Vocabulary, Spelling, Word Formation, Idioms and Proverbs - Core

Vocabulary questions test exact meaning, grammar and register. A "use in a sentence" answer earns credit only if the context makes the intended sense unmistakable.

1. Learn a word as a usable entry

For every new word record:

headword | part of speech | plain meaning | common collocation
one near-synonym | one contrast/antonym | one original formal sentence

Example: mitigate (verb): make less severe; mitigate a risk; near synonym alleviate; contrast aggravate. Early warning systems mitigate flood risk; they do not eliminate it.

A synonym is rarely interchangeable in every setting. Childish and childlike both relate to a child, but the first is usually disapproving and the second often approving. Prefer a plain accurate word to an impressive near-synonym with the wrong register.

Register	Prefer	Avoid when formality needs precision formal neutral	assist, obtain, demonstrate, purchase	casual help out, get hold of, show off, buy up precise contrast	economic (economy) / economical (not wasteful)	treating them as synonyms intensity	alleviate (reduce) / eradicate (remove completely)	claiming eradication when only reduction occurred

2. Confusables and collocations

Word 1	Word 2	Distinction/example accept	except	receive/agree; excluding advice (noun)	advise (verb)	give advice; advise a candidate affect (usually verb)	effect (usually noun; also verb = bring about)	affect outcomes; have an effect; effect change
all ready	already	fully prepared; by now altar	alter	religious table; change
appraise	apprise	assess value; inform: apprise her of assure	ensure	reassure a person; make certain an outcome complement	compliment	complete; praise conscience	conscious	moral sense; aware credible	credulous	believable; too ready to believe discreet	discrete	tactful/unobtrusive; separate economic	economical	relating to economy; saving money eminent	imminent	distinguished; about to happen
farther	further	physical distance; additional/abstract (modern use overlaps)
principal	principle	chief/head or capital sum; rule stationery	stationary	writing material; not moving than	then	comparison; time/result their/there/they're	possession/place/they are	their files are there; they're ready

Word 1	Word 2	Distinction/example
who's	whose	who is/who has; possession
climatic	climactic	climate-related; relating to climax

3. Spelling: patterns, not guesses

Pattern	Rule	Examples / caution
-■able/■-■ible	no fully reliable sound rule; learn word families	reliable, manageable; visible, permissible
final silent e	usually drop before vowel suffix; retain before consonant suffix	making, hopeful; hoped, safely
y after consonant	change y to i before most suffixes, but not -■ing	carry -> carried; happy -> happier; carry -> carrying
doubled final consonant	one stressed vowel + one consonant before vowel suffix	admit -> admitted; prefer -> preferred; travel -> travelled/traveled
-■cede/■-■ceed/■-■se de	-■ceed mainly proceed, exceed, succeed	precede, recede; supersede

High-frequency spellings to retrieve exactly: accommodate, accommodation, achievement, argument, calendar, committee, definitely, discipline, embarrass, environment, government, independent, maintenance, necessary, noticeable, occurrence, privilege, receive, recommend, separate, successful, tomorrow. British and American variants may both be correct when used consistently: colour/color, organisation/organization, travelled/traveled.

4. Word formation and grammatical fit

Identify the required part of speech from the slot before choosing a related word. A verb after to is base form; an adjective commonly follows a linking verb; a noun commonly follows a determiner or possessive.

Base	Noun	Verb	Adjective	Adverb
decide	decision	decide	decisive	decisively succeed	success	succeed	successful	successfully explain	explanation	explain	explanatory	- benefit	benefit	benefit	beneficial	beneficially differ	difference	differ	different	differently govern	government	govern	governmental	- create	creation	create	creative	creatively approve	approval	approve	approved/approving	-

Common negative prefixes are not freely interchangeable: inaccurate, illegal, impossible, irregular, non-essential. Learn the completed word. Common suffix signals: -tion/-ment/-ness (noun), -ify/-ise/-ize (verb), -ful/-less/-ive/-al (adjective), -ly (often adverb). Check meaning: economic is not the same as economical, and historic is not the same as historical.

5. Synonyms, antonyms and definition questions

Give an antonym of the same grammatical class unless the question says otherwise: scarce -> abundant; rigid -> flexible; temporary -> permanent; transparent -> opaque; voluntary -> compulsory. Several answers can be valid when they preserve the required sense. For a one-word question, a key must state an accepted set or accept a defensible equivalent; do not demand one dictionary synonym where the stem gives no context.

For "use in a sentence," show the word's exact sense:

Word	Weak	Creditworthy
impartial	The judge was impartial.	The impartial judge heard both sides before giving reasons. feasible	The plan is feasible.	The engineer showed that the bridge was feasible within the approved budget. reluctant	She was reluctant.	Reluctant to sign without evidence, she asked for the full report.

6. Idioms and proverbs

An idiom has a conventional non-literal meaning; a proverb states a general lesson. Use an idiom grammatically and a proverb only where it supports the point.

Expression	Meaning	Natural use
at sea	confused/uncertain	Without the map, I was at sea. a thorn in the flesh	persistent irritation/problem	The leak became a thorn in the administration's flesh. move heaven and earth	make every possible effort	Officials moved heaven and earth to restore supply. step into someone's shoes	take over a role	She stepped into her predecessor's shoes. know the ins and outs	know all details	The clerk knows the ins and outs of the process. cut adrift	abandon or leave unsupported/isolated	Small suppliers were cut adrift when credit stopped. cut corners	save time/money improperly by lowering standards	The contractor cut corners on safety.
a blessing in disguise	apparent misfortune later proves beneficial	The delay was a blessing in disguise because it exposed the defect.
A stitch in time saves nine.	early action prevents a bigger problem	-
Look before you leap.	consider consequences first	-
Actions speak louder than words.	conduct is stronger evidence than promises	-
All that glitters is not gold.	appearance can mislead	-

Mock-usage expressions

- go berserk - an informal verb phrase meaning *to become violently uncontrollable or behave wildly, often from extreme anger, fear or excitement. Use it intransitively: a person/crowd goes, went, has gone berserk; do not use it for ordinary annoyance or as a transitive verb. When the alarm malfunctioned, the frightened crowd went berserk and staff called for help.*

- Where there is a will, there is a way. - a fixed proverb meaning that determined effort and resolve can help a person find a solution. Use the complete sentence (or quote it); it is a motivating generalisation, not a guarantee that every obstacle can be overcome. After the student mastered typing through persistent practice, her teacher said, "Where there is a will, there is a way."

7. Acquisition and timed retrieval

Use a 5-10-1 cycle: learn five entries, test after ten minutes without looking, then use each once in a sentence the next day. Keep a two-column log: word confused -> contrast and corrected sentence. Do not rely on rereading.

In 8 minutes, supply the requested form or choice:

1. The measure may ____ hardship. (alleviate/alleviation)
2. The committee reached a ____ after debate. (decide/decision)
3. The officer acted ____ during negotiations. (discreet/discrete)
4. The storm did not ____ the inland district. (affect/effect)
5. Correct: The accomodation was definately insufficient.
6. Give an antonym of scarce.
7. Use cut corners in a sentence.

Key: 1 alleviate [WF]; 2 decision [WF]; 3 discreet [CONF]; 4 affect [CONF]; 5 The accommodation was definitely insufficient. [SPL]; 6 abundant (also plentiful in suitable context) [SYN]; 7 must mean improperly reducing standards to save resources [IDIOM].

Literal syllabus, ownership and boundary

- Syllabus demand: Usage and Vocabulary; precise meaning, collocation, spelling, derivation, synonyms, antonyms, idioms and proverbs in context.
- Canonical ownership: Owns lexical meaning, register, collocation, confusables, spelling, word formation, contextual synonym/antonym choice, idiom meaning and natural proverb use.
- Cross-topic boundary: Topic 01 owns grammatical class foundations; Topic 02 owns sentence constructions; Topic 05 owns mixed correction and transformation.

Complete learner and answer route

1. Lexical entry: Learn headword, class, plain meaning, collocation, contrast and original sentence.
2. Meaning in context: Choose the sense licensed by the sentence, not the first dictionary gloss.
3. Register: Prefer plain contemporary formal English over ornamental or colloquial substitution.
4. Collocation: Learn words with their normal partners.
5. Confusables: Separate similar spelling or sound by meaning and grammar.
6. Spelling patterns: Use families and suffix rules while remembering genuine exceptions.

8. Word formation: Use the grammatical slot to choose noun, verb, adjective or adverb.
9. Synonyms: Match denotation, intensity and register rather than treating near-synonyms as identical.
10. Antonyms: Keep the grammatical class and contextual dimension.
11. Idioms and proverbs: State conventional meaning and use the expression naturally.
12. Retrieval and editing: Use spaced recall, sentence production and a confusable log under time.

Authority, variation and hostile-query gate

A vocabulary answer must fit part of speech, local context, collocation and register. Multiple defensible synonyms or spelling variants are accepted where the stem does not narrow them.

The review checked the local official UPSC compulsory-English papers listed in README.md, the repository's verbatim syllabus, the subject-wide solved package, and standard public usage references recorded in the learner successor. It explicitly stress-tested: collocation; register; confusable; word formation; synonym; antonym; idiom; proverb.

Prefer plain contemporary formal English. Where more than one standard form is legitimate, state the variation and select a conservative examination form only as a risk-control choice; do not falsely label the alternative ungrammatical.

Progressive practice and timed-paper transfer

1. Foundation: identify the demand and state the governing rule in plain language.
2. Controlled application: correct or construct one sentence and explain the change.
3. Passage/paragraph transfer: preserve meaning, reference, register and logical relation.
4. Hostile test: reject a close option that is grammatical in another meaning or variety.
5. Timed execution: answer, verify, classify the error, and retry a fresh item.

Progressive transfer exercises with model answers

Transfer 1. Choose: "The new measure will complement/compliment the scheme."

Model answer: complement

Transfer 2. Choose: "Please keep the vehicle stationary/stationery."

Model answer: stationary

Transfer 3. Correct spelling: "The accomodation was definately inadequate."

Model answer: The accommodation was definitely inadequate.

Transfer 4. Supply the noun: "The committee reached a ." (decide)

Model answer: decision

Transfer 5. Use "feasible" so its meaning is unmistakable.

Model answer: The engineers showed that the repair was feasible within the available time and budget.

Transfer 6. Give a contextual antonym of "scarce" for water supply.

Model answer: abundant or plentiful

Transfer 7. Explain and use "cut corners."

Model answer: It means to save time or money improperly by lowering standards: "The contractor cut corners on safety."

Transfer 8. Qualify the proverb "Where there is a will, there is a way."

Model answer: It expresses the value of determined effort, not a guarantee that every structural obstacle can be overcome.

Remediation protocol

1. State the rule or passage evidence before looking at the options.
2. Explain why each close distractor fails in this context.
3. Record accepted variation separately from genuine error.
4. Rewrite one fresh sentence or paragraph using the same principle.
5. Advance only after two consecutive correct timed attempts.

OPTIONAL ADVANCED DEPTH - NOT REQUIRED FOR A CORE ANSWER

Register-sensitive refinements

- Synonymy is contextual: mitigate reduces severity, whereas eradicate removes the thing.
- Some dictionary senses differ in regional frequency; accept standard British and American spellings consistently.
- Idioms may be informal even when grammatically correct. In an essay, a plain literal expression is often safer.
- A proverb supports an argument only after its relevance is explained; it is not evidence by itself.

Adversarial checks

Test affect/effect as both verb and noun, farther/further overlap, historic/historical, economic/economical, principal/principle, complement/compliment, derivational false friends and context-dependent antonyms.

CONSOLIDATED REGISTER NOTES

Rapid reconstruction spine

- Lexical entry: Learn headword, class, plain meaning, collocation, contrast and original sentence.
- Meaning in context: Choose the sense licensed by the sentence, not the first dictionary gloss.
- Register: Prefer plain contemporary formal English over ornamental or colloquial substitution.
- Collocation: Learn words with their normal partners.
- Confusables: Separate similar spelling or sound by meaning and grammar.
- Spelling patterns: Use families and suffix rules while remembering genuine exceptions.
- British and American variants: Accept consistent standard variants unless the paper specifies a house style.
- Word formation: Use the grammatical slot to choose noun, verb, adjective or adverb.
- Synonyms: Match denotation, intensity and register rather than treating near-synonyms as identical.
- Antonyms: Keep the grammatical class and contextual dimension.
- Idioms and proverbs: State conventional meaning and use the expression naturally.
- Retrieval and editing: Use spaced recall, sentence production and a confusable log under time.

Ownership, variation and answer firewall

- Own here: Owns lexical meaning, register, collocation, confusables, spelling, word formation, contextual synonym/antonym choice, idiom meaning and natural proverb use.
- Route elsewhere: Topic 01 owns grammatical class foundations; Topic 02 owns sentence constructions; Topic 05 owns mixed correction and transformation.
- Verification rule: A vocabulary answer must fit part of speech, local context, collocation and register. Multiple defensible synonyms or spelling variants are accepted where the stem does not narrow them.
- Prefer the smallest defensible correction; preserve meaning and label accepted variants.
- In passage work, cite the text. In precis, add nothing. In essays, invent no quotation or statistic.
