

SOLVED PRACTICE WORKBOOK

Congress of Vienna and Concert of Europe - Solved Practice Workbook

UPSC complete learning session | Foundation to advanced | Concepts, evidence, practice and answer writing

Original deterministic study visual; labels are explanatory, not textual quotations.

Source order: repository knowledge -> official current linkage -> clearly marked analysis. No fabricated PYQs or statistics.

CONTENTS / WORKBOOK INDEX

Major learning parts and meaningful subtopics are listed in document order. Page numbers are generated from the final PDF layout; PDF bookmarks mirror the same hierarchy.

Congress of Vienna and Concert of Europe - Solved Practice Workbook 5

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION 5

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?	5
Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?	5
Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?	5
Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?	5
Q5. Which statement correctly identifies Final Act, June 1815?	6
Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under Final Act, June 1815?	6
Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Final Act, June 1815?	6
Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Final Act, June 1815?	6
Q9. Which statement correctly identifies Metternich?	6
Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under Metternich?	7
Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Metternich?	7
Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Metternich?	7
Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Legitimacy?	7
Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Legitimacy?	7
Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Legitimacy?	8
Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Legitimacy?	8
Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Balance of power?	8
Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Balance of power?	8
Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Balance of power?	9
Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Balance of power?	9
Q21. Which statement correctly identifies Compensation?	9
Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under Compensation?	9
Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Compensation?	9
Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Compensation?	10
Q25. Which statement correctly identifies Kingdom of the Netherlands?	10
Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under Kingdom of the Netherlands?	10
Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Kingdom of the Netherlands?	10

Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Kingdom of the Netherlands?	10
Q29. Which statement correctly identifies German Confederation, 39 states?	11
Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under German Confederation, 39 states?	11
Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of German Confederation, 39 states?	11
Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about German Confederation, 39 states?	11
Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Italy under Austrian influence?	12
Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Italy under Austrian influence?	12
Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italy under Austrian influence?	12
Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italy under Austrian influence?	12
Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Poland and Russia?	13
Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Poland and Russia?	13
Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Poland and Russia?	13
Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Poland and Russia?	13
Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Prussian and Swiss settlement?	14
Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Prussian and Swiss settlement?	14
Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Prussian and Swiss settlement?	14
Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Prussian and Swiss settlement?	14
Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Concert of Europe?	14
Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Concert of Europe?	15
Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Concert of Europe?	15
Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Concert of Europe?	15
Q49. Which statement correctly identifies Holy Alliance, 1815?	15
Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under Holy Alliance, 1815?	16
Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Holy Alliance, 1815?	16
Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Holy Alliance, 1815?	16
Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?	16
Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?	17
Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?	17
Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?	17
Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?	17
Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?	17
Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?	18

Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?	18
Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?	18
Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?	18
Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?	19
Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?	19
Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Verona, 1822?	19
Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Verona, 1822?	19
Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Verona, 1822?	20
Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Verona, 1822?	20
Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Belgian independence, 1830?	20
Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Belgian independence, 1830?	20
Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Belgian independence, 1830?	20
Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Belgian independence, 1830?	21
Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Revolutions of 1848?	21
Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Revolutions of 1848?	21
Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Revolutions of 1848?	21
Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Revolutions of 1848?	21
Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Peace-versus-repression verdict?	22
Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Peace-versus-repression verdict?	22
Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Peace-versus-repression verdict?	22
Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Peace-versus-repression verdict?	22

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE 22

TRANSPARENT ZERO-DIRECT-PYQ AUDIT	23
ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS	23
ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS	24
ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS	25
ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS	26
ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS	28
ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS	29

Congress of Vienna and Concert of Europe - Solved Practice Workbook

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?

A. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q2. Which chronology card should be filed under Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?

A. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. B. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. C. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. D. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q3. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. C. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. D. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q4. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Congress of Vienna, 1814-15?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. C. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. D. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q5. Which statement correctly identifies Final Act, June 1815?

A. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. B. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. C. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q6. Which chronology card should be filed under Final Act, June 1815?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. C. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. D. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q7. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Final Act, June 1815?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. C. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. D. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q8. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Final Act, June 1815?

A. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. B. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. C. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. D. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q9. Which statement correctly identifies Metternich?

A. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. D. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.

Answer: A. Explanation: Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q10. Which chronology card should be filed under Metternich?

A. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. B. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. C. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. D. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.

Answer: B. Explanation: Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q11. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Metternich?

A. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. B. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. C. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. D. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.

Answer: C. Explanation: Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q12. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Metternich?

A. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. B. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. C. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: D. Explanation: Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q13. Which statement correctly identifies Legitimacy?

A. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. B. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. C. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. D. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.

Answer: A. Explanation: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q14. Which chronology card should be filed under Legitimacy?

A. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. D. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity.

Answer: B. Explanation: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q15. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Legitimacy?

A. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. B. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. C. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. D. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity.

Answer: C. Explanation: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q16. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Legitimacy?

A. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. D. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government.

Answer: D. Explanation: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q17. Which statement correctly identifies Balance of power?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. C. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. D. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.

Answer: A. Explanation: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q18. Which chronology card should be filed under Balance of power?

A. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. B. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. C. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. D. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830.

Answer: B. Explanation: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q19. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Balance of power?

A. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. B. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. C. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. D. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity.

Answer: C. Explanation: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q20. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Balance of power?

A. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.

Answer: D. Explanation: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q21. Which statement correctly identifies Compensation?

A. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. B. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. C. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. D. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.

Answer: A. Explanation: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q22. Which chronology card should be filed under Compensation?

A. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. B. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. C. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. D. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.

Answer: B. Explanation: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q23. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Compensation?

A. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. D. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition.

Answer: C. Explanation: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q24. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Compensation?

A. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. D. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.

Answer: D. Explanation: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q25. Which statement correctly identifies Kingdom of the Netherlands?

A. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. B. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. C. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. D. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.

Answer: A. Explanation: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q26. Which chronology card should be filed under Kingdom of the Netherlands?

A. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. B. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.

Answer: B. Explanation: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q27. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Kingdom of the Netherlands?

A. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. D. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining.

Answer: C. Explanation: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q28. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Kingdom of the Netherlands?

A. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830.

Answer: D. Explanation: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q29. Which statement correctly identifies German Confederation, 39 states?

A. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. D. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition.

Answer: A. Explanation: Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q30. Which chronology card should be filed under German Confederation, 39 states?

A. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. B. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.

Answer: B. Explanation: Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q31. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of German Confederation, 39 states?

A. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. B. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. C. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. D. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.

Answer: C. Explanation: Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q32. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about German Confederation, 39 states?

A. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. B. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity.

Answer: D. Explanation: Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q33. Which statement correctly identifies Italy under Austrian influence?

A. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining.

Answer: A. Explanation: Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q34. Which chronology card should be filed under Italy under Austrian influence?

A. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. B. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.

Answer: B. Explanation: Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q35. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Italy under Austrian influence?

A. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. B. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. C. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. D. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.

Answer: C. Explanation: Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q36. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Italy under Austrian influence?

A. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. B. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.

Answer: D. Explanation: Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q37. Which statement correctly identifies Poland and Russia?

A. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition.

Answer: A. Explanation: Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q38. Which chronology card should be filed under Poland and Russia?

A. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. B. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded.

Answer: B. Explanation: Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q39. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Poland and Russia?

A. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. B. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. C. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: C. Explanation: Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q40. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Poland and Russia?

A. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. B. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining.

Answer: D. Explanation: Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q41. Which statement correctly identifies Prussian and Swiss settlement?

A. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded.

Answer: A. Explanation: Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q42. Which chronology card should be filed under Prussian and Swiss settlement?

A. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. B. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: B. Explanation: Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q43. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Prussian and Swiss settlement?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. C. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: C. Explanation: Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q44. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Prussian and Swiss settlement?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition.

Answer: D. Explanation: Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q45. Which statement correctly identifies Concert of Europe?

A. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. B. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q46. Which chronology card should be filed under Concert of Europe?

A. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. B. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. C. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q47. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Concert of Europe?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. C. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. D. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q48. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Concert of Europe?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. C. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. D. The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q49. Which statement correctly identifies Holy Alliance, 1815?

A. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. B. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q50. Which chronology card should be filed under Holy Alliance, 1815?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q51. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Holy Alliance, 1815?

A. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. B. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. C. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. D. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q52. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Holy Alliance, 1815?

A. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. B. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q53. Which statement correctly identifies Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?

A. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. B. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression.

Answer: A. Explanation: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q54. Which chronology card should be filed under Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?

A. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. B. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. C. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. D. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.

Answer: B. Explanation: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q55. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?

A. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. B. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. C. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. D. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.

Answer: C. Explanation: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q56. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Aix-la-Chapelle, 1818?

A. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. B. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded.

Answer: D. Explanation: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q57. Which statement correctly identifies Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?

A. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. B. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q58. Which chronology card should be filed under Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?

A. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. B. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. C. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. D. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q59. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?

A. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. B. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. C. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. D. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q60. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Carlsbad Decrees, 1819?

A. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. B. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q61. Which statement correctly identifies Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?

A. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. B. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q62. Which chronology card should be filed under Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?

A. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. B. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q63. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?

A. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. B. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. C. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. D. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q64. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Troppau and Laibach, 1820-21?

A. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. B. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. C. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. D. The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q65. Which statement correctly identifies Verona, 1822?

A. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. B. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q66. Which chronology card should be filed under Verona, 1822?

A. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. B. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. C. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. D. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q67. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Verona, 1822?

A. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. B. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. C. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. D. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q68. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Verona, 1822?

A. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. B. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. C. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. D. The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q69. Which statement correctly identifies Belgian independence, 1830?

A. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. B. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. C. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. D. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium.

Answer: A. Explanation: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q70. Which chronology card should be filed under Belgian independence, 1830?

A. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. B. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. C. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. D. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement.

Answer: B. Explanation: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q71. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Belgian independence, 1830?

A. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. B. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. C. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: C. Explanation: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q72. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Belgian independence, 1830?

A. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. B. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. C. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. D. The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

Answer: D. Explanation: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q73. Which statement correctly identifies Revolutions of 1848?

A. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. B. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. C. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. D. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium.

Answer: A. Explanation: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q74. Which chronology card should be filed under Revolutions of 1848?

A. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. B. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. C. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. D. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement.

Answer: B. Explanation: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q75. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Revolutions of 1848?

A. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: C. Explanation: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q76. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Revolutions of 1848?

A. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. B. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. C. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. D. The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.

Answer: D. Explanation: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q77. Which statement correctly identifies Peace-versus-repression verdict?

A. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. B. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. C. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. D. The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium.

Answer: A. Explanation: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q78. Which chronology card should be filed under Peace-versus-repression verdict?

A. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe. B. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. C. The Final Act signed in June 1815 formalised the territorial and diplomatic settlement. D. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government.

Answer: B. Explanation: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q79. Which option preserves the source-bounded meaning of Peace-versus-repression verdict?

A. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. D. Austrian statesman Metternich was the dominant figure at Vienna, especially in the conservative ordering of Central Europe.

Answer: C. Explanation: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

Q80. Which statement avoids a close-option trap about Peace-versus-repression verdict?

A. Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. B. The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. C. Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. D. Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Answer: D. Explanation: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. The remaining options belong to different chronology, actor or analytical categories.

PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE

TRANSPARENT ZERO-DIRECT-PYQ AUDIT

No direct UPSC PYQ is verified as owned solely by this topic in the local 2018-2025 routing blocks. Probable questions in the owners remain labelled as practice rather than converted into PYQs.

ORIGINAL MAINS 1 - 10 MARKS

Question: Explain the principles of legitimacy, balance of power and compensation at Vienna. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: The principles restored dynasties, contained France through buffers and redistributed territory among victors, producing order without popular consent.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government.
- Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.
- Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.
- Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830.

Qualified conclusion: The principles restored dynasties, contained France through buffers and redistributed territory among victors, producing order without popular consent.

Demand decoding: The directive explain requires a direct position on “Explain the principles of legitimacy, balance of power and compensation at Vienna. Answer in...”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Explain the principles of legitimacy, balance of power and compensation at Vienna. Answer in...”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: The principles restored dynasties, contained France through buffers and redistributed territory among victors, producing order without popular consent.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

3. Claim and named evidence: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: The principles restored dynasties, contained France through buffers and redistributed territory among victors, producing order without popular consent.

ORIGINAL MAINS 2 - 10 MARKS

Question: Distinguish the Concert of Europe from the Holy Alliance. Answer in about 150 words.

Model thesis: The Concert was the broader practical habit of great-power consultation; the Holy Alliance was a narrower symbolic conservative compact among Russia, Austria and Prussia.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.
- The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert.
- At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded.

Qualified conclusion: The Concert was the broader practical habit of great-power consultation; the Holy Alliance was a narrower symbolic conservative compact among Russia, Austria and Prussia.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Distinguish the Concert of Europe from the Holy Alliance. Answer in about 150 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 10-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise three named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Distinguish the Concert of Europe from the Holy Alliance. Answer in about 150 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: The Concert was the broader practical habit of great-power consultation; the Holy Alliance was a narrower symbolic conservative compact among Russia, Austria and Prussia.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

2. Claim and named evidence: The Holy Alliance of Russia, Austria and Prussia supplied symbolic conservative language but had limited practical importance compared with the wider Concert. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: The Concert was the broader practical habit of great-power consultation; the Holy Alliance was a narrower symbolic conservative compact among Russia, Austria and Prussia.

ORIGINAL MAINS 3 - 15 MARKS

Question: Was the Concert of Europe an instrument of peace or repression? Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: It was both: consultation moderated conflict among powers while Carlsbad and intervention congresses suppressed liberal and national movements within states.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance.
- The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.
- The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression.
- The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system.
- The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.
- Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Qualified conclusion: It was both: consultation moderated conflict among powers while Carlsbad and intervention congresses suppressed liberal and national movements within states.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on “Was the Concert of Europe an instrument of peace or repression? Answer in about 250 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Was the Concert of Europe an instrument of peace or repression? Answer in about 250 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: It was both: consultation moderated conflict among powers while Carlsbad and intervention congresses suppressed liberal and national movements within states.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Concert was a diplomatic habit of great-power consultation and periodic congresses, not a permanent treaty-state or the same institution as the Holy Alliance. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The Congress of Verona in 1822 approved French intervention in Spain and was the last major effective congress of the old system. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: It was both: consultation moderated conflict among powers while Carlsbad and intervention congresses suppressed liberal and national movements within states.

ORIGINAL MAINS 4 - 15 MARKS

Question: How did Vienna postpone rather than solve the national question? Answer in about 250 words.

Model thesis: Its German, Italian, Polish and Belgian arrangements subordinated nations to dynastic strategy, producing later revision in 1830, 1848 and the unifications.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830.
- Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity.
- Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification.
- Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining.
- The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.

- The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.

Qualified conclusion: Its German, Italian, Polish and Belgian arrangements subordinated nations to dynastic strategy, producing later revision in 1830, 1848 and the unifications.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "How did Vienna postpone rather than solve the national question? Answer in about 250 words.", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 15-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise five named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For "How did Vienna postpone rather than solve the national question? Answer in about 250 words.", replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Its German, Italian, Polish and Belgian arrangements subordinated nations to dynastic strategy, producing later revision in 1830, 1848 and the unifications.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: Belgium and Holland were joined in the Kingdom of the Netherlands as a northern buffer against France, an arrangement broken by Belgian independence in 1830. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: Vienna created a German Confederation of thirty-nine states under Austrian influence, postponing rather than solving German unity. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Austria received Lombardy and Venetia and influenced much of divided Italy, while Sardinia-Piedmont gained Genoa and later led unification. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Most of the Duchy of Warsaw passed under Russian control as Congress Poland, subordinating Polish national aspirations to great-power bargaining. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Its German, Italian, Polish and Belgian arrangements subordinated nations to dynastic strategy, producing later revision in 1830, 1848 and the unifications.

ORIGINAL MAINS 5 - 20 MARKS

Question: Assess the Congress of Vienna as a post-war settlement. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: Vienna wisely reintegrated France, built strategic equilibrium and established consultation, but compensation and legitimacy armed future unifiers and denied popular consent.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium.
- The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government.
- Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon.
- Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence.
- Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition.
- At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded.
- Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Qualified conclusion: Vienna wisely reintegrated France, built strategic equilibrium and established consultation, but compensation and legitimacy armed future unifiers and denied popular consent.

Demand decoding: The directive assess requires a direct position on “Assess the Congress of Vienna as a post-war settlement. Answer in about 300 words.”, every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Assess the Congress of Vienna as a post-war settlement. Answer in about 300 words.”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: Vienna wisely reintegrated France, built strategic equilibrium and established consultation, but compensation and legitimacy armed future unifiers and denied popular consent.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Congress of Vienna met in 1814-15 after Napoleon's defeat to reconstruct Europe through dynastic restoration and strategic equilibrium. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

2. Claim and named evidence: The principle of legitimacy restored dynasties, including the Bourbons in France, and treated inherited rule rather than national consent as the basis of valid government. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: Balance-of-power policy contained rather than destroyed France, built buffers and prevented another single continental hegemon. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: Compensation redistributed territory among victors, strengthening Prussia and Sardinia-Piedmont while enlarging Austrian and Russian influence. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: Prussia gained the Rhineland, Westphalia and part of Saxony, while Swiss neutrality received recognition. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
6. Claim and named evidence: At Aix-la-Chapelle in 1818 France was readmitted to great-power consultation, showing that the defeated power was reintegrated rather than permanently excluded. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
7. Claim and named evidence: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: Vienna wisely reintegrated France, built strategic equilibrium and established consultation, but compensation and legitimacy armed future unifiers and denied popular consent.

ORIGINAL MAINS 6 - 20 MARKS

Question: Why did the revolutions of 1848 challenge yet fail to destroy the Vienna order? Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: The order had accumulated national, liberal and social grievances, but revolutionary coalitions divided, national aims conflicted and dynastic armies retained coercive power.

Claim -> named evidence -> analysis -> qualification:

- The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states.
- The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression.
- The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration.
- The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them.
- Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit.

Qualified conclusion: The order had accumulated national, liberal and social grievances, but revolutionary coalitions divided, national aims conflicted and dynastic armies retained coercive power.

Demand decoding: The directive answer requires a direct position on "Why did the revolutions of 1848 challenge yet fail to destroy the Vienna order? Answer in...", every clause and time boundary, chronological-causal organisation, named evidence, a counter-position and a qualified global verdict.

Detailed examiner-grade model status: The solved content above is the executable answer base. Preserve its thesis, named chronology, spatial evidence, causal mechanism, counter-position and qualification rather than replacing it with a generic narrative.

Executable exam-length answer / compression plan: For a 20-mark answer, open with a two-sentence thesis and a spatial-temporal frame; organise six to eight named events, treaties, actors, regions, institutions or attributed interpretations as claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification; reserve the final lines for a graded conclusion.

Why this earns marks: The answer obeys the directive, distinguishes structure, trigger and outcome, connects evidence to mechanism, includes non-European agency and avoids teleology, presentism and monocausal explanation.

How to improve this answer: For “Why did the revolutions of 1848 challenge yet fail to destroy the Vienna order? Answer in...”, replace the weakest generalisation with one additional named treaty, regional case, primary record or attributed scholarly position and state what that evidence cannot prove.

Detailed examiner-grade model answer:

Introduction and thesis: The order had accumulated national, liberal and social grievances, but revolutionary coalitions divided, national aims conflicted and dynastic armies retained coercive power.

Analytical body:

1. Claim and named evidence: The Carlsbad Decrees of 1819 imposed censorship, university control and investigation against liberal and nationalist activity in the German states. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
2. Claim and named evidence: The Troppau and Laibach congresses asserted intervention against revolutions, linking great-power order to domestic repression. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
3. Claim and named evidence: The Concert accepted Belgian independence in 1830, demonstrating selective adaptation rather than rigid restoration. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
4. Claim and named evidence: The revolutions of 1848 exposed the settlement's unresolved liberal, national and social questions, though divided coalitions and loyal dynastic armies helped defeat them. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.
5. Claim and named evidence: Vienna achieved substantial great-power peace and diplomatic consultation while denying consent and repressing liberal-national change, creating stability with a legitimacy deficit. Analysis: Use this evidence to establish the mechanism asked in the directive, not merely to narrate the event. Qualification: Keep its chronological, regional and interpretive boundary explicit.

Counter-position / limit: No single actor, battle, treaty, ideology or economic pressure should be made sufficient where the evidence shows interaction among structures, triggers, agency and uneven regional outcomes.

Qualified conclusion: The order had accumulated national, liberal and social grievances, but revolutionary coalitions divided, national aims conflicted and dynastic armies retained coercive power.