INSTRUCTIONS

1. Write two essays, choosing one topic from Section A and one from Section B.
2. Each essay carries 125 marks. Credit is given for orderly, concise and effective expression.
3. The question paper contains no prescribed or official viewpoint.

SECTION A

1. A nation is secure when its citizens trust both borders and institutions.
2. Urbanisation will be India's opportunity only if cities become governable.
3. Strategic autonomy is sustained by domestic capability.
4. Public health is built before a patient reaches a hospital.

SECTION B

5. Equality sometimes requires treating unequal circumstances differently.
6. Markets discover prices; societies must still decide values.
7. A rule gains legitimacy when those bound by it can understand and challenge it.
8. Education should prepare citizens to revise answers, not merely remember them.
