OVERSIGHT/CLAIMS THROUGH ARTS 335 AND 338–340.

REDISTRIBUTIVE OUTCOMES, HOWEVER, ALSO DEPEND ON ARTS 15–16, LEGISLATION

THIS EXPLAINS WHY LIST STATUS DOES NOT ITSELF DETERMINE

FEDERAL DIFFERENTIATION SC/ST LIST ALTERATION REMAINS PARLIAMENTARY UNDER ARTS

OPTIONAL DOCTRINE / CASE

- recognition through Arts 341, 342 and 342A;
- representation through Arts 330–334A; and
- oversight/claims through Arts 335 and 338–340.
- This file adds analytical depth without replacing specialist commission, reservation-doctrine or Scheduled-Area owners.

ADVANCED LIMIT

- Redistributive outcomes, however, also depend on Arts 15–16, legislation, budget, delimitation, service rules and welfare programmes.
- This explains why list status does not itself determine the kind or quantum of benefit.
- Federal differentiation SC/ST list alteration remains parliamentary under Arts 341–342.
- SEBC architecture is expressly dual after the 105th Amendment: a Central List for Central purposes and State/UT lists for their purposes.

COMPARATIVE NUANCE

- Federal differentiation may improve local responsiveness but demands transparent criteria and reliable data.
- Sub-classification after Davinder Singh (2024) The constitutional issue is distribution within a notified class, not list alteration.
- Duration and democratic renewal Repeated Article 334 extensions show that political reservation is constitutionally time-framed but periodically renewed
- through amendment.

OPTIONAL STATUS — This optional depth is unnecessary for a competent core answer; use it only for added nuance after the complete core has been written.
