E SUBORDINATE ENRICHMENT — ONLY AFTER THE COMPLETE CORE

EXTRA · OPTIONAL ADVANCED ENRICHMENT · 19. REPRESENTATION AS A FOURTH CENTRE-STATE DIMENSION - OPTIONAL · 20. EXECUTIVE FEDERALISM AND INSTITUTIONAL UNDER-USE - OPTIONAL · STATE INFLUENCE AT THE UNION DEPENDS NOT ONLY ON · THE 42ND, 84TH AND 87TH AMENDMENT SEQUENCE SEPARATED INTER-STATE · [CURRENT] THE 2026 DELIMITATION PACKAGE WAS DEFEATED; ITS PROPOSED · [ANALYSIS] REPRESENTATION AND DEVOLUTION ARE TWO CURRENCIES OF THE · [LIMIT] FULL REPRESENTATIONAL-FEDERALISM TREATMENT BELONGS TO POLITY 12 AND.

OPTIONAL DOCTRINE / CASE
- 19. Representation as a fourth Centre-State dimension - optional
- 20. Executive federalism and institutional under-use - optional
- State influence at the Union depends not only on Lists and transfers but on seats in Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha and the Presidential Electoral College.
- The 42nd, 84th and 87th Amendment sequence separated inter-State seat allocation freeze from permissible intra-State boundary readjustment.

ADVANCED LIMIT
- [CURRENT] The 2026 delimitation package was defeated; its proposed 850-seat figure is not law.
- [ANALYSIS] Representation and devolution are two currencies of the same grievance where population growth affects both political and fiscal weight.
- [LIMIT] Full representational-federalism treatment belongs to Polity 12 and Parliament; no seat projection or implementation date should be invented.
- Much Indian federal coordination occurs among Prime Minister, Chief Ministers, ministers and officials rather than through legislatures.

COMPARATIVE NUANCE
- Executive federalism can respond quickly but may weaken transparency and opposition participation.
- Zonal mechanisms often solve operational questions; the ISC should address national structural disputes.
- A stronger ISC secretariat, regular agenda cycle and response-to-recommendation duty would turn consultation into accountable process.
- Executive federalism and institutional under-use - optional - Much Indian federal coordination occurs

OPTIONAL STATUS — This optional depth is unnecessary for a competent core answer; use it only for added nuance after the complete core has been written.
