

SOLVED PRACTICE WORKBOOK

United Nations and Global Governance - Solved Practice Workbook

UPSC complete learning session | Foundation to advanced | Concepts, evidence, practice and answer writing

Original deterministic study visual; labels are explanatory, not textual quotations.

Source order: repository knowledge -> official current linkage -> clearly marked analysis. No fabricated PYQs or statistics.

CONTENTS / WORKBOOK INDEX

Major learning parts and meaningful subtopics are listed in document order. Page numbers are generated from the final PDF layout; PDF bookmarks mirror the same hierarchy.

United Nations and Global Governance - Solved Practice Workbook . . . . . 5

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION . . . . . 5

|                                                                                                    |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Dumbarton Oaks, 1944? . . . . .                           | 5  |
| Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Dumbarton Oaks, 1944? . . . . .                    | 5  |
| Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Dumbarton Oaks, 1944? . . . . .           | 5  |
| Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Dumbarton Oaks, 1944? . . . . .               | 5  |
| Q5. Which statement correctly identifies San Francisco and October 1945? . . . . .                 | 6  |
| Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under San Francisco and October 1945? . . . . .          | 6  |
| Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of San Francisco and October 1945? . . . . . | 6  |
| Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about San Francisco and October 1945? . . . . .     | 6  |
| Q9. Which statement correctly identifies Three founding aims? . . . . .                            | 6  |
| Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under Three founding aims? . . . . .                    | 7  |
| Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Three founding aims? . . . . .           | 7  |
| Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Three founding aims? . . . . .               | 7  |
| Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Six principal Charter bodies? . . . . .                  | 7  |
| Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Six principal Charter bodies? . . . . .           | 8  |
| Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Six principal Charter bodies? . . . . .  | 8  |
| Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Six principal Charter bodies? . . . . .      | 8  |
| Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Security Council composition? . . . . .                  | 8  |
| Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Security Council composition? . . . . .           | 9  |
| Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Security Council composition? . . . . .  | 9  |
| Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Security Council composition? . . . . .      | 9  |
| Q21. Which statement correctly identifies ICJ and ICC distinction? . . . . .                       | 9  |
| Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under ICJ and ICC distinction? . . . . .                | 9  |
| Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of ICJ and ICC distinction? . . . . .       | 10 |
| Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about ICJ and ICC distinction? . . . . .           | 10 |
| Q25. Which statement correctly identifies UN compared with League? . . . . .                       | 10 |
| Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under UN compared with League? . . . . .                | 10 |
| Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of UN compared with League? . . . . .       | 10 |

|                                                                                              |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about UN compared with League?               | 11 |
| Q29. Which statement correctly identifies Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?                 | 11 |
| Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?          | 11 |
| Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950? | 11 |
| Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?     | 11 |
| Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Suez success, 1956?                                | 12 |
| Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Suez success, 1956?                         | 12 |
| Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Suez success, 1956?                | 12 |
| Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Suez success, 1956?                    | 12 |
| Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Hungary failure, 1956?                             | 12 |
| Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Hungary failure, 1956?                      | 13 |
| Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Hungary failure, 1956?             | 13 |
| Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Hungary failure, 1956?                 | 13 |
| Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Congo operation, 1960-64?                          | 13 |
| Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Congo operation, 1960-64?                   | 13 |
| Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Congo operation, 1960-64?          | 14 |
| Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Congo operation, 1960-64?              | 14 |
| Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Cyprus and Kashmir?                                | 14 |
| Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Cyprus and Kashmir?                         | 14 |
| Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Cyprus and Kashmir?                | 14 |
| Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Cyprus and Kashmir?                    | 15 |
| Q49. Which statement correctly identifies West New Guinea?                                   | 15 |
| Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under West New Guinea?                            | 15 |
| Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of West New Guinea?                   | 15 |
| Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about West New Guinea?                       | 15 |
| Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Gulf War enforcement, 1991?                        | 16 |
| Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Gulf War enforcement, 1991?                 | 16 |
| Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Gulf War enforcement, 1991?        | 16 |
| Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Gulf War enforcement, 1991?            | 16 |
| Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Cambodia and Mozambique?                           | 16 |
| Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Cambodia and Mozambique?                    | 17 |
| Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Cambodia and Mozambique?           | 17 |

|                                                                                                        |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Cambodia and Mozambique? . . . . .               | 17        |
| Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Somalia and Bosnia? . . . . .                                | 17        |
| Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Somalia and Bosnia? . . . . .                         | 17        |
| Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Somalia and Bosnia? . . . . .                | 18        |
| Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Somalia and Bosnia? . . . . .                    | 18        |
| Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Iraq crisis, 2003? . . . . .                                 | 18        |
| Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Iraq crisis, 2003? . . . . .                          | 18        |
| Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Iraq crisis, 2003? . . . . .                 | 19        |
| Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Iraq crisis, 2003? . . . . .                     | 19        |
| Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Non-military work? . . . . .                                 | 19        |
| Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Non-military work? . . . . .                          | 19        |
| Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Non-military work? . . . . .                 | 19        |
| Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Non-military work? . . . . .                     | 20        |
| Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Institutional category discipline? . . . . .                 | 20        |
| Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Institutional category discipline? . . . . .          | 20        |
| Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Institutional category discipline? . . . . . | 20        |
| Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Institutional category discipline? . . . . .     | 21        |
| Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Balanced reform verdict? . . . . .                           | 21        |
| Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Balanced reform verdict? . . . . .                    | 21        |
| Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Balanced reform verdict? . . . . .           | 21        |
| Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Balanced reform verdict? . . . . .               | 22        |
| PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE . . . . .                                                              | 22 |
| TRANSPARENT ZERO-DIRECT-PYQ AUDIT . . . . .                                                            | 22        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 22        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 23        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 24        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 25        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 26        |
| ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS . . . . .                                                                  | 27        |

United Nations and Global Governance - Solved Practice Workbook

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Dumbarton Oaks, 1944?

A. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. B. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. C. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Dumbarton Oaks, 1944?

A. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. B. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. C. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. D. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Dumbarton Oaks, 1944?

A. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. B. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. C. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. D. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Dumbarton Oaks, 1944?

A. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. B. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. C. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. D. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q5. Which statement correctly identifies San Francisco and October 1945?

A. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. D. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under San Francisco and October 1945?

A. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. B. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. C. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. D. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of San Francisco and October 1945?

A. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. D. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about San Francisco and October 1945?

A. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. D. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q9. Which statement correctly identifies Three founding aims?

A. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. B. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. C. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. D. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.

Answer: A. Explanation: The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under Three founding aims?

A. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. D. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ.

Answer: B. Explanation: The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Three founding aims?

A. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: C. Explanation: The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Three founding aims?

A. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: D. Explanation: The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Six principal Charter bodies?

A. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. B. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. C. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. D. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ.

Answer: A. Explanation: The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Six principal Charter bodies?

A. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. B. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. C. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. D. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army.

Answer: B. Explanation: The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Six principal Charter bodies?

A. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: C. Explanation: The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Six principal Charter bodies?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. C. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. D. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.

Answer: D. Explanation: The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Security Council composition?

A. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Security Council composition?

A. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. B. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. C. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Security Council composition?

A. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. B. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. C. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Security Council composition?

A. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. B. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. C. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. D. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q21. Which statement correctly identifies ICJ and ICC distinction?

A. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: A. Explanation: The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under ICJ and ICC distinction?

A. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. B. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. C. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: B. Explanation: The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of ICJ and ICC distinction?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. C. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: C. Explanation: The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about ICJ and ICC distinction?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ.

Answer: D. Explanation: The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q25. Which statement correctly identifies UN compared with League?

A. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. B. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. C. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: A. Explanation: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under UN compared with League?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: B. Explanation: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of UN compared with League?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. C. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. D. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record.

Answer: C. Explanation: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about UN compared with League?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army.

Answer: D. Explanation: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q29. Which statement correctly identifies Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?

A. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. B. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. C. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. D. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit.

Answer: A. Explanation: Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements.

Answer: B. Explanation: Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. D. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record.

Answer: C. Explanation: Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Korea and Uniting for Peace, 1950?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. D. Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.

Answer: D. Explanation: Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Suez success, 1956?

A. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. B. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Suez success, 1956?

A. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. B. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. C. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. D. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Suez success, 1956?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. D. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Suez success, 1956?

A. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. B. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. C. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. D. The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Hungary failure, 1956?

A. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. B. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. C. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. D. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements.

Answer: A. Explanation: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Hungary failure, 1956?

A. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. B. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. C. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. D. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation.

Answer: B. Explanation: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Hungary failure, 1956?

A. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. D. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Answer: C. Explanation: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Hungary failure, 1956?

A. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. B. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit.

Answer: D. Explanation: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Congo operation, 1960-64?

A. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. D. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Congo operation, 1960-64?

A. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. B. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. C. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. D. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Congo operation, 1960-64?

A. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. B. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. C. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. D. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Congo operation, 1960-64?

A. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. B. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Congo operation was complex and costly but restored some order, giving the UN a mixed rather than simply failed record. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Cyprus and Kashmir?

A. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. B. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation.

Answer: A. Explanation: The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Cyprus and Kashmir?

A. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. B. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. C. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: B. Explanation: The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Cyprus and Kashmir?

A. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. B. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. C. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: C. Explanation: The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Cyprus and Kashmir?

A. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. B. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. C. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. D. The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements.

Answer: D. Explanation: The UN helped supervise ceasefires in Cyprus and Kashmir but did not deliver final political settlements. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q49. Which statement correctly identifies West New Guinea?

A. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. B. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. C. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. D. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions.

Answer: A. Explanation: UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under West New Guinea?

A. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. B. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: B. Explanation: UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of West New Guinea?

A. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. B. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. C. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: C. Explanation: UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about West New Guinea?

A. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. B. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. C. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. D. UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation.

Answer: D. Explanation: UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Gulf War enforcement, 1991?

A. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. B. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Gulf War enforcement, 1991?

A. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. B. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. C. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. D. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Gulf War enforcement, 1991?

A. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. B. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. C. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. D. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Gulf War enforcement, 1991?

A. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. B. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. C. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. D. The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Cambodia and Mozambique?

A. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. B. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. C. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: A. Explanation: Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Cambodia and Mozambique?

A. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. B. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. C. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. D. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.

Answer: B. Explanation: Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Cambodia and Mozambique?

A. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. B. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. C. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. D. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency.

Answer: C. Explanation: Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Cambodia and Mozambique?

A. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. B. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. C. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. D. Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions.

Answer: D. Explanation: Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Somalia and Bosnia?

A. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. B. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. C. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. D. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states.

Answer: A. Explanation: Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Somalia and Bosnia?

A. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. B. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. C. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. D. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Answer: B. Explanation: Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Somalia and Bosnia?

A. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. B. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. C. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. D. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations.

Answer: C. Explanation: Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Somalia and Bosnia?

A. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. B. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. C. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. D. Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.

Answer: D. Explanation: Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Iraq crisis, 2003?

A. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. B. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. C. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. D. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.

Answer: A. Explanation: The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Iraq crisis, 2003?

A. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. B. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. C. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. D. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations.

Answer: B. Explanation: The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Iraq crisis, 2003?

A. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. B. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. C. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. D. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945.

Answer: C. Explanation: The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Iraq crisis, 2003?

A. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. B. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. C. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. D. The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states.

Answer: D. Explanation: The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Non-military work?

A. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. B. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. C. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. D. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations.

Answer: A. Explanation: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Non-military work?

A. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. B. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. C. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. D. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Answer: B. Explanation: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Non-military work?

A. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. B. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. C. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: C. Explanation: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Non-military work?

A. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. D. Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.

Answer: D. Explanation: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Institutional category discipline?

A. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. B. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. C. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. D. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Answer: A. Explanation: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Institutional category discipline?

A. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. B. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. C. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: B. Explanation: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Institutional category discipline?

A. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. D. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945.

Answer: C. Explanation: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Institutional category discipline?

A. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. D. WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency.

Answer: D. Explanation: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Balanced reform verdict?

A. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. B. The Dumbarton Oaks proposals of 1944 supplied an institutional blueprint for the postwar United Nations. C. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: A. Explanation: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Balanced reform verdict?

A. The Charter was framed at San Francisco in 1945 and the United Nations came into existence in October 1945. B. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. C. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. D. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.

Answer: B. Explanation: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Balanced reform verdict?

A. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. B. The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. C. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. D. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.

Answer: C. Explanation: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Balanced reform verdict?

A. The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. B. The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. C. The ICJ is the UN's principal judicial organ; the ICC is an independent treaty-based court and not a principal UN organ. D. The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Answer: D. Explanation: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE

TRANSPARENT ZERO-DIRECT-PYQ AUDIT

No direct UPSC PYQ is verified as owned solely by this topic in the local routing blocks. All six Mains demands are original practice.

ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS

Question: How did the United Nations improve on the League of Nations? Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: It widened membership, rights and social functions and enabled more decisive procedures, while retaining veto dependence and no permanent army.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations.
- The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army.

Qualified conclusion: It widened membership, rights and social functions and enabled more decisive procedures, while retaining veto dependence and no permanent army.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "How did the United Nations improve on the League of Nations? Answer in about 150 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "How did the United Nations improve on the League of Nations? Answer in about 150 words.", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: It widened membership, rights and social functions and enabled more decisive procedures, while retaining veto dependence and no permanent army.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The UN aimed to preserve peace, remove causes of conflict through social-economic progress, and safeguard the rights of individuals, peoples and nations. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: It widened membership, rights and social functions and enabled more decisive procedures, while retaining veto dependence and no permanent army.

ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS

Question: Distinguish peacekeeping from collective enforcement. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: Peacekeeping rests on consent and separation, whereas Korea and the Gulf involved Security Council-authorized member-state force.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping.
- The Security Council authorized force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.

Qualified conclusion: Peacekeeping rests on consent and separation, whereas Korea and the Gulf involved Security Council-authorized member-state force.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "Distinguish peacekeeping from collective enforcement. Answer in about 150 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "Distinguish peacekeeping from collective enforcement. Answer in about 150 words.", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Peacekeeping rests on consent and separation, whereas Korea and the Gulf involved Security Council-authorized member-state force.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Security Council action in Korea was possible during Soviet absence and involved member-state collective enforcement, not ordinary blue-helmet peacekeeping. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

2. Claim and named evidence: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Peacekeeping rests on consent and separation, whereas Korea and the Gulf involved Security Council-authorised member-state force.

ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS

Question: Assess the UN as a peace and security institution. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Suez, West New Guinea and transitions show success under cooperation; Hungary, Somalia, Bosnia and Iraq show dependence on great-power agreement and adequate mandates.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances.
- Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit.
- UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation.
- Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions.
- Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia.
- The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states.

Qualified conclusion: Suez, West New Guinea and transitions show success under cooperation; Hungary, Somalia, Bosnia and Iraq show dependence on great-power agreement and adequate mandates.

Demand decoding: The directive assess requires a direct position on "Assess the UN as a peace and security institution. Answer in about 250 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "Assess the UN as a peace and security institution. Answer in about 250 words.", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Suez, West New Guinea and transitions show success under cooperation; Hungary, Somalia, Bosnia and Iraq show dependence on great-power agreement and adequate mandates.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Suez crisis produced a ceasefire and peacekeeping force, becoming one of the UN's strongest Cold War security performances. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

2. Claim and named evidence: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: UN mediation and supervision assisted negotiated transfer in West New Guinea where major-power interests permitted cooperation. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Post-Cold-War operations in Cambodia and Mozambique helped stabilise political transitions. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: Civil-war complexity, inadequate force and weak political support produced grave limits in Somalia and Bosnia. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: The US-UK invasion without clear Security Council authorisation exposed the limits of UN authority over powerful states. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Suez, West New Guinea and transitions show success under cooperation; Hungary, Somalia, Bosnia and Iraq show dependence on great-power agreement and adequate mandates.

ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS

Question: The UN's greatest strengths lie outside the battlefield. Discuss. Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Rights, health, labour, food, education, children and refugees generate broad effects without requiring the coercive consensus peace enforcement demands.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.
- WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency.

Qualified conclusion: Rights, health, labour, food, education, children and refugees generate broad effects without requiring the coercive consensus peace enforcement demands.

Demand decoding: The directive discuss requires a direct position on "The UN's greatest strengths lie outside the battlefield. Discuss. Answer in about 250 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “The UN’s greatest strengths lie outside the battlefield. Discuss. Answer in about 250 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Rights, health, labour, food, education, children and refugees generate broad effects without requiring the coercive consensus peace enforcement demands.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Rights, health, labour, food, education, children and refugees generate broad effects without requiring the coercive consensus peace enforcement demands.

ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS

Question: Why is the UN simultaneously more successful and more constrained than the League? Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: Keeping the great powers inside made universal action possible but required the veto price that blocks action against them.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five.
- The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army.
- Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit.
- The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army.
- The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Qualified conclusion: Keeping the great powers inside made universal action possible but required the veto price that blocks action against them.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Why is the UN simultaneously more successful and more constrained than the League? Answer in...”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Why is the UN simultaneously more successful and more constrained than the League? Answer in...”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Keeping the great powers inside made universal action possible but required the veto price that blocks action against them.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The UN widened membership, human-rights commitment and social work while retaining dependence on great-power cooperation and lacking a permanent army. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Soviet force and veto politics made the UN ineffective during the Hungarian rising, illustrating the great-power collision limit. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The Security Council authorised force by a member-state coalition in 1991; this was collective enforcement, not a UN-commanded standing army. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Keeping the great powers inside made universal action possible but required the veto price that blocks action against them.

ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS

Question: Examine the historical case for reform of global governance. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: A Security Council reflecting 1945 authority coexists with a General Assembly transformed by decolonisation, while institutional effectiveness varies by function and power alignment.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies.
- The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five.
- Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance.
- WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency.

- The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership.

Qualified conclusion: A Security Council reflecting 1945 authority coexists with a General Assembly transformed by decolonisation, while institutional effectiveness varies by function and power alignment.

Demand decoding: The directive examine requires a direct position on “Examine the historical case for reform of global governance. Answer in about 300 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Examine the historical case for reform of global governance. Answer in about 300 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: A Security Council reflecting 1945 authority coexists with a General Assembly transformed by decolonisation, while institutional effectiveness varies by function and power alignment.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The General Assembly, Security Council, ECOSOC, Trusteeship Council, International Court of Justice and Secretariat are the six principal bodies. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The Security Council has fifteen members, including five permanent and ten non-permanent members, with veto power held by the permanent five. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Human rights, ILO labour standards, WHO health work, FAO food support, UNESCO education, UNICEF and refugee relief form a major part of UN performance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: WHO, FAO and UNESCO are specialised agencies; UNICEF is a fund, UNRWA a General Assembly-created body, and the WTO is not a UN specialised agency. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The UN is strongest as forum, norm-setter and humanitarian coordinator and weakest when enforcement collides with veto-bearing power; its 1945 authority structure sits inside a decolonised membership. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: A Security Council reflecting 1945 authority coexists with a General Assembly transformed by decolonisation, while institutional effectiveness varies by function and power alignment.