

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 1/12: Unfinished revolution after 1905

DEFEAT BY JAPAN -> unrest and October Manifesto

DUMA -> promised but first two dissolved

LAND -> Stolypin reforms reach too few

RESULT -> regime survives without solving legitimacy

MUST REMEMBER: The 1905 crisis, February and October 1917 revolutions, Civil War, War Communism, NEP, Lenin's death and Stalin's consolidation form a process rather than one inevitable Bolshevik event.

MUST REMEMBER: The 1905 crisis, February and October 1917 revolutions, Civil War, War Communism, NEP, Lenin's death and Stalin's consolidation form a process rather than one inevitable Bolshevik event.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 2/12: War-to-collapse chain

OLD WEAKNESS -> autocracy, land and labour conflict

WORLD WAR -> defeat, shortage and transport failure

PETROGRAD -> riots, strikes and mutiny

2 MARCH 1917 -> Nicholas II abdicates

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 3/12: Dual-power mechanism

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT -> formal state office

PETROGRAD SOVIET -> soldier and worker loyalty

WAR/LAND -> government delays decisions

RESULT -> authority exists in two incompatible centres

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 4/12: February versus October

FEBRUARY -> broad uprising and tsarist collapse

OCTOBER -> prepared Bolshevik seizure

FEBRUARY -> Nicholas abdicates

OCTOBER -> ministers arrested, party takes power

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 5/12: Provisional Government failure

WAR CONTINUES -> popular support falls

LAND/ELECTIONS DELAYED -> rural and democratic trust falls

SHORTAGES -> economic legitimacy collapses

KORNILOV -> Bolsheviks gain organisational prestige

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 6/12: Bolshevik consolidation toolkit

DECREE -> land and worker measures

EXIT WAR -> Brest-Litovsk, March 1918

COERCION -> Assembly dispersed, Cheka and Red Terror

SURVIVAL -> Civil War victory then NEP

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 7/12: Why the Reds won

LEADERSHIP -> Lenin and Trotsky firmer

GEOGRAPHY -> central Russian core controlled

OPPONENT -> Whites divided in aim

INTERVENTION -> Reds claim defence of Russia

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 8/12: NEP boundary

MARKET RETURNS -> peasant surplus and small trade

STATE RETAINS -> heavy industry, banks and transport

POLITICS -> communist monopoly continues

VERDICT -> economic retreat without political retreat

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 9/12: Stalin's rise ladder

GENERAL SECRETARY -> organisational network

RIVALS -> underestimate Stalin

SHIFTING ALLIANCES -> Trotsky isolated first

END -> Kamenev, Zinoviev and Bukharin removed

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 10/12: Industrialisation and collectivisation

FIVE YEAR PLANS -> heavy output rises

CONSUMPTION -> scarcity and discipline persist

COLLECTIVISATION -> grain control increases

RURAL COST -> resistance, livestock loss and famine

CLOSE DISTINCTION: February overthrew tsarism and created dual power; October transferred power to the Bolsheviks, while decrees, coercion and Civil War changed the revolutionary coalition and state.

CLOSE DISTINCTION: February overthrew tsarism and created dual power; October transferred power to the Bolsheviks, while decrees, coercion and Civil War changed the revolutionary coalition and state.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 11/12: Constitution and terror

1936 CONSTITUTION -> democratic appearance

ONE PARTY -> no real electoral competition

PURGES -> Stalin becomes unchallengeable

CAPABILITY COST -> officers and officials removed

EVIDENCE LIMIT: Industrialisation and state capacity must be assessed alongside collectivisation, famine, purges, nationality policy and the evidentiary limits of official output or constitutional claims.

EVIDENCE LIMIT: Industrialisation and state capacity must be assessed alongside collectivisation, famine, purges, nationality policy and the evidentiary limits of official output or constitutional claims.

ASCII MASTER FLOW – PANEL 12/12: Revolution-to-Stalin answer spine

COLLAPSE -> unresolved 1905 order plus war

SEIZURE -> dual power and organised October

CONSOLIDATION -> decree, coercion, Civil War and NEP

TRANSFORMATION -> industry, collectivisation and terror