

SOLVED PRACTICE WORKBOOK

Rise of Fascism: Italy, Germany, Japan - Solved Practice Workbook

UPSC complete learning session | Foundation to advanced | Concepts, evidence, practice and answer writing

Original deterministic study visual; labels are explanatory, not textual quotations.

Source order: repository knowledge -> official current linkage -> clearly marked analysis. No fabricated PYQs or statistics.

CONTENTS / WORKBOOK INDEX

Major learning parts and meaningful subtopics are listed in document order. Page numbers are generated from the final PDF layout; PDF bookmarks mirror the same hierarchy.

Rise of Fascism: Italy, Germany, Japan - Solved Practice Workbook 5

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION 5

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?	5
Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?	5
Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?	5
Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?	5
Q5. Which statement correctly identifies Italian crisis after war?	6
Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under Italian crisis after war?	6
Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italian crisis after war?	6
Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italian crisis after war?	6
Q9. Which statement correctly identifies March on Rome, October 1922?	6
Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under March on Rome, October 1922?	7
Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of March on Rome, October 1922?	7
Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about March on Rome, October 1922?	7
Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Core fascist features?	7
Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Core fascist features?	8
Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Core fascist features?	8
Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Core fascist features?	8
Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?	8
Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?	8
Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?	9
Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?	9
Q21. Which statement correctly identifies Weimar's layered crisis?	9
Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under Weimar's layered crisis?	9
Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Weimar's layered crisis?	9
Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Weimar's layered crisis?	10
Q25. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi entry through legal office?	10
Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi entry through legal office?	10
Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi entry through legal office?	10

Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi entry through legal office?	10
Q29. Which statement correctly identifies Enabling Law, March 1933?	11
Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under Enabling Law, March 1933?	11
Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Enabling Law, March 1933?	11
Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Enabling Law, March 1933?	11
Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Night of the Long Knives, 1934?	11
Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Night of the Long Knives, 1934?	12
Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Night of the Long Knives, 1934?	12
Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Night of the Long Knives, 1934?	12
Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi ideological core?	12
Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi ideological core?	12
Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi ideological core?	13
Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi ideological core?	13
Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi control system?	13
Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi control system?	13
Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi control system?	14
Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi control system?	14
Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Nuremberg Laws, 1935?	14
Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Nuremberg Laws, 1935?	14
Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nuremberg Laws, 1935?	14
Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nuremberg Laws, 1935?	15
Q49. Which statement correctly identifies Italy and Germany distinguished?	15
Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under Italy and Germany distinguished?	15
Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italy and Germany distinguished?	15
Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italy and Germany distinguished?	15
Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Japan's turn to army dominance?	16
Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Japan's turn to army dominance?	16
Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Japan's turn to army dominance?	16
Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Japan's turn to army dominance?	16
Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Japanese category caution?	16
Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Japanese category caution?	17
Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Japanese category caution?	17

Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Japanese category caution?	17
Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Full-scale war in China, 1937?	17
Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Full-scale war in China, 1937?	18
Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Full-scale war in China, 1937?	18
Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Full-scale war in China, 1937?	18
Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Spain's related path, 1931-39?	18
Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Spain's related path, 1931-39?	18
Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Spain's related path, 1931-39?	19
Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Spain's related path, 1931-39?	19
Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Spain not a full fascist replica?	19
Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Spain not a full fascist replica?	19
Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Spain not a full fascist replica?	19
Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Spain not a full fascist replica?	20
Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Democracy challenged from above and below?	20
Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Democracy challenged from above and below?	20
Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Democracy challenged from above and below?	20
Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Democracy challenged from above and below?	21
Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Common crisis, different regimes?	21
Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Common crisis, different regimes?	21
Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Common crisis, different regimes?	21
Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Common crisis, different regimes?	22

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE 22

PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2021 GS-I · 15 marks · 250 words	22
ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS	23
ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS	24
ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS	25
ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS	26
ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS	28
ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS	29

Rise of Fascism: Italy, Germany, Japan - Solved Practice Workbook

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?

A. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. B. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. C. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: A. Explanation: Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?

A. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. B. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. C. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. D. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy.

Answer: B. Explanation: Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?

A. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: C. Explanation: Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italian fascist organisations, 1919-21?

A. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. D. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921.

Answer: D. Explanation: Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q5. Which statement correctly identifies Italian crisis after war?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. C. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. D. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.

Answer: A. Explanation: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under Italian crisis after war?

A. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. B. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. C. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: B. Explanation: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italian crisis after war?

A. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. B. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. C. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. D. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy.

Answer: C. Explanation: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italian crisis after war?

A. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. B. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: D. Explanation: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q9. Which statement correctly identifies March on Rome, October 1922?

A. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. D. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.

Answer: A. Explanation: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under March on Rome, October 1922?

A. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. B. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: B. Explanation: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of March on Rome, October 1922?

A. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. B. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. C. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. D. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933.

Answer: C. Explanation: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about March on Rome, October 1922?

A. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.

Answer: D. Explanation: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Core fascist features?

A. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: A. Explanation: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Core fascist features?

A. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. B. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: B. Explanation: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Core fascist features?

A. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. D. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933.

Answer: C. Explanation: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Core fascist features?

A. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. D. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.

Answer: D. Explanation: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?

A. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?

A. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?

A. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. D. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Acerbo Law and Lateran Treaty?

A. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. B. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. C. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. D. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q21. Which statement correctly identifies Weimar's layered crisis?

A. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. B. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship.

Answer: A. Explanation: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under Weimar's layered crisis?

A. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. B. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. C. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: B. Explanation: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Weimar's layered crisis?

A. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. B. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. C. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: C. Explanation: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Weimar's layered crisis?

A. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. B. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. C. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. D. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.

Answer: D. Explanation: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q25. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi entry through legal office?

A. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi entry through legal office?

A. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. B. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. C. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. D. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi entry through legal office?

A. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. B. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. C. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. D. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi entry through legal office?

A. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. B. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. C. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. D. The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q29. Which statement correctly identifies Enabling Law, March 1933?

A. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. B. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. C. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under Enabling Law, March 1933?

A. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. B. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. C. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. D. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Enabling Law, March 1933?

A. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. B. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. C. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. D. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Enabling Law, March 1933?

A. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. B. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. C. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. D. The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Night of the Long Knives, 1934?

A. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. B. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. C. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. D. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Night of the Long Knives, 1934?

A. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. B. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. C. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. D. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Night of the Long Knives, 1934?

A. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. B. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. C. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. D. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Night of the Long Knives, 1934?

A. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. B. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. C. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. D. The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Night of the Long Knives consolidated Hitler's position by eliminating rivals and reassuring conservative power centres. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi ideological core?

A. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. B. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. C. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. D. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism.

Answer: A. Explanation: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi ideological core?

A. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. B. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. C. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. D. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism.

Answer: B. Explanation: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi ideological core?

A. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. B. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. C. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: C. Explanation: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi ideological core?

A. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. B. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. C. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. D. Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.

Answer: D. Explanation: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Nazi control system?

A. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. B. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. C. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. D. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle.

Answer: A. Explanation: Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Nazi control system?

A. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. B. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. C. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: B. Explanation: Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nazi control system?

A. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. B. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. C. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: C. Explanation: Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nazi control system?

A. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. B. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. C. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. D. Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism.

Answer: D. Explanation: Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Nuremberg Laws, 1935?

A. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. B. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. C. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Nuremberg Laws, 1935?

A. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. B. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. C. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Nuremberg Laws, 1935?

A. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. B. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. C. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. D. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Nuremberg Laws, 1935?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. C. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. D. The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q49. Which statement correctly identifies Italy and Germany distinguished?

A. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. B. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. C. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. D. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Answer: A. Explanation: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under Italy and Germany distinguished?

A. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. B. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. C. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. D. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help.

Answer: B. Explanation: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italy and Germany distinguished?

A. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. B. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. C. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. D. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany.

Answer: C. Explanation: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italy and Germany distinguished?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. C. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. D. Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle.

Answer: D. Explanation: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Japan's turn to army dominance?

A. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. B. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. C. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. D. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Answer: A. Explanation: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Japan's turn to army dominance?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. C. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. D. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Answer: B. Explanation: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Japan's turn to army dominance?

A. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. B. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. C. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. D. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany.

Answer: C. Explanation: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Japan's turn to army dominance?

A. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. B. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. C. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. D. The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance.

Answer: D. Explanation: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Japanese category caution?

A. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. B. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. C. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. D. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Answer: A. Explanation: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Japanese category caution?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. C. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. D. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help.

Answer: B. Explanation: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Japanese category caution?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. C. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. D. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Answer: C. Explanation: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Japanese category caution?

A. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. B. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.

Answer: D. Explanation: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Full-scale war in China, 1937?

A. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. B. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. C. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. D. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Answer: A. Explanation: Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Full-scale war in China, 1937?

A. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. B. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. C. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. D. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Answer: B. Explanation: Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Full-scale war in China, 1937?

A. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. B. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. C. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. D. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921.

Answer: C. Explanation: Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Full-scale war in China, 1937?

A. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. B. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. C. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. D. Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Answer: D. Explanation: Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Spain's related path, 1931-39?

A. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. B. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. C. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. D. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Answer: A. Explanation: Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Spain's related path, 1931-39?

A. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. B. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism.

Answer: B. Explanation: Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Spain's related path, 1931-39?

A. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. B. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. C. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: C. Explanation: Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Spain's related path, 1931-39?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help.

Answer: D. Explanation: Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Spain not a full fascist replica?

A. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. B. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. C. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. D. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921.

Answer: A. Explanation: Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Spain not a full fascist replica?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. C. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. D. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921.

Answer: B. Explanation: Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Spain not a full fascist replica?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. C. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. D. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921.

Answer: C. Explanation: Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Spain not a full fascist replica?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. C. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. D. Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany.

Answer: D. Explanation: Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Democracy challenged from above and below?

A. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. B. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: A. Explanation: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Democracy challenged from above and below?

A. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. B. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: B. Explanation: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Democracy challenged from above and below?

A. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. B. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. C. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. D. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.

Answer: C. Explanation: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Democracy challenged from above and below?

A. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. B. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. C. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. D. Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Answer: D. Explanation: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Common crisis, different regimes?

A. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. B. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. C. Mussolini founded the Fasci di combattimento in 1919 and organised the National Fascist Party in 1921. D. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.

Answer: A. Explanation: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Common crisis, different regimes?

A. Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. B. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. C. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. D. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.

Answer: B. Explanation: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Common crisis, different regimes?

A. The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. B. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. C. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. D. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.

Answer: C. Explanation: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Common crisis, different regimes?

A. Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. B. Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. C. The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. D. Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism.

Answer: D. Explanation: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE

Historical PYQ Integration (2018-2023)

Status: Question-level PYQ demand is integrated into this owner. Provenance: Audited local official-paper routing ledgers: _PYQ-ROUTING-MAINS-GS1-GS2-ESSAY-2018-2023.md.

- Years represented: 2021
- Paper(s): GS-I
- Routed question demands: 1

Year	Paper	Q	PYQ demand (neutral rendering)	Directive /​ format	Source status	Owner requirement
2021	GS-​ ;I	13	Challenge to the democratic state system between the two World Wars	Evaluate the statement · 15 marks · 250 words	Routed to owning topic	Prepare context, core dimensions, evidence/​examples, counterpoint and a concise conclusion.

What this owner must now support

- Challenge to the democratic state system between the two World Wars

The table integrates the examinable demand and paper metadata. It does not turn an unkeyed objective question into a solved answer, and it does not claim that lexical presence alone proves full conceptual sufficiency.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2021 GS-I · 15 marks · 250 words

Demand: Evaluate the challenge to the democratic state system between the two World Wars.

Status: Verified neutral rendering from the audited local routing ledger; not claimed as verbatim.

Model solution: The democratic state system was challenged not only by fascist movements but by failures within democracy. War grievance, inflation, unemployment, fragmented coalitions and political violence weakened mass confidence. Authoritarian movements then mobilised nationalism and anti-communism from below, while conservative elites transferred power from above: Italy's king invited Mussolini, and German conservatives enabled Hitler's chancellorship before the Enabling Law destroyed constitutional restraint. Japan followed an army-led route inside surviving institutions, and Spain a civil-war route. Thus the challenge was both external assault and constitutional abandonment, expressed through nationally distinct authoritarian forms.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2021 GS-I · 15 marks · 250 words", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2021 GS-I · 15 marks · 250 words”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: The democratic state system was challenged not only by fascist movements but by failures within democracy. War grievance, inflation, unemployment, fragmented coalitions and political violence weakened mass confidence. Authoritarian movements then mobilised nationalism and anti-communism from below, while conservative elites transferred power from above: Italy's king invited Mussolini, and German conservatives enabled Hitler's chancellorship before the Enabling Law destroyed constitutional restraint. Japan followed an army-led route inside surviving institutions, and Spain a civil-war route. Thus the challenge was both external assault and constitutional abandonment, expressed through nationally distinct authoritarian forms.

Qualification: Treat the stated causal weight as bounded by the question's period, geography and evidence status; do not convert it into inevitability or a universal civilisational claim.

ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS

Question: Why did Mussolini reach office in 1922? Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Postwar grievance and class fear widened support, but the decisive transfer came when the king refused resistance and invited Mussolini to govern.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.
- The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.

Qualified conclusion: Postwar grievance and class fear widened support, but the decisive transfer came when the king refused resistance and invited Mussolini to govern.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Why did Mussolini reach office in 1922? Answer in about 150 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Why did Mussolini reach office in 1922? Answer in about 150 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Postwar grievance and class fear widened support, but the decisive transfer came when the king refused resistance and invited Mussolini to govern.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Postwar grievance and class fear widened support, but the decisive transfer came when the king refused resistance and invited Mussolini to govern.

ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS

Question: Why is Japan not safely described as fascist in the strict sense? Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Army influence, emperor-centred nationalism and expansion resembled fascism, but Japan lacked the same mass party-state and route to power.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance.
- Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.
- Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict.

Qualified conclusion: Army influence, emperor-centred nationalism and expansion resembled fascism, but Japan lacked the same mass party-state and route to power.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Why is Japan not safely described as fascist in the strict sense? Answer in about 150 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Why is Japan not safely described as fascist in the strict sense? Answer in about 150 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Army influence, emperor-centred nationalism and expansion resembled fascism, but Japan lacked the same mass party-state and route to power.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Japanese army-led expansion widened into full-scale war in China in 1937 and later into the Pacific conflict. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Army influence, emperor-centred nationalism and expansion resembled fascism, but Japan lacked the same mass party-state and route to power.

ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS

Question: Compare Italian fascism and German Nazism. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Both destroyed pluralism through propaganda and coercion, but Nazism was more thorough and placed biological race at the state's ideological centre.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.
- The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy.
- Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.
- Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism.
- The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism.
- Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle.

Qualified conclusion: Both destroyed pluralism through propaganda and coercion, but Nazism was more thorough and placed biological race at the state's ideological centre.

Demand decoding: The directive compare requires a direct position on "Compare Italian fascism and German Nazism. Answer in about 250 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Compare Italian fascism and German Nazism. Answer in about 250 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Both destroyed pluralism through propaganda and coercion, but Nazism was more thorough and placed biological race at the state's ideological centre.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The Acerbo Law helped fascist parliamentary dominance, while the Lateran Treaty of 1929 settled relations with the papacy. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Trade-union destruction, youth and school control, Goebbels's propaganda machinery, police power and camps penetrated society more thoroughly than Italian fascism. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The Nuremberg Laws institutionalised racial exclusion in 1935, showing that race was constitutive rather than incidental to Nazism. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Both destroyed pluralism through propaganda and coercion, but Nazism was more thorough and placed biological race at the state's ideological centre.

ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS

Question: How did interwar democracies enable authoritarian takeover? Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Economic failure and violence eroded legitimacy, while kings, conservative elites and legal mechanisms handed power to movements they expected to control.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.
- Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.
- The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933.
- The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship.

- Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.

Qualified conclusion: Economic failure and violence eroded legitimacy, while kings, conservative elites and legal mechanisms handed power to movements they expected to control.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “How did interwar democracies enable authoritarian takeover? Answer in about 250 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “How did interwar democracies enable authoritarian takeover? Answer in about 250 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Economic failure and violence eroded legitimacy, while kings, conservative elites and legal mechanisms handed power to movements they expected to control.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Economic failure and violence eroded legitimacy, while kings, conservative elites and legal mechanisms handed power to movements they expected to control.

ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS

Question: Evaluate the challenge to the democratic state system between the World Wars. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: The challenge combined mass grievance, anti-left mobilisation, elite surrender and constitutional self-destruction, but took nationally distinct institutional forms.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support.
- The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government.
- Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy.
- The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933.
- The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship.
- The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance.
- Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above.
- Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism.

Qualified conclusion: The challenge combined mass grievance, anti-left mobilisation, elite surrender and constitutional self-destruction, but took nationally distinct institutional forms.

Demand decoding: The directive evaluate requires a direct position on "Evaluate the challenge to the democratic state system between the World Wars. Answer in about...", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "Evaluate the challenge to the democratic state system between the World Wars. Answer in about...", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: The challenge combined mass grievance, anti-left mobilisation, elite surrender and constitutional self-destruction, but took nationally distinct institutional forms.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Disappointed victory, inflation, debt, unemployment, weak coalitions, labour unrest and fear of socialism widened fascist support. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

2. Claim and named evidence: The March on Rome was more bluff than conquest; Victor Emmanuel III refused resistance and invited Mussolini to form a government. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Versailles stigma, the stab-in-the-back myth, fragmented coalitions, violence, hyperinflation, American-credit dependence and Depression eroded the Weimar Republic's legitimacy. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The Nazis never won an overall electoral majority; conservative intrigue helped Hitler become Chancellor in January 1933. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The Enabling Law of March 1933 supplied the decisive legal breakthrough from chancellorship to dictatorship. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: The occupation of Manchuria in 1931 and assassination of Prime Minister Inukai in 1932 marked the transition toward military dominance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
7. Claim and named evidence: Mass movements, economic grievance and violence weakened democracy from below while kings, conservative elites and constitutional mechanisms transferred power from above. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
8. Claim and named evidence: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: The challenge combined mass grievance, anti-left mobilisation, elite surrender and constitutional self-destruction, but took nationally distinct institutional forms.

ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS

Question: Compare fascism, Nazism, Japanese militarism and Francoism. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: A common authoritarian family resemblance existed, but race, mass-party mobilisation, surviving institutions and routes to power prevent a single-category verdict.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence.
- Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre.
- Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle.
- Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label.
- Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help.
- Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany.

- Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism.

Qualified conclusion: A common authoritarian family resemblance existed, but race, mass-party mobilisation, surviving institutions and routes to power prevent a single-category verdict.

Demand decoding: The directive compare requires a direct position on “Compare fascism, Nazism, Japanese militarism and Francoism. Answer in about 300 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Compare fascism, Nazism, Japanese militarism and Francoism. Answer in about 300 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: A common authoritarian family resemblance existed, but race, mass-party mobilisation, surviving institutions and routes to power prevent a single-category verdict.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Italian fascism joined authoritarian rule, extreme nationalism, leader cult, one-party ambition, anti-communism, propaganda, autarky and glorified violence. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Nazism fused national rebirth, totalitarian organisation and militarisation with Aryan supremacy and anti-Semitism at its centre. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Both destroyed pluralism, but Italian fascism remained less systematic and racialised; Nazism made biological race an organising principle. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Japan retained imperial and constitutional forms under army influence and lacked the same mass party-state, so military authoritarianism is safer than an unqualified fascist label. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: Spain's monarchy fell in 1931, civil war began in 1936, and Franco won in 1939 with German and Italian help. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: Franco's regime shared authoritarian and anti-left features but lacked the same mass mobilisation for national rebirth as Italy and Germany. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
7. Claim and named evidence: Interwar authoritarianism arose from similar insecurity and parliamentary failure but produced Italian party dictatorship, German racial totalitarianism, Japanese militarism and Spanish authoritarianism. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: A common authoritarian family resemblance existed, but race, mass-party mobilisation, surviving institutions and routes to power prevent a single-category verdict.