

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 1/12: From two wars to one

1931/1937 -> Japanese expansion in Asia

SEPT 1939 -> German war begins in Europe

22 JUNE 1941 -> Barbarossa widens European war

7 DEC 1941 -> Pearl Harbor fuses the conflicts

MUST REMEMBER: Axis expansion and appeasement precede Poland (1939); the widening sequence includes France (1940), Barbarossa and Pearl Harbor (1941), Midway, El Alamein and Stalingrad, Allied advance, atomic bombing and surrender in 1945.

MUST REMEMBER: Axis expansion and appeasement precede Poland (1939); the widening sequence includes France (1940), Barbarossa and Pearl Harbor (1941), Midway, El Alamein and Stalingrad, Allied advance, atomic bombing and surrender in 1945.

MUST REMEMBER: Axis expansion and appeasement precede Poland (1939); the widening sequence includes France (1940), Barbarossa and Pearl Harbor (1941), Midway, El Alamein and Stalingrad, Allied advance, atomic bombing and surrender in 1945.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 2/12: Early Axis method

BLITZKRIEG -> tanks, motorised thrusts and air support

SURPRISE -> defences bypassed before coordination

1940 -> western states fall rapidly

LIMIT -> operational speed cannot settle Britain

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 3/12: Battle of Britain mechanism

RAF + RADAR -> attacks intercepted

GERMAN RANGE -> fighter limits constrain operations

LONDON SHIFT -> pressure on airfields eases

RESULT -> invasion prevented; Britain remains a base

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 4/12: Global turning-point set

MIDWAY -> Japanese carrier strength broken

EL ALAMEIN -> Egypt and Suez protected

STALINGRAD -> sustained Soviet advance begins

ATLANTIC -> Britain and western offensive survive

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 5/12: Axis overreach chain

BRITAIN SURVIVES -> western war remains open

BARBAROSSA -> vast eastern front created

PEARL HARBOR -> US resources enter

RESULT -> Axis fights a coalition it cannot outproduce

ASCCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 6/12: Why the Axis lost

STRATEGY -> too many fronts

RESOURCES -> Allied coalition advantage

SEA/AIR -> Allied superiority grows

OCCUPATION -> brutality creates resistance

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 7/12: D-Day in coalition strategy

ATLANTIC CONTROL -> invasion supply possible

6 JUNE 1944 -> Normandy front opens

SOVIET ADVANCE -> Germany pressed from east

RESULT -> genuine two-front collapse

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 8/12: Holocaust boundary

JEWISH VICTIMS -> about 5.7 million in Lowe's estimate
STATE PROJECT -> racial policy uses occupation machinery
OTHER VICTIMS -> name separately
RULE -> never merge categories into one total

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 9/12: Occupied-society choices

RESISTANCE -> Italian partisans execute Mussolini
COLLABORATION -> Quisling and Norwegian local Nazis
STATE COLLABORATION -> Vichy France
CAUTION -> no extra names or quantified claims

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 10/12: Japan's surrender caution

ATOMIC BOMBS -> central shock

SOVIET ENTRY -> Manchurian strategic collapse

BLOCKADE/BOMBING -> cumulative exhaustion

VERDICT -> relative weight remains debated

CLOSE DISTINCTION: European, Mediterranean, African, Atlantic and Asia-Pacific theatres were connected but not one battlefield, and genocide must remain analytically distinct from ordinary military chronology.

CLOSE DISTINCTION: European, Mediterranean, African, Atlantic and Asia-Pacific theatres were connected but not one battlefield, and genocide must remain analytically distinct from ordinary military chronology.

CLOSE DISTINCTION: European, Mediterranean, African, Atlantic and Asia-Pacific theatres were connected but not one battlefield, and genocide must remain analytically distinct from ordinary military chronology.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 11/12: Postwar structural shift

EUROPE WEAKENS -> imperial capacity contracts

USA/USSR -> superpowers dominate

NUCLEAR AGE -> deterrence changes

UNITED NATIONS -> new collective institution

EVIDENCE LIMIT: Leadership and ideology mattered within industrial capacity, logistics, alliance resources, resistance and colonial manpower; Allied victory was neither automatic nor explainable by one battle.

EVIDENCE LIMIT: Leadership and ideology mattered within industrial capacity, logistics, alliance resources, resistance and colonial manpower; Allied victory was neither automatic nor explainable by one battle.

EVIDENCE LIMIT: Leadership and ideology mattered within industrial capacity, logistics, alliance resources, resistance and colonial manpower; Allied victory was neither automatic nor explainable by one battle.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 12/12: Second World War answer spine

ORIGINS -> Asian and European wars fuse

COURSE -> expansion, overreach and turning points

SOCIETY -> total war, genocide and occupation choices

AFTERMATH -> superpowers, UN and decolonisation