- Analytical proposition CAUTION: Cinema is simultaneously an art form, an industry, an archive of social memory and a mass medium.

LEGACY / NUANCE
- A strong answer therefore combines form with institutions and avoids treating box-office success as the measure of cultural importance.
- Analytical matrix | Dimension | Question | | --- | --- | | Form | How do camera, editing, sound and performance create meaning? |
- Representation | Whose language, region, gender, caste, tribe or borderland experience becomes visible?
- Political economy | Who finances, distributes and controls access to screens/platforms?

OPTIONAL STATUS — This optional depth is unnecessary for a competent core answer; use it only for added nuance after the complete core has been written.
