, 190, 191 + Tenth Schedule.

91ST AMENDMENT

split defence deleted | ministry-size caps

| Articles 75(1B), 164(1B), 361B office disabilities.

CURRENT PARAGRAPH MAP

1 definitions | 2 grounds | 3 omitted | 4 merger

| 5 presiding exemption | 6 decision | 7 invalid court bar | 8 rules.

MUST REMEMBER: Apply the Tenth Schedule's exact member-specific grounds, merger defence and paragraph 5 presiding-officer exemption without reviving the deleted split.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 2/12: Grounds and member-type rules

PARTY MEMBER

voluntarily gives up membership

OR votes/abstains contrary to direction without prior permission, unless condoned within fifteen days.

INDEPENDENT MEMBER

joining a political party after election -> disqualification.

No six-month window.

NOMINATED MEMBER

may join within six months from taking the seat;

joining after that period -> disqualification.

Ravi S. Naik (1994)

voluntarily giving up is wider than formal resignation and may be inferred from conduct.

TRAP

dissenting speech alone is not automatically paragraph 2(1)(b) voting conduct.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 3/12: Political party, legislature party and the exact whip test party to which the member belongs for Schedule purposes.

ORIGINAL POLITICAL PARTY

LEGISLATURE PARTY

House members belonging to the same political party.

WHIP TEST

authorised party direction -> vote or abstention

-> no prior permission -> no condonation within fifteen days.

Subhash Desai (2023)

the political party, not a legislature-party faction acting alone, authorises the whip/leader for Tenth Schedule purposes.

CURRENT LAW

direction may reach ordinary votes under the text.

PROPOSAL

restrict whips to confidence, no-confidence, Money Bills or core manifesto matters.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 4/12: Merger, deleted split and the narrow presiding-officer exemption one-third split defence omitted by the 91st Amendment.

PARAGRAPH 3

PARAGRAPH 4

original political party merger + not less than two-thirds of legislature party agree -> protected choice to join merger or operate as separate group under the text.

INTERPRETIVE CAUTION

two-thirds legislators cannot be written as a free-standing permission to switch parties; original-party and deeming provisions remain central and live disputes must be qualified.

PARAGRAPH 5

narrow exemption for specified presiding officers on giving up/rejoining party subject to exact office and timing conditions.

TRAP

Speaker neutrality aspiration does not create a general exemption for every office-holder.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 5/12: Presiding-officer process, natural justice and judicial review

FIRST INSTANCE

Speaker/Chairman decides; if that officer is concerned, House elects another member.

PROCESS

petition -> maintainability/facts -> notice -> reply/evidence -> hearing -> reasoned decision -> seat consequence.

Kihoto Hollohan (1992)

presiding officer acts as tribunal; paragraph 7 invalid for lack of ratification; limited judicial review survives for jurisdictional error, mala fides and natural justice.

Keisham Meghachandra Singh (2020)

absent exceptional circumstances, petitions should ordinarily be decided within three months.

LIMIT

courts ordinarily do not replace the Speaker as first-instance fact finder.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 6/12: Resignation, disqualification and the 91st-Amendment office bars alleged defection -> petition -> resignation -> Speaker decisions -> judicial review.

CHRONOLOGY

Shrimanth Balasaheb Patil (2019)

resignation does not erase antecedent disqualification;

Speaker cannot add an extra re-election ban beyond constitutional text.

DIRECT EFFECT

loss of House membership under Articles 102(2)/191(2).

OFFICE DISABILITIES

Articles 75(1B), 164(1B), 361B

-> minister/remunerative-political-post bar for the constitutionally defined period.

LIMIT

Tenth Schedule disqualification is not a criminal conviction or universal public-office ban.

CLOSE DISTINCTION: Separate the political party, legislature party, whip, Speaker, Election Commission, resignation and judicial-review tracks.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 7/12: Case-law chronology and controlled propositions

CASE SPINE

Kihoto Hollohan (1992) -> Schedule upheld; paragraph 7 invalid; review survives.

Ravi S. Naik (1994) -> voluntary giving up may be inferred from conduct.

G. Viswanathan (1996) -> expulsion does not erase deemed party belonging.

Rajendra Singh Rana (2007) -> inaction cannot protect an unsupported split claim.

Nabam Rebia (2016) -> removal-notice restriction; correctness later referred.

Shrimanth Balasaheb Patil (2019) -> resignation does not erase prior defection.

Keisham Meghachandra Singh (2020) -> ordinary three-month outer limit.

Subhash Desai (2023) -> political party authorises whip; institutional roles separated.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 8/12: Delay, judicial remedies and current doctrinal control

TEXT

Tenth Schedule contains no express deadline.

JUDICIAL CONTROL

Kihoto Hollohan (1992) -> ordinarily review after decision.

Rajendra Singh Rana (2007) -> court may correct disabling inaction.

Keisham Meghachandra Singh (2020) -> ordinarily three months from filing, absent exceptional circumstances supported by reasons.

Telangana judgment (2025) -> case-specific three-month direction.

PENDING DOCTRINE

Subhash Desai (2023) referred Nabam Rebia (2016) to seven judges.

No verified later merits ruling by 5 September 2026.

TRAP

constitutional silence is not unlimited delay; a judicial norm is not enacted text.

CURRENT CASE CONTROL

Subhash Desai (2023) remains controlling. Nabam Rebia (2016) remains referred for larger-bench reconsideration; no later merits result is asserted.

Status rechecked on 5 September 2026.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 9/12: Nabam Rebia (2016) and Subhash Desai (2023): institutional roles

Nabam Rebia (2016)

Speaker facing a pending removal notice was held disabled from deciding defection petitions.

PENDING QUALIFICATION

Subhash Desai (2023) referred correctness of that rule to a seven-judge bench.

Do not write Nabam Rebia (2016) as finally overruled.

Subhash Desai (2023)

political party authorises whip | Speaker determines party identity for Schedule purpose
| ECI symbol proceeding is separate | Governor cannot decide intra-party leadership.

DISTRIBUTED ROLES

Speaker -> defection | ECI -> symbol/order field
| Governor -> constitutional functions | court -> review.

floor test, symbol dispute and defection petition answer different legal questions.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 10/12: Democratic balance, comparison and reform choices

GAINS

reduces open floor-crossing | protects mandate | supports government stability.

COSTS

broad whip suppresses deliberation | Speaker incentives | strategic delay
| merger engineering | resignation tactics | weakened committee scrutiny.

COMPARE

Tenth Schedule -> Speaker/Chairman.

Articles 102(1)/191(1) post-election question -> President/Governor on ECI opinion.

RPA -> statutory grounds/procedure | privilege -> House discipline
| symbol dispute -> ECI field.

REFORM OPTIONS

narrow whip | independent tribunal/ECI-advice model | statutory time limit | reasoned public procedure | neutral presiding-office safeguards.

STATUS

these are proposals unless enacted or judicially ordered in a particular case.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 11/12: Verified PYQs and executable answer architecture

VERIFIED PYQS

2022 Prelims Q16 -> nominated-member window + no express decision time-frame; answer B.

2025 Prelims Q88 -> Speaker/Chairman decider + political party appears; answer D.

2023 GS-II Q5 -> State presiding officers, impartiality and best democratic practices.

PRELIMS FILTER

member type -> conduct -> period -> threshold -> decider -> review.

MAINS SPINE

history -> paragraph 2 grounds -> paragraph 4 defence -> paragraph 6 process

-> judicial review and delay -> resignation/office bars -> evaluation -> reform.

COMPRESSION

retain exact text + one controlling case + mechanism + qualification + verdict.

PRELIMS FIREWALL

52nd created | 91st tightened | split deleted | merger two-thirds
| giving up wider than resignation | independent no window
| nominated six months | condonation fifteen days
| Speaker first | judicial review survives | defection not crime.

VERIFIED ROUTES

2022 Prelims -> nominated members.
2025 Prelims -> political-party and Tenth Schedule distinction.
2023 GS-II supporting route -> presiding-officer impartiality.

MAINS SPINE

history -> grounds/member types -> party/whip
-> merger -> process/review/delay -> resignation/office bars
-> institutional conflicts -> stability-freedom balance -> bounded reform.

VERDICT

stability needs discipline, but democratic legitimacy needs a narrower whip, neutral adjudication and enforceable decision time.

LEGAL/SOURCE LIMIT: Subhash Desai (2023) remains controlling; the Nabam Rebia (2016) reconsideration remains unresolved in the official Supreme Court material located through 5 September 2026.
