STAGE 05

Kathak and Odissi

KATHIKA

TATKAR / CHAKKARS

MAHARI / GOTIPUA

TRIBHANGA / CHOWK

Storytelling and court line

Gharana memory

Mahari-gotipua continuity

Mobile sculpture

KATHAK

- Storytelling, pirouettes, gharanas and recital architecture.

ODISSI

- Mahari, gotipua, tribhanga, chowk, Mangalacharan to Moksha.

LINK

- Odissi's mobile-sculpture line strengthens dance-sculpture comparison answers.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — One form foregrounds footwork and lineage memory, while the other foregrounds torso geometry and sculptural movement.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Kathak rewards writing through footwork and gharana history, while Odissi rewards writing through mahari-gotipua continuity and sculptural body geometry.

Martial memory

MAIN TRAP

Not Sattriya

Not Manipuri

Not SNA classical

Do not flatten into one style

CLASSICAL DEVOTIONAL

- Manipuri and Sattriya are separated by institutional home and sound-world.

FOLK / MARTIAL

- Community, occasion and combat memory organise the non-classical field.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — Shared devotion does not erase institutional difference, and folk / martial forms must be identified through occasion and community.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: Manipuri and Sattriya look close only from a distance; once pung, sattri, Borgeet, Garba or Chhau are read through their own settings, the differences become obvious.

REVIVAL RULE

- Revival = preservation plus reconfiguration, never pure rescue.

VERIFY

- 2024 official Set-A key verifies Garba as the latest UNESCO ICH inclusion tested in that paper.

WRITE

- Identify the form by its discriminating feature, then qualify recognition and continuity claims.

MECHANISM / VERDICT — The highest-scoring answer joins grammar, patronage change and safeguarding without collapsing one timeline into another.

ANSWER-GRABBING LINE — WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM: The safest modern-history line in dance is not 'revival saved tradition' but 'revival preserved repertoire while changing who performed, owned and publicly represented it'.

E

EXTRA

Optional caution: bounded facts and overclaim control

HALLISALASYA

TOPIC 07 BOUNDARY

GAUDIYA NRITYA

LIVING EXPONENT RISK

BOUNDARY

- Hallisalasya is a Painting Topic 07 route and should be used here only as a boundary link.

RESTRAINT

- Gaudiya Nritya discussion does not create SNA classical status, and time-sensitive living-exponent claims must not be guessed.

OPTIONAL STATUS — This optional depth is unnecessary for a competent core answer; advanced maturity means stating the evidentiary limit instead of guessing.
