PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2019 GS-I · 15 marks

Demand: Explain how the American and French Revolutions contributed to the foundations of the modern world.

Status: Verified neutral demand; cross-cutting with Topic 02.

Model solution: America made a rights-based colonial break durable through a written federal republic and entrenched liberties. France went further inside society: it attacked estate privilege, feudal burdens and dynastic sovereignty, and made citizen and nation the core political categories. Both revolutions therefore shifted legitimacy toward rights and popular authority. Their exclusions matter: slavery, gender inequality and restricted participation show that modern principles emerged before universal membership.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2019 GS-I · 15 marks”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2019 GS-I · 15 marks”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2025 GS-I · 15 marks · 250 words

Demand: The French Revolution has enduring relevance to the contemporary world. Explain.

Status: Exact wording verified in the local owner.

Model solution: Its enduring relevance lies in standards rather than unchanged institutions. The Rights of Man made legal equality and public rights tests of authority; the National Assembly and republic made popular sovereignty and citizenship central; anti-clerical reform strengthened secular public authority; and the modern nation shaped later nationalism. Yet women lacked equal political citizenship, workers lacked economic equality and colonial slavery exposed the limits of universalism. Napoleon preserved legal reform while ending republican liberty. Thus 1789 remains relevant both for its universal claims and for the critique generated by their exclusionary application.

Question: Why did the fiscal crisis become a social revolution in France? Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Fiscal breakdown opened the political arena, but legal privilege, subsistence stress, Enlightenment legitimacy and multi-class mobilisation determined the Revolution's depth.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The financially troubled monarchy summoned the Estates-General in May 1789, opening the old regime to a constitutional challenge.
- Clergy and nobility held legal and fiscal privileges, while the Third Estate formed about ninety-five per cent of the population in old NCERT and bore exclusion and taxation.
- Monarchical bankruptcy, tax inequality, bad harvests and bread stress supplied the immediate crisis that Enlightenment ideas translated into a legitimacy struggle.
- Bourgeois leadership drove institutional rupture, peasants attacked feudal burdens, and workers, artisans and the Paris crowd pushed radicalisation.

Qualified conclusion: Fiscal breakdown opened the political arena, but legal privilege, subsistence stress, Enlightenment legitimacy and multi-class mobilisation determined the Revolution's depth.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "Why did the fiscal crisis become a social revolution in France? Answer in about 150 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "Why did the fiscal crisis become a social revolution in France? Answer in about 150 words.", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Fiscal breakdown opened the political arena, but legal privilege, subsistence stress, Enlightenment legitimacy and multi-class mobilisation determined the Revolution's depth.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The financially troubled monarchy summoned the Estates-General in May 1789, opening the old regime to a constitutional challenge. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Clergy and nobility held legal and fiscal privileges, while the Third Estate formed about ninety-five per cent of the population in old NCERT and bore exclusion and taxation. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Question: Explain the significance of the Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: The Declaration made rights, citizenship and equality before law standards of legitimate authority while leaving suffrage and social inclusion incomplete.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen proclaimed rights, citizenship and equality before law while not granting immediate universal suffrage.
- Women participated centrally in revolutionary action but were denied equal political citizenship, exposing the boundary of proclaimed universal rights.
- Revolutionary France abolished slavery in its colonies, Napoleon later reversed abolition, and final French abolition came in 1848.

Qualified conclusion: The Declaration made rights, citizenship and equality before law standards of legitimate authority while leaving suffrage and social inclusion incomplete.

Question: Trace the major phases of the French Revolution and explain why each gave way to the next. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Unresolved crisis carried constitutional monarchy into republic and Terror; coercive fatigue produced the Directory, whose instability empowered Napoleon.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Third Estate declared itself the National Assembly on 17 June 1789, shifting constituent authority from king and estate to nation.
- The 1791 constitutional-monarchy phase legally broke the old regime but did not resolve fiscal, religious, war or sovereignty conflicts.
- The monarchy was abolished and a republic declared in 1792 as war and popular mobilisation radicalised the Revolution.
- The Jacobin phase joined direct-democratic claims and emergency national defence to coercive Terror; old NCERT reports about seventeen thousand tried and executed in fourteen months.
- The Directory represented a propertied retreat from Terror, but instability and war shifted political weight toward the army.
- Napoleon's coup in 1799 began an authoritarian consolidation of revolutionary France.

Qualified conclusion: Unresolved crisis carried constitutional monarchy into republic and Terror; coercive fatigue produced the Directory, whose instability empowered Napoleon.

Answer in about...”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Why did the French Revolution become the classic model of modern revolution? Answer in about...”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: It fused ideological delegitimation, state crisis and mass multi-class mobilisation, destroyed legal privilege and made nation, citizen and popular sovereignty the grammar of modern politics.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Clergy and nobility held legal and fiscal privileges, while the Third Estate formed about ninety-five per cent of the population in old NCERT and bore exclusion and taxation. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Monarchical bankruptcy, tax inequality, bad harvests and bread stress supplied the immediate crisis that Enlightenment ideas translated into a legitimacy struggle. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

3. Claim and named evidence: The Third Estate declared itself the National Assembly on 17 June 1789, shifting constituent authority from king and estate to nation. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen proclaimed rights, citizenship and equality before law while not granting immediate universal suffrage. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The Jacobin phase joined direct-democratic claims and emergency national defence to coercive Terror; old NCERT reports about seventeen thousand tried and executed in fourteen months. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: Bourgeois leadership drove institutional rupture, peasants attacked feudal burdens, and workers, artisans and the Paris crowd pushed radicalisation. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
7. Claim and named evidence: The Revolution gave the nation a modern political meaning and relocated sovereignty in the people, influencing later nationalism and constitutionalism. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: It fused ideological delegitimation, state crisis and mass multi-class mobilisation, destroyed legal privilege and made nation, citizen and popular sovereignty the grammar of modern politics.
