

SOLVED PRACTICE WORKBOOK

Parts of Speech - Qualifying English Solved Practice Workbook

UPSC complete learning session | Foundation to advanced | Concepts, evidence, practice and answer writing

LEARNING PATH

Deterministic fallback visual: move from precise concepts through argument and critique to exam application.

Source order: repository knowledge -> official current linkage -> clearly marked analysis. No fabricated PYQs or statistics.

CONTENTS / WORKBOOK INDEX

Major learning parts and meaningful subtopics are listed in document order. Page numbers are generated from the final PDF layout; PDF bookmarks mirror the same hierarchy.

Parts of Speech - Solved Practice Workbook 6

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION 6

Diagnostic set - Questions 1-16	6
Q1. Foundation rule - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q2. Foundation rule - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q3. Foundation rule - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q4. Foundation rule - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q5. Foundation rule - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q6. Foundation rule - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q7. Foundation rule - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q8. Foundation rule - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	6
Q9. Foundation rule - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q10. Foundation rule - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q11. Foundation rule - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q12. Foundation rule - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q13. Editing decision - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q14. Editing decision - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q15. Editing decision - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q16. Editing decision - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Graded set - Questions 17-32	7
Q17. Editing decision - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	7
Q18. Editing decision - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q19. Editing decision - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q20. Editing decision - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q21. Editing decision - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q22. Editing decision - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q23. Editing decision - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q24. Editing decision - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q25. Timed-paper choice - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8

Q26. Timed-paper choice - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	8
Q27. Timed-paper choice - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q28. Timed-paper choice - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q29. Timed-paper choice - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q30. Timed-paper choice - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q31. Timed-paper choice - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q32. Timed-paper choice - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Remedial and timed set - Questions 33-48	9
Q33. Timed-paper choice - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q34. Timed-paper choice - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q35. Timed-paper choice - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	9
Q36. Timed-paper choice - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q37. Hostile variation check - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q38. Hostile variation check - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q39. Hostile variation check - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q40. Hostile variation check - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q41. Hostile variation check - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q42. Hostile variation check - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q43. Hostile variation check - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q44. Hostile variation check - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	10
Q45. Hostile variation check - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q46. Hostile variation check - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q47. Hostile variation check - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q48. Hostile variation check - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE	11
Complete MCQ explanations	11
Q1. Foundation rule - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q2. Foundation rule - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q3. Foundation rule - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11

Q4. Foundation rule - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	11
Q5. Foundation rule - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q6. Foundation rule - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q7. Foundation rule - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q8. Foundation rule - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q9. Foundation rule - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q10. Foundation rule - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q11. Foundation rule - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	12
Q12. Foundation rule - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q13. Editing decision - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q14. Editing decision - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q15. Editing decision - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q16. Editing decision - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q17. Editing decision - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q18. Editing decision - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	13
Q19. Editing decision - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q20. Editing decision - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q21. Editing decision - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q22. Editing decision - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q23. Editing decision - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q24. Editing decision - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q25. Timed-paper choice - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	14
Q26. Timed-paper choice - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q27. Timed-paper choice - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q28. Timed-paper choice - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q29. Timed-paper choice - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q30. Timed-paper choice - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q31. Timed-paper choice - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q32. Timed-paper choice - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	15
Q33. Timed-paper choice - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q34. Timed-paper choice - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16

Q35. Timed-paper choice - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q36. Timed-paper choice - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q37. Hostile variation check - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q38. Hostile variation check - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q39. Hostile variation check - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	16
Q40. Hostile variation check - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q41. Hostile variation check - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q42. Hostile variation check - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q43. Hostile variation check - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q44. Hostile variation check - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q45. Hostile variation check - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q46. Hostile variation check - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	17
Q47. Hostile variation check - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	18
Q48. Hostile variation check - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?	18
Constructed-response practice and models	18
Transfer 1. Classify every underlined word in: "Those two careful officers spoke unusually calmly."	18
Transfer 2. Correct: "The equipments were delivered, but one furniture was damaged."	18
Transfer 3. Remove ambiguity: "When Anita spoke to Kavita, she was anxious."	18
Transfer 4. Give both standard readings of "The committee has/have reached a decision."	18
Transfer 5. Correct only if needed: "Every candidate should bring their admit card."	18
Transfer 6. Explain why "The accident was happened yesterday" fails. . . .	18
Transfer 7. Distinguish "work hard" from "hardly work."	18
Transfer 8. Timed edit: identify all functions in "After the meeting, the chair quickly recorded the final decision."	18
Official-paper demand ledger	19
Final audit	19

Parts of Speech - Solved Practice Workbook

Identity: qualifying-english-01: learner-v2:g1 | Approval: false

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION

Diagnostic set - Questions 1-16

Q1. Foundation rule - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Q2. Foundation rule - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Q3. Foundation rule - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Q4. Foundation rule - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Q5. Foundation rule - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Q6. Foundation rule - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Q7. Foundation rule - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Q8. Foundation rule - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Q9. Foundation rule - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Q10. Foundation rule - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Q11. Foundation rule - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Q12. Foundation rule - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Q13. Editing decision - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Q14. Editing decision - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Q15. Editing decision - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Q16. Editing decision - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Graded set - Questions 17-32

Q17. Editing decision - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Q18. Editing decision - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Q19. Editing decision - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Q20. Editing decision - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Q21. Editing decision - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Q22. Editing decision - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Q23. Editing decision - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Q24. Editing decision - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Q25. Timed-paper choice - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Q26. Timed-paper choice - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Q27. Timed-paper choice - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Q28. Timed-paper choice - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Q29. Timed-paper choice - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Q30. Timed-paper choice - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Q31. Timed-paper choice - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Q32. Timed-paper choice - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Remedial and timed set - Questions 33-48

Q33. Timed-paper choice - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Q34. Timed-paper choice - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Q35. Timed-paper choice - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Q36. Timed-paper choice - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Q37. Hostile variation check - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Q38. Hostile variation check - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Q39. Hostile variation check - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Q40. Hostile variation check - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Q41. Hostile variation check - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Q42. Hostile variation check - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Q43. Hostile variation check - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Q44. Hostile variation check - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Q45. Hostile variation check - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Q46. Hostile variation check - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Q47. Hostile variation check - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Q48. Hostile variation check - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE

Complete MCQ explanations

Q1. Foundation rule - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Correct answer: A. Record can be a noun or verb; early can be adjective or adverb.

Q2. Foundation rule - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Correct answer: B. Institutional and fixed expressions are separate article questions.

Q3. Foundation rule - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q4. Foundation rule - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q5. Foundation rule - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q6. Foundation rule - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Correct answer: B. British English permits plural notional agreement more freely.

Q7. Foundation rule - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q8. Foundation rule - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q9. Foundation rule - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q10. Foundation rule - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Correct answer: B. A plural recast or his or her may also be used.

Q11. Foundation rule - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q12. Foundation rule - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q13. Editing decision - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Correct answer: A. Record can be a noun or verb; early can be adjective or adverb.

Q14. Editing decision - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Correct answer: B. Institutional and fixed expressions are separate article questions.

Q15. Editing decision - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q16. Editing decision - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q17. Editing decision - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q18. Editing decision - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Correct answer: B. British English permits plural notional agreement more freely.

Q19. Editing decision - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q20. Editing decision - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q21. Editing decision - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q22. Editing decision - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Correct answer: B. A plural recast or his or her may also be used.

Q23. Editing decision - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q24. Editing decision - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q25. Timed-paper choice - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Correct answer: A. Record can be a noun or verb; early can be adjective or adverb.

Q26. Timed-paper choice - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Correct answer: B. Institutional and fixed expressions are separate article questions.

Q27. Timed-paper choice - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q28. Timed-paper choice - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q29. Timed-paper choice - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q30. Timed-paper choice - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Correct answer: B. British English permits plural notional agreement more freely.

Q31. Timed-paper choice - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q32. Timed-paper choice - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q33. Timed-paper choice - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q34. Timed-paper choice - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Correct answer: B. A plural recast or his or her may also be used.

Q35. Timed-paper choice - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q36. Timed-paper choice - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q37. Hostile variation check - word class: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Classify the word by its function in the sentence. B. Use its most common dictionary label regardless of context. C. Treat every -ly word as an adverb. D. Treat every word before a noun as an adjective.

Correct answer: A. Record can be a noun or verb; early can be adjective or adverb.

Q38. Hostile variation check - count nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. A singular count noun can always stand bare. B. A singular count noun normally needs a determiner. C. Every abstract noun must take the. D. Plural nouns always need an article.

Correct answer: B. Institutional and fixed expressions are separate article questions.

Q39. Hostile variation check - mass nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Add -s to every mass noun. B. Use many with all mass nouns. C. Use a measure phrase for a counted amount of advice, equipment or furniture. D. Treat news as plural because it ends in s.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q40. Hostile variation check - count shift: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every noun is permanently countable or uncountable. B. A count shift is always informal. C. Mass nouns can never take an article. D. Countability can change with meaning, as in paper/a paper.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q41. Hostile variation check - plural-only: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Police, cattle, trousers and scissors normally take plural agreement. B. All nouns ending in s are singular. C. A pair of scissors takes a plural verb. D. Police takes a singular verb in formal English.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q42. Hostile variation check - collective nouns: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Collective nouns are always plural. B. Agreement may reflect the group as a unit or its members, but pronouns must remain consistent. C. Collective nouns are always singular in every standard variety. D. A singular verb may be followed by an unrelated plural pronoun.

Correct answer: B. British English permits plural notional agreement more freely.

Q43. Hostile variation check - pronoun case: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Use I after every occurrence of and. B. Use myself as a polite substitute for me. C. Use object case after a verb or preposition: between you and me. D. Use whom as the subject of a finite verb.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q44. Hostile variation check - pronoun reference: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Choose the nearest noun even when illogical. B. Ambiguity is harmless in formal prose. C. Repeat he until the reader guesses the referent. D. Rewrite a pronoun if two plausible antecedents remain.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q45. Hostile variation check - relative clauses: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Restrictive clauses identify; non-restrictive clauses add removable information. B. All relative clauses take commas. C. That is preferred in every non-restrictive clause. D. Punctuation never changes relative-clause meaning.

Correct answer: A. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q46. Hostile variation check - singular they: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Singular they is always an agreement error. B. Clear singular they is accepted modern formal English. C. His is the only correct generic pronoun. D. Their must always refer to a plural noun.

Correct answer: B. A plural recast or his or her may also be used.

Q47. Hostile variation check - comparison: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. More wiser is emphatic formal English. B. Senior is followed by than in standard usage. C. Compare like with like and avoid double comparatives. D. Less is required before every plural count noun.

Correct answer: C. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Q48. Hostile variation check - transitivity: Which statement is safest and most accurate for formal examination English?

A. Every verb can be made passive. B. Happen takes a direct object. C. Arrive forms a normal personal passive. D. Only an object-taking use normally supplies an object for passive voice.

Correct answer: D. The correct option states the governing rule without changing meaning or inventing an absolute.

Constructed-response practice and models

Transfer 1. Classify every underlined word in: "Those two careful officers spoke unusually calmly."

Model answer: Those-determiner; two-determiner/numeral; careful-adjective; officers-noun; spoke-verb; unusually-adverb; calmly-adverb.

Transfer 2. Correct: "The equipments were delivered, but one furniture was damaged."

Model answer: The equipment was delivered, but one piece of furniture was damaged.

Transfer 3. Remove ambiguity: "When Anita spoke to Kavita, she was anxious."

Model answer: State the intended referent, e.g. "Anita was anxious when she spoke to Kavita."

Transfer 4. Give both standard readings of "The committee has/have reached a decision."

Model answer: Singular presents the committee as one unit; plural presents members acting individually in British-style usage.

Transfer 5. Correct only if needed: "Every candidate should bring their admit card."

Model answer: No correction is required; singular their is accepted modern formal English. A plural recast is also safe.

Transfer 6. Explain why "The accident was happened yesterday" fails.

Model answer: Happen is intransitive in this use and has no object to promote into a passive subject.

Transfer 7. Distinguish "work hard" from "hardly work."

Model answer: Hard means with effort; hardly means scarcely.

Transfer 8. Timed edit: identify all functions in "After the meeting, the chair quickly recorded the final decision."

Model answer: After-preposition; meeting-noun; chair-noun; quickly-adverb; recorded-verb; final-adjective; decision-noun.

Official-paper demand ledger

Year	Local official paper	Demand routed to this topic	Provenance status
2018	books\more_previous_papers\ENGLISH-COMP_00.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2019	books\more_previous_papers\QP-CSM19-EnglishCompulsory.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2020	books\more_previous_papers\ENGLISH (1).pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2021	books\more_previous_papers\English.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2022	books\more_previous_papers\QP-CSM-22-ENGLISH-Comp1-280922.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2023	books\more_previous_papers\QP-CSM-23-ENGLISH-COMPULSORY-290923.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required
2025	books\more_previous_papers\ENGLISH-COMPULSORY-QP-CSM-25-010925.pdf	usage/vocabulary and sentence-level language control	locally extracted and visually reconciled where required

Final audit

- Every MCQ has four distinct options and the key rotates A -> B -> C -> D.
- Accepted variants are identified rather than silently rejected.
- Comprehension responses must remain text-supported.
- Precis responses must preserve idea units, proportion, fidelity and exact title instructions.
- Essay responses must sustain a qualified thesis and avoid invented evidence.