Complete Learning Session

Authoring-only generation: 2026-09-04. No PDF was rendered and no tracker or index was mutated.

SOURCE, PROGRESSION AND CURRENT-LINKAGE AUDIT

- Generation date: 2026-09-04.
- Repository-first evidence: the Basic owner is taught first and preserved in full; the Advanced owner is retained only in the optional final teaching block.
- OCR evidence: Repository Markdown was primary. OCR-searchable official UPSC papers were supplementary only for printed routed demands. No answer key, attribution, operational method, notification effect, implementation outcome or security metric was inferred.
- Qdrant: not used; repository Markdown and available OCR context were sufficient.
- PYQ integrity: The audited GS-III ledgers route the 2019 India-Myanmar-border demand and the 2025 North-East challenges-and-accord-map demand here. Every instrument retains its date, State or faction and legal/status rung; signature is never rewritten as implementation.
- Live-link boundary: The current anchors are notification- and instrument-specific: the 8 February 2024 FMR decision remains an announcement unless supported by an operative notification; the 4 September 2025 UPF/KNO instrument remains an SoO; and 2026 disturbed-area notifications do not repeal AFSPA.
- Fact/inference discipline: no current-affairs item, PYQ wording, figure or quotation is invented.

LIVE OFFICIAL-SOURCE ATTEMPT LOG

The checks below were made on 2026-09-04. Substantive official text is used only for the proposition it supports; title-only, blocked or thin pages are recorded and supply no factual claim.

- https://www.mha.gov.in/sites/default/files/AREnglish_24032026.pdf - attempted 2026-09-04; direct retrieval returned 403, while the canonical owner uses the MHA Annual Report 2024-25 for dated accord mapping. The module does not infer implementation from signature.
- <https://pib.gov.in/FeaturesDeatils.aspx?NotelId=151186&ModuleId=2> - searched 2026-09-04; the official PIB feature provides a public North-East peace-and-accord overview. Every entry remains classified as ceasefire, framework, settlement or separately verified implementation rather than one undifferentiated success count.
- <https://www.mha.gov.in/> - searched 2026-09-04 for the 2026 AFSPA disturbed-area notifications and the 23 April 2026 North-East peace-process update. The module preserves notification-specific and time-bound status without treating reduced coverage as repeal.
- <https://www.indiacode.nic.in/> - searched 2026-09-04 for AFSPA 1958 and constitutional autonomy provisions; the module uses sections 3, 4 and 6 plus Articles 244(2), 371A and 371C as owner-audited legal anchors, not as proof of current field conditions.

BASIC LEARNING SESSION

Refreshed teaching navigation

Distinct embedded teaching-navigation image. The separate continuous Cārvāka-style flowchart package remains an independent at-a-glance artifact.

SESSION 1 - FOUNDATION - HISTORICAL ISOLATION IDENTITY AND ALIENATION

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Read Historical isolation identity and alienation as a sequence: identify Historical-isolation condition, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

Technical definition: Mechanism chain: Historical-isolation condition - Assamisation trigger Qualified use: Explain historical condition without making it a deterministic cause.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

Read Historical isolation identity and alienation as a sequence: identify Historical-isolation condition, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

MUST-WRITE KEYWORDS

- FOUNDATION
- Historical isolation identity
- alienation
- Mechanism chain
- Qualified use
- British

How to use them: Frame the answer through FOUNDATION; define Historical isolation identity, connect alienation with Mechanism chain to explain the mechanism, and use Qualified use for the decisive comparison or qualification.

VISUAL FIRST

HISTORICAL ISOLATION IDENTITY AND ALIENATION

01. Historical-isolation condition

02. Assamisation trigger

STATUS / CATEGORY FIREWALL -> Do not treat the North-East as one homogeneous insurgency.

The rail fixes the institutional sequence and claim boundary before explanation.

CORE EXPLANATION

British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. The 1960 Assamese official-language decision generated strong tribal-district resistance and fear of identity loss, illustrating how a proximate policy trigger can activate a deeper historical condition.

SIMPLE SYSTEM EXAMPLE

Read Historical isolation identity and alienation as a sequence: identify Historical-isolation condition, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

TECHNICAL DISTINCTION

The decisive boundary is Do not treat the North-East as one homogeneous insurgency. This keeps Historical-isolation condition and Assamisation trigger in the correct legal category, institutional mandate and evidentiary status.

NAMED EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East.
- The 1960 Assamese official-language decision generated strong tribal-district resistance and fear of identity loss, illustrating how a proximate policy trigger can activate a deeper historical condition.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not treat the North-East as one homogeneous insurgency.

EXAM LINK

- Prelims: Keep institution, law, notification, ban/listing, scheme, agreement, ceasefire and outcome in their exact category.
- Mains: Explain historical condition without making it a deterministic cause.

MINI RECAP

- Mechanism chain: Historical-isolation condition -> Assamisation trigger
- Qualified use: Explain historical condition without making it a deterministic cause.

SESSION 2 - FOUNDATION - ASSAMISATION STATEHOOD AND ACCOMMODATION

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Read Assamisation statehood and accommodation as a sequence: identify Statehood accommodation, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

Technical definition: Mechanism chain: Statehood accommodation Qualified use: Use territorial reorganisation as political accommodation evidence.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

ASSAMISATION STATEHOOD AND ACCOMMODATION

01. Statehood accommodation

STATUS / CATEGORY FIREWALL -> Do not treat every autonomy demand as a Sixth Schedule demand.

The rail fixes the institutional sequence and claim boundary before explanation.

CORE EXPLANATION

Nagaland became a State in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh in 1987, showing political accommodation through territorial reorganisation.

SIMPLE SYSTEM EXAMPLE

Read Assamisation statehood and accommodation as a sequence: identify Statehood accommodation, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

TECHNICAL DISTINCTION

The decisive boundary is Do not treat every autonomy demand as a Sixth Schedule demand. This keeps Statehood accommodation in the correct legal category, institutional mandate and evidentiary status.

SESSION 3 - FOUNDATION - SIXTH SCHEDULE AND DIFFERENTIATED AUTONOMY

DEFINITION / WHAT THIS IS CALLED

Plain-language definition: Read Sixth Schedule and differentiated autonomy as a sequence: identify Sixth Schedule boundary, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

Technical definition: Mechanism chain: Sixth Schedule boundary Qualified use: Name the exact constitutional instrument for the exact State.

ANSWER-GRABBING OPENING - WRITE/ADAPT IN THE EXAM

The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East.

MUST-WRITE KEYWORDS

IDENTITY BORDER DEVELOPMENT AND GOVERNANCE DRIVERS

01. Articles 371A-371C boundary

STATUS / CATEGORY FIREWALL -> Do not call an SoO disarmament or rehabilitation.

The rail fixes the institutional sequence and claim boundary before explanation.

CORE EXPLANATION

Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule.

SIMPLE SYSTEM EXAMPLE

Read Identity border development and governance drivers as a sequence: identify Articles 371A-371C boundary, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

VISUAL FIRST

MYANMAR LINKAGES AND ATTRIBUTION DISCIPLINE

01. Insurgency-driver matrix

STATUS / CATEGORY FIREWALL -> Do not call the 2015 Framework Agreement a final Naga settlement.

The rail fixes the institutional sequence and claim boundary before explanation.

CORE EXPLANATION

Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States.

SIMPLE SYSTEM EXAMPLE

Read Myanmar linkages and attribution discipline as a sequence: identify Insurgency-driver matrix, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

TECHNICAL DISTINCTION

The decisive boundary is Do not call the 2015 Framework Agreement a final Naga settlement. This keeps Insurgency-driver matrix in the correct legal category, institutional mandate and evidentiary status.

02. Composite strategy

STATUS / CATEGORY FIREWALL -> Do not treat accord signature as implemented peace.

The rail fixes the institutional sequence and claim boundary before explanation.

CORE EXPLANATION

Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence. The Government's composite approach combines talks with groups abjuring violence, lawful action against continuing violence, development and connectivity, and political or autonomy arrangements.

SIMPLE SYSTEM EXAMPLE

Read Composite strategy talks security and development as a sequence: identify Myanmar-border linkage, follow the named mechanism to its institutional response, and stop at the last verified status rather than assuming the next stage.

TECHNICAL DISTINCTION

The decisive boundary is Do not treat accord signature as implemented peace. This keeps Myanmar-border linkage and Composite strategy in the correct legal category, institutional mandate and evidentiary status.

NAMED EVIDENCE AND MECHANISM

- Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence.
- The Government's composite approach combines talks with groups abjuring violence, lawful action against continuing violence, development and connectivity, and political or autonomy arrangements.

EXAMINER CAUTION

- Do not treat accord signature as implemented peace.

PEACE-PROCESS MAP

State/faction-specific accords, tracked by date, not treated as one uniform process

Core proposition: FACT: Singh explains that the North-East's tribal population had "a virtual absence of any political, cultural, social, geographical, religious or business contact... with the rest of India," so "India's freedom struggle had very little impact on the tribals" (PDF p.

32. - the historical isolation is the foundational condition for later identity-based insurgency.

2. Essential definitions

Concept	Exam-ready meaning
FACT: Sixth Schedule	Constitutional provision (Articles 244(2) and 275(1)) applying to the tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram, providing "self-rule, autonomy and decentralization" through Autonomous District and Regional Councils with law-making, judicial and revenue powers (Singh, PDF p. 32).
FACT: Suspension of Operations (SoO)	Ceasefire agreements the Government has signed with most North-East insurgent groups (historically "numbering 17-18") as part of a talks-based composite strategy (Singh, PDF p. 44). ANALYSIS: An SoO is a cessation-of-hostilities arrangement with ground rules (designated camps, arms in monitored storage, restrictions on movement and extortion), renewable and revocable - it is neither disarmament nor a political settlement.
FACT: AFSPA (Armed Forces Special Powers Act, 1958)	Under Section 3 the Centre or the State Governor may declare an area "disturbed"; Section 4 then confers powers of use of force, arrest without warrant and search without warrant on commissioned/non-commissioned officers; Section 6 bars prosecution of persons acting under the Act except with the previous sanction of the Central Government . Subject to a long-running repeal demand from North-East civil society (Singh, PDF p. 47). ANALYSIS: J&K is covered by a separate statute, the Armed Forces (Jammu and Kashmir) Special Powers Act, 1990.
ANALYSIS: Disturbed-area notification vs. AFSPA repeal	AFSPA applies only where a "disturbed area" notification is in force. Withdrawing or shrinking that notification for districts of a State is an executive act that removes the Act's operation there without repealing the Act. ANALYSIS: MHA has progressively reduced the notified disturbed-area footprint in parts of Nagaland, Assam and Manipur since 2022 - verify the districts currently notified from the latest MHA notification before making any claim, and never equate a reduced footprint with repeal.
FACT: Free Movement Regime (FMR)	A provision allowing tribal communities to travel up to 16 km across the India-Myanmar border without a passport/visa, historically justified by shared ethnicity and cross-border trade (VisionIAS, PDF p. 24). MHA announced its decision to scrap it on 8 February 2024; current operational status requires the latest formal notification.
ANALYSIS: Composite strategy	Singh's term for the Government's combined approach: talks/negotiation with any group abjuring violence, plus strict action against continued violence, plus development and connectivity measures, plus political/structural autonomy tools (PDF p. 44).

3. How the peace-process mechanism works

1. Historical isolation -> post-Independence friction: FACT: British policy excluded outsiders from tribal areas while permitting Christian missionary access (Singh, PDF p. 31); post-Independence, the 1960 decision to make Assamese "the sole official language" triggered "immediate and strong reaction in the tribal districts," fearing loss of identity through "Assamization" (Singh, PDF p. 32).

2. Statehood fragmentation as accommodation: FACT: The All Party Hill

Leaders Conference (1960) demanded separate statehood; Nagaland (1963), Meghalaya/Manipur/Tripura (1972) and Mizoram (1987) were progressively granted statehood (Singh, PDF pp. 32-33) - a historical accommodation pattern, not a current negotiation.

3. Insurgency drivers: FACT: Singh lists "feeling of alienation and deprivation," "similar ethnicity across the border on Myanmar side," "porosity of the border," "change in demographic pattern due to infiltration," "disconnect with other parts of India," corruption, "lack of development," easy arms availability and "instability in Myanmar" (PDF p. 44).

4. Foreign links: FACT: Myanmar is "the biggest foreign link" for insurgents, given the long, ethnically-linked, difficult-terrain border with Arunachal Pradesh, Nagaland, Manipur and Mizoram (Singh, PDF p. 45); Bangladesh, Nepal, Bhutan and China have also historically served as transit or shelter points to varying degrees (Singh, PDF pp. 45-46; book-period).

5. Identity-linked communal/demographic tension: FACT: The 2012 Bodo-Muslim clashes (Kokrajhar) arose from demographic-change fears tied to migration, and were "vitiated due to circulation of certain provocative SMSs... triggering exodus of North-East people from the southern states" - an early illustration of social media amplifying an identity-linked conflict (Singh, PDF pp. 47-48; developed further in topic 09).

4. Institutions, laws and reference points

- FACT: Department of Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER): created 2001, made a full ministry in 2004, focused on regional infrastructure (Singh, PDF p. 45).
- FACT: North Eastern Council: established by Act of Parliament in 1971, restructured 2002 as the regional planning body (Singh, PDF p. 45).
- ANALYSIS: 10% Gross Budgetary Support earmarking, Special Category status, Non-Lapsable Central Pool of Resources: book-period fiscal- devolution mechanisms (Singh, PDF p. 45) - verify current fiscal arrangements from a dated official source.
- CURRENT: MHA Annual Report 2024-25: the correct dated source for the present list of signed peace accords/agreements "in the past decade" - required directly by the 2025 PYQ below.

4A. The instrument ladder - and a "past decade" accord map

ANALYSIS: The 2025 PYQ asks candidates to map accords, so the first mark is for showing that "peace process" is not one instrument but a ladder of four, each with a different legal effect:

Rung	Instrument	What it actually does	Example
1	Suspension of Operations (SoO) / ceasefire	Stops hostilities on agreed ground rules; cadres in designated camps, arms in monitored storage; renewable and revocable	UPF and KNO SoO, Manipur
2	Framework agreement	Records agreed principles for a future settlement; leaves competencies, territory and timelines open	Framework Agreement with NSCN (IM), 3 August 2015
3	Memorandum of Settlement / accord	A signed settlement with specified commitments - council powers, package, disbandment, rehabilitation	Bodo Accord (27 January 2020); Karbi Anglong Agreement (4 September 2021)
4	Implementation	Statutory/constitutional follow-through - council elections, Sixth Schedule amendment, disbursed package, cadre reintegration	ANALYSIS: The rung on which most criticism falls; must be verified separately, accord by accord

ANALYSIS: Illustrative "past decade" map (2015-2025). Each entry below is a publicly announced Government of India agreement; FACT: use the MHA Annual Report 2024-25 to confirm the exact date, signatories and, critically, the implementation status of each before writing it - this file supplies the map, not the status:

- 2015 - Framework Agreement with NSCN (IM) (a framework, WRONG: not a final settlement).

- 2019 - Agreement with NLFT (SD), Tripura.

- 2020 - Bru-Reang permanent-settlement agreement (Tripura); third Bodo Accord with NDFB factions and ABSU.

- 2021 - Karbi Anglong Agreement (Assam).

- 2022 - Assam-Meghalaya inter-State boundary agreement (an inter-State boundary settlement, distinct from an insurgent-group accord); agreement with Adivasi/tea-garden-community armed groups (Assam).

- 2023 - Agreement with DNLA (Assam); UNLF agreement (Manipur - the first with a Meitei armed group); Memorandum of Settlement with the pro-talks faction of ULFA (Assam).

- 2024 - Tripartite agreement with TIPRA Motha (Tripura).

- 2025 - Revised ground rules for the tripartite SoO with UPF and KNO (4 September 2025, valid to 3 September 2026) - CURRENT: a rung-1 instrument, and therefore evidence that Manipur's process remains at the ceasefire stage rather than the settlement stage.

ANALYSIS: Pre-decade landmarks worth one line of context: the Shillong Accord (1975), the Assam Accord (1985), the Mizo Peace Accord (1986 - the standard success case, an insurgency converted into electoral politics) and the Bodoland Territorial Council accord (2003).

WRONG: Do not present a signed accord as a resolved conflict. The Mizo Accord is cited as successful precisely because implementation followed signature; several later accords are contested on exactly that rung.

5. Indian applications and examples

- ANALYSIS: Singh's specific group-membership, leadership and force-level details

(e.g. RNHPF, KPLT) are book-period and highly localised; do not present them as current organisational status without separate verification.

- FACT: On AFSPA, Singh takes a calibrated position: acknowledging "at times, security forces are accused of alleged human rights violations," but concluding "the removal of AFSPA now is not advisable" if forces are to operate with meaningful search-and-seizure powers, while stressing forces "must also be wary of human rights violations and must be accountable" (PDF p. 47) - a rights-conscious, not purely security- first, framing.

- ANALYSIS: AFSPA's judicial boundary: the Supreme Court upheld AFSPA's constitutionality in Naga People's Movement of Human Rights v. Union of India (1997), while making the Army's own "Do's and Don'ts" binding and reading in a proportionality requirement on the use of force; in Extra Judicial Execution Victim Families Association v. Union of India (2016) it held that the Act confers no absolute immunity and that allegations of excessive or retaliatory force are open to investigation. ANALYSIS: The exam-usable point: AFSPA's operational necessity and its accountability are not opposed positions - the Court has affirmed both simultaneously, which is exactly Singh's own framing.

- FACT: Scale of the identity-conflict problem: the 2012 Bodo-Muslim clashes "claimed many lives and displaced more than four lakh people," spreading from Kokrajhar and Chirang across lower Assam (Singh, PDF p. 47) - cite the displacement scale, not casualty figures, since Singh gives the former and not the latter.

- CURRENT: PYQ mapping - verbatim (2025 Q19): "What are the major challenges to internal security and peace process in the North-Eastern States? Map the various peace accords and agreements initiated by the government in the past decade."

6. Must-Know Facts for Prelims

- FACT: The Sixth Schedule of the Constitution (Articles 244(2) and 275(1))

applies to the tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram, enabling Autonomous District and Regional Councils.

- FACT: Nagaland became a state in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram in 1987; Arunachal Pradesh (formerly NEFA) in 1987.

- FACT: DoNER was created in 2001 and elevated to full ministry status in 2004.

- ANALYSIS: The Free Movement Regime (FMR) with Myanmar, formalised in 2018 as part of the Act East Policy, became the subject of an announced decision to scrap it on 8 February 2024 (VisionIAS, PDF p. 24) - distinguish the policy announcement from independently verified operational status, and do not carry forward the book-period description of the FMR as continuing unchanged.

- FACT: Myanmar is identified as the North-East insurgents' most significant foreign link, owing to shared ethnicity and difficult, porous terrain.

- FACT: AFSPA, 1958: Section 3 (disturbed-area declaration), Section 4 (powers of use of force, arrest and search without warrant), Section 6 (no prosecution without the previous sanction of the Central Government); J&K is covered by the separate Armed Forces (Jammu and Kashmir) Special Powers Act, 1990.

- FACT: Naga People's Movement of Human Rights v. Union of India (1997)

upheld AFSPA while making the Army's "Do's and Don'ts" binding; EEVFAM v. Union of India (2016) held there is no absolute immunity under the Act.

- FACT: The Framework Agreement with NSCN (IM) was signed on 3 August 2015 - a framework, not a final settlement.

7. UPSC traps

- WRONG: The North-East is a single, homogeneous insurgency problem. ->

Insurgencies vary sharply by State, ethnicity and grievance (Naga, Bodo, Manipuri and other movements each have distinct histories and demands) - avoid treating the region as one undifferentiated bloc.

- WRONG: AFSPA's presence or removal is a settled, one-sided question. -> Singh presents a calibrated, two-sided position: continued utility for search/seizure powers, paired with accountability obligations - a Mains answer should not present only one side.

- WRONG: The 8 February 2024 decision announcement by itself establishes the complete present operational regime. -> State current implementation only from the latest formal MHA/MEA notification.

- WRONG: All North-East insurgent groups are currently active at the levels described in this book. -> Singh's cadre/group counts are book-period; many groups have since signed Suspension of Operations agreements or accords - verify current status from the MHA Annual Report 2024-25 or a subsequent official update.

- WRONG: A signed peace accord means the conflict is resolved. -> Signature and implementation are separate rungs (Section 4A). A framework agreement (NSCN-IM, 2015) records principles; a Memorandum of Settlement records commitments; only verified follow-through - council constituted, package disbursed, cadres reintegrated - evidences resolution.

- WRONG: An SoO agreement is a form of disarmament. -> It is a cessation-of-hostilities arrangement with ground rules on camps, arms storage and movement; it is renewable, revocable, and leaves the underlying political demand untouched.

- WRONG: Reducing the notified "disturbed area" footprint amounts to repealing AFSPA. -> AFSPA remains on the statute book; a notification withdrawal under Section 3 simply ends its operation in the de-notified districts, and can be reversed by a fresh notification.

- WRONG: The Sixth Schedule applies to the whole North-East. -> It applies to the tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram; Nagaland's autonomy derives from Article 371A and Manipur's hill areas from Article 371C - different constitutional instruments for different States.

8. CURRENT: Current anchor

- CURRENT: On 8 February 2024, MHA announced its decision to scrap the Myanmar Free Movement Regime, reflecting concerns over illegal immigration, the 2023 Manipur ethnic tensions, cross-border misuse by insurgent groups, and a reported surge in narcotics flows from Myanmar (VisionIAS, PDF pp. 24-25). Treat this strictly as an announced decision; current operational status requires a formal notification.

- CURRENT: Revised ground rules for the tripartite Suspension of Operations agreement with UPF and KNO were signed on 4 September 2025, valid until 3 September 2026. MHA's April 2026 North-East peace-process update is the current source for accord/status mapping.

10. Mains angles

- ANALYSIS: Distinguish "challenges" (identity, borders, development, AFSPA/trust) from "peace accords" (a factual mapping exercise) - the PYQ asks for both, and conflating them loses marks.

- ANALYSIS: Use the composite-strategy framing (Section 3) rather than a purely security-centric answer; explicitly cite the Sixth Schedule/autonomy tool as a structural, not merely developmental, response.

- ANALYSIS: Where a question touches identity/demographic tension (e.g. the Bodo-Muslim clashes), route the communal/identity dimension through this topic's Section 3.5, not a separate communalism topic (per this folder's design).

11. Probable questions

- ANALYSIS: Prelims: Which constitutional schedule provides for autonomous district and regional councils exclusively in the North-East?

- ANALYSIS: Mains (10 marks): Explain how historical isolation contributed to identity-based insurgency in India's North-East.

- ANALYSIS: Mains (15 marks, PYQ-style): Map the major internal-security challenges and the peace accords initiated by the government in the North-East over the past decade.

12. Core answer architecture - North-East challenges, accords and accountable security

Core firewall: The Core gives the complete 2019 and 2025 answer route. The Advanced companion is optional analytical enrichment only.

Demand decoder and thesis

Thesis: The North-East is a set of identity, autonomy, inter-ethnic, border and governance problems - not one insurgency. Durable peace requires an instrument matched to the named State/faction/demand, with a signed accord kept separate from verified implementation and an AFSPA deployment kept separate from repeal of the statute.

Executable Core spines

15 marks - 2025 challenges and past-decade accord map. Give a one-line regional thesis; map five challenge families (identity/autonomy; inter-ethnic/demographic tension; cross-border sanctuary/trafficking; governance/development; security-legitimacy). Then make a compact, dated instrument map: 2015 NSCN(IM) Framework; 2019 NLFT(SD) agreement; 2020 Bodo and Bru-Reang settlements; 2021 Karbi Anglong agreement; 2023 DNLA, UNLF and ULFA(pro-talks) settlements/agreements; 2024 TIPRA Motha tripartite agreement; and the UPF/KNO SoO as a ceasefire instrument. For every entry, say its rung and do not claim implementation without a dated MHA status.

15 marks - 2019 India-Myanmar border/insurgency. Start with cross-border ethnic ties, terrain, sanctuary and drug-route vulnerability; compare guarding/regulation with community livelihood costs; map Assam Rifles, ICPs, intelligence and coordinated civil administration; add the 8 February 2024 FMR-scrapping decision as an announcement whose operative regime needs a formal notification. Close with lawful mobility and community trust, not fencing alone.

20 marks - AFSPA/accord implementation comparison. Use the ladder SoO -> framework -> settlement -> implementation and balance operational necessity with legality, necessity, proportionality, record/reason, investigation and remedy. A reduction in disturbed-area coverage is an executive notification outcome, not a repeal or a final peace verdict.

Current-status safety notes

- MHA's 2026 AFSPA notifications effective 1 April-30 September 2026

continued the disturbed-area notification in nine Nagaland districts plus specified police-station areas, and in Tirap, Changlang and Longding districts plus specified Namsai police-station areas in Arunachal Pradesh. The Manipur notification must be read by its exact police-station exclusions before naming its footprint.

- The revised UPF/KNO tripartite SoO ground rules were signed 4

September 2025 and stated to run to 3 September 2026*. This is evidence of a rung-1 cessation-of-hostilities arrangement, not a final Manipur settlement.

Claim -> evidence -> analysis -> qualification bank

Claim	Named evidence/example	What it proves	Qualification
Political accommodation can reduce an identity-driven conflict.	Sixth Schedule/statehood history; Bodo and Karbi Anglong agreements.	Autonomy and representation can address a different causal pathway from LW.	An autonomy instrument can generate new inter-group boundary concerns.
Peace instruments have different legal and practical effects.	NSCN(IM) Framework Agreement (2015) versus UPF/KNO SoO (2025).	A map must identify the rung, not count signatures.	Neither framework nor SoO proves disarmament, final settlement or delivery.
AFSPA is an operational-power and accountability question together.	AFSPA sections 3, 4 and 6; Naga People's Movement (1997) and EEVFAM (2016).	Legal authorization, necessity and accountability can be analysed in one answer.	A disturbed-area notification is time-bound and geographically specific; verify it on the answer date.
Border hardening affects border communities.	FMR decision/kinship and small-trade linkages.	Regulation may reduce one misuse channel while imposing livelihood and trust costs.	Do not state an operational abolition without the governing notification.

agreements and implementation are visibly separated by status.

BASIC MCQS / REMEDIATION

Q1. Which statement correctly identifies Historical-isolation condition?

A. British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. B. Nagaland became a State in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh in 1987, showing political accommodation through territorial reorganisation. C. The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East. D. The 1960 Assamese official-language decision generated strong tribal-district resistance and fear of identity loss, illustrating how a proximate policy trigger can activate a deeper historical condition.

Answer: A. Explanation: British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. The other options change the threat category, institutional owner, legal instrument, evidentiary rung or implementation status.

Q2. Which option preserves the legal or institutional boundary of Historical-isolation condition?

A. Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule. B. British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. C. The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East. D. Nagaland became a State in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh in 1987, showing political accommodation through territorial reorganisation.

Answer: B. Explanation: British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. The other options change the threat category, institutional owner, legal instrument, evidentiary rung or implementation status.

Q3. Which statement uses Historical-isolation condition without changing its institution, law or status?

A. The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East. B. Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States. C. British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. D. Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule.

Answer: C. Explanation: British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East. The other options change the threat category, institutional owner, legal instrument, evidentiary rung or implementation status.

Q4. Which option avoids the standard UPSC close-option trap about Historical-isolation condition?

A. Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence. B. Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States. C. Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule. D. British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East.

Q9. Which statement correctly identifies Statehood accommodation?

A. Nagaland became a State in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh in 1987, showing political accommodation through territorial reorganisation. B. Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States. PYQS AND ANSWER PRACTICE

AUDITED TOPIC-SPECIFIC PYQ OWNERSHIP

The audited GS-III ledgers route the 2019 India-Myanmar-border demand and the 2025 North-East challenges-and-accord-map demand here. Every instrument retains its date, State or faction and legal/status rung; signature is never rewritten as implementation.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 1 - 2019 GS-III

Demand: India-Myanmar border security challenges and their connection with insurgency in the North-East.

Status: Audited neutral rendering; Examine · 15 marks · 250 words.

Model solution: Insurgency-driver matrix: Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States. Myanmar-border linkage: Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence. Composite strategy: The Government's composite approach combines talks with groups abjuring violence, lawful action against continuing violence, development and connectivity, and political or autonomy arrangements. FMR decision boundary: MHA announced on 8 February 2024 a decision to scrap the India-Myanmar Free Movement Regime; an announcement must not be stated as the complete operational regime without the governing notification. Assam-Rifles mandate issue: The owner identifies a border-guarding versus counter-insurgency mandate tension for Assam Rifles along the Myanmar border; current deployments and force numbers require dated official verification. Peace-process end-state: Durable peace requires State- and faction-specific accommodation, lawful and accountable security, inter-ethnic reconciliation, border governance and verified implementation rather than signatures alone. The solution therefore answers the routed demand without inventing an official model answer or an objective answer key.

PYQ DEMAND CARD 2 - 2025 GS-III

Demand: "What are the major challenges to internal security and peace process in the North-Eastern States? Map the various peace accords and agreements initiated by the government in the past decade."

Status: Verbatim owner-preserved question; Map · 15 marks · 250 words.

Model solution: Historical-isolation condition: British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East.

Sixth Schedule boundary: The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East. Articles 371A-371C boundary: Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule.

Insurgency-driver matrix: Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States. Myanmar-border linkage: Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence. SoO boundary: A Suspension of Operations agreement is a renewable, revocable cessation-of-hostilities arrangement with ground rules; it is not disarmament, a final political settlement or verified rehabilitation.

Framework-agreement boundary: A framework agreement records agreed principles for future negotiation but leaves competencies, territory or implementation open; the NSCN (IM) Framework Agreement of 3 August 2015 is not a final settlement. Settlement boundary: A Memorandum of Settlement or accord records specified commitments, but signature alone does not prove council formation, legal amendment, package disbursement, disbandment or reintegration. Implementation boundary: Implementation is the separate rung where constitutional, statutory, financial and rehabilitation commitments are verified; accord counts cannot substitute for an implementation audit.

Past-decade accord map: The owner maps the 2019 NLFT(SD), 2020 Bodo and Bru-Reang, 2021 Karbi Anglong, 2022 boundary and Adivasi-group, 2023 DNLA, UNLF and ULFA pro-talks, and 2024 TIPRA Motha instruments, each requiring exact status. UPF-KNO SoO status: Revised tripartite Suspension of Operations ground rules with UPF and KNO were signed on 4 September 2025 and stated to run through 3 September 2026; this is a ceasefire rung, not a Manipur settlement. AFSPA sections: Under AFSPA 1958, section 3 governs disturbed-area declaration, section 4 confers specified powers in a notified area, and section 6 requires previous Central Government sanction before prosecution. Notification-repeal firewall: Shrinking or withdrawing a disturbed-area notification ends AFSPA's operation only in the de-notified area for that notification period; it neither repeals the Act nor proves final peace.

Peace-process end-state: Durable peace requires State- and faction-specific accommodation, lawful and accountable security, inter-ethnic reconciliation, border governance and verified implementation rather than signatures alone. The solution therefore answers the routed demand without inventing an official model answer or an objective answer key.

Question: Critically evaluate AFSPA's operational necessity and accountability architecture in the North-East. Answer in about 300 words.

Model thesis: Claim: AFSPA sections. Named evidence/example: Under AFSPA 1958, section 3 governs disturbed-area declaration, section 4 confers specified powers in a notified area, and section 6 requires previous Central Government sanction before prosecution. Analysis: This fixes the threat category, legal instrument, institutional mandate and verified evidentiary rung before drawing the policy implication. Qualification: The conclusion retains the owner's date, institution, legal character and notification-to-implementation status boundary.

Claim: Notification-repeal firewall. Named evidence/example: Shrinking or withdrawing a disturbed-area notification ends AFSPA's operation only in the de-notified area for that notification period; it neither repeals the Act nor proves final peace. Analysis: This fixes the threat category, legal instrument, institutional mandate and verified evidentiary rung before drawing the policy implication. Qualification: The conclusion retains the owner's date, institution, legal character and notification-to-implementation status boundary. Claim: AFSPA judicial boundary. Named evidence/example: Naga People's Movement of Human Rights (1997) upheld AFSPA with binding safeguards, while EEVFAM (2016) rejected absolute immunity and kept alleged excessive force open to investigation. Analysis: This fixes the threat category, legal instrument, institutional mandate and verified evidentiary rung before drawing the policy implication. Qualification: The conclusion retains the owner's date, institution, legal character and notification-to-implementation status boundary. Claim: Peace-process end-state. Named evidence/example: Durable peace requires State- and faction-specific accommodation, lawful and accountable security, inter-ethnic reconciliation, border governance and verified implementation rather than signatures alone. Analysis: This fixes the threat category, legal instrument, institutional mandate and verified evidentiary rung before drawing the policy implication. Qualification: The conclusion retains the owner's date, institution, legal character and notification-to-implementation status boundary.

OPTIONAL ADVANCED DEPTH - NOT REQUIRED FOR A CORE ANSWER

Subject: Internal Security | Tier: Advanced | GS Paper: GS-III. Core area: State/faction-specific accord mapping; the AFSPA rights- versus-operational-necessity trade-off; the 2024 decision to scrap the FMR as a case study in border-insurgency-identity interaction; inter-ethnic reconciliation design. Grounded in: Ashok Kumar Singh, Challenges to Internal Security of India, PDF pp. 44-50; VisionIAS, Security Challenges and Their Management in Border Areas, PDF pp. 24-25; 00_Master-Framework.md Sections 5-9; audited GS-III syllabus; AFSPA 1958, Articles 244(2), 371A and 371C as published in India Code; Naga People's Movement of Human Rights (1997) and EEVFAM (2016). FACT: = source-grounded | ANALYSIS: = inference/analysis | CURRENT: = current anchor | WRONG: = boundary/trap. Companion: basic/04_North-East-Insurgency-and-Peace-Processes.md.

1. Answer thesis and syllabus boundary

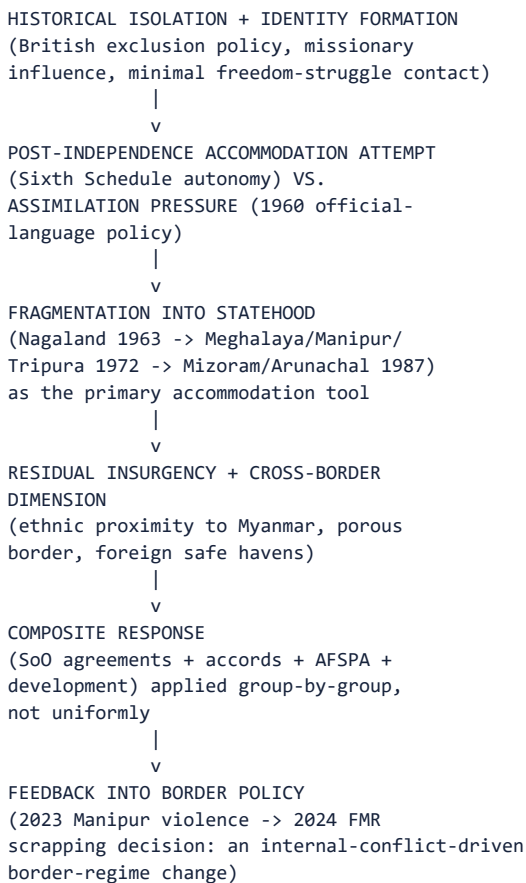

Thesis: ANALYSIS: The North-East's peace-process record shows that accommodation (statehood, Sixth Schedule autonomy, SoO agreements) has been the durable long-run tool, while coercive measures (AFSPA) remain necessary but must be continuously rights-audited to avoid reproducing the very alienation the accommodation track is designed to resolve - the 8 February 2024 decision to scrap the Free Movement Regime is a recent illustration of how a border-management decision can be forced by an internal identity conflict (2023 Manipur violence), not the reverse.

Boundary: WRONG: this topic does not answer a generic Bangladesh/Nepal border question (topic 06) in place of a peace-process answer, per this folder's explicit design.

2. Conceptual distinctions

Concept	Precise meaning
FACT: Accommodation vs. coercion as parallel, not sequential, tracks	Singh's composite strategy (basic topic Section 3) runs talks/accords and strict security action simultaneously, calibrated by which specific faction/group is engaging in each - not "first coerce, then accommodate."
ANALYSIS: Identity-driven vs. resource-driven insurgency	North-East insurgency is predominantly identity/autonomy-driven (unlike LWE's resource/land-driven pattern), which is why the primary durable tool has been political-structural (Sixth Schedule, statehood, autonomous councils) rather than purely socio-economic development.
FACT: AFSPA's operational-necessity argument, precisely stated	FACT: Singh: "If the armed forces are deployed without the power of search and seizure, then their deployment is meaningless" (PDF p. 47) - the argument is functional (a deployed force needs enabling powers), not merely political.
FACT: AFSPA's accountability counter-argument, precisely stated	FACT: Singh, in the same passage: forces "must also be wary of human rights violations and must be accountable for their actions and behaviour towards the public" (PDF p. 47) - the two arguments are presented together, not as opposing camps to pick one from.
ANALYSIS: Border regime as an internal-security-dependent variable	The 8 February 2024 decision to scrap the FMR shows a cross-border regime being reconsidered partly because of internal ethnic conflict and insurgent misuse, not only external diplomacy. Current implementation must be sourced separately.
ANALYSIS: The four-rung instrument ladder, and why the rung determines the argument	Ceasefire/SoO -> framework agreement -> Memorandum of Settlement -> implementation (basic companion, Section 4A). ANALYSIS: The analytical payoff: the same State can occupy different rungs simultaneously - Nagaland has held a framework agreement since 2015 without a final settlement, Assam has multiple signed settlements at varying implementation stages, and Manipur's principal live instrument remains a rung-1 SoO. "Progress in the North-East" is therefore not one trend line but several, and a Mains answer that says so is doing the mapping the 2025 PYQ actually asks for.
ANALYSIS: Autonomy instruments are not interchangeable	The Sixth Schedule (Articles 244(2)/275(1)) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram; Nagaland's protections run through Article 371A (customary law, land and resources, requiring Assembly concurrence for named central laws) and Manipur's hill areas through Article 371C . ANALYSIS: This matters operationally: a demand framed as "Sixth Schedule status" (as in Ladakh's or some Manipur hill demands) is a demand for a different constitutional instrument, not merely more funds - and accords that promise autonomy must specify which instrument they intend.

3. Causal model

Analytical claim: ANALYSIS: The 2024 decision to scrap the FMR is an available case of the causal arrow running from internal identity conflict to border-policy change, rather than the more commonly assumed reverse (porous border causing insurgency) - VisionIAS records the decision's reasons as illegal immigration and demographic change, the 2023 Manipur Meitei-Kuki tensions, exodus of Myanmar junta soldiers into Mizoram, and a UNODC-linked surge in narcotics flow from Myanmar's post-coup turmoil (PDF pp. 24-25) - a compound, not single-cause, decision.

4. Institutional and reform architecture

- FACT: Suspension of Operations (SoO) framework: the standard mechanism for transitioning an armed group toward talks without requiring immediate full disarmament - Singh notes SoO agreements historically covered "most of the insurgent groups (numbering 17-18)" (PDF p. 44, book-period count). ANALYSIS: Its design weakness is structural: ground rules (camp confinement, arms in monitored storage, no extortion) require continuous monitoring capacity, so an SoO's value depends on the monitoring mechanism, not on the signature.

- ANALYSIS: Assam Rifles' dual and contested mandate: VisionIAS records that Assam Rifles "mans this border since 2002 with some help from Indian Army," and has deployed the larger share of its battalions to counter- insurgency duties rather than pure border guarding along the Myanmar border (31 of 46 battalions to counter-insurgency versus 15 to border guarding, per the source's figures) - "functioning more like a counter-insurgency force rather than a border guarding force" (PDF p. 25). FACT: The same source's "way ahead" is explicit: either give Assam Rifles "the single mandate of guarding the border" or deploy another border-guarding force such as the BSF - a live "one force, one mandate" institutional design question connecting this topic to topic 06 and topic 12.

- ANALYSIS: Article 356 as the residual instrument: where a State's law-and-order machinery is assessed to have failed, the Union's options escalate from central-force deployment under Union List Entry 2A (aid to the civil power, State government intact) to President's Rule under Article 356 (State executive superseded). ANALYSIS: Manipur's situation since the 2023 ethnic violence has drawn on both instruments - verify the State's current constitutional status from the Gazette/MHA before asserting it, since President's Rule is time-bound and reversible.

- ANALYSIS: AFSPA's judicial frame as the accountability instrument:

Naga People's Movement of Human Rights (1997) upheld the Act while making the Army's "Do's and Don'ts" binding and requiring minimum necessary force; EEVFAM (2016) held there is no absolute immunity and that alleged excesses are investigable. ANALYSIS: Section 6's central-sanction requirement remains the practical bottleneck between an investigation and a prosecution - the precise point at which "accountability exists in law" and "accountability operates in practice" diverge.

- CURRENT: Current-anchor institutional detail: the precise, current list of peace accords "in the past decade" (directly required by the 2025 PYQ) must be built from the MHA Annual Report 2024-25's dated entries, not from this book's older accord references.

- ANALYSIS: Vibrant Villages Programme (2022) and similar border-village schemes: while primarily framed as border infrastructure (topic 06), they also function as an accommodation/development tool reducing alienation in North-East border districts - a cross-cutting institution worth citing in a peace-process answer.

5. Indian applications and boundary cases

- ANALYSIS: Bodo-Muslim 2012 clashes as an identity-migration boundary case:

Singh's account shows demographic-change fear (attributed to Bangladesh-origin migration) combining with social-media-amplified rumour to produce large-scale displacement and a wider exodus panic in southern Indian cities (PDF pp. 47-48) - illustrates how an identity conflict in one State can generate a national-level information-warfare effect (cross-reference topic 09), without this folder needing a separate "communalism" topic.

- ANALYSIS: AFSPA's Irom Sharmila protest as a legitimacy boundary case:

Singh cites her decade-long hunger strike as evidence of the depth of grievance against AFSPA (PDF p. 47) - a reusable illustration of the accountability-legitimacy stakes in any AFSPA-related answer, without taking a one-sided position.

- ANALYSIS: The 2024 FMR-scrapping decision as a boundary case between IR and Internal Security: IR would analyse India-Myanmar diplomatic engagement around the decision; this folder analyses its domestic operational effect (reduced cross-border misuse channel for insurgents, but also disrupted legitimate small-scale cross-border trade/kinship contact) - a clean illustration of the two subjects' boundary.

6. Limitations and trade-offs

- ANALYSIS: Statehood/autonomy accommodation resolves group-level demands but can create new inter-ethnic friction (e.g., hill-versus-plains or tribal-versus-non-tribal tension within a newly autonomous unit) - accommodation is not costless or final.

- ANALYSIS: SoO agreements manage violence but do not by themselves resolve underlying political demands; prolonged SoO status without a political settlement can itself become a source of frustration and fragmentation within a group. ANALYSIS: The converse risk is equally real: a signed settlement whose implementation stalls converts a negotiating partner into an aggrieved one, which is why the implementation rung (basic companion, Section 4A) carries more analytical weight than the number of accords signed.

- ANALYSIS: Accommodation of one group can re-open a boundary question with another. An accord conferring territorial or council-level autonomy on one community necessarily fixes a boundary that a neighbouring community may contest - the structural reason North-East settlements tend to generate successor demands rather than closing the file.

- ANALYSIS: AFSPA's operational-necessity and accountability arguments are in permanent tension, not a problem solvable by policy design alone - continuous, transparent accountability mechanisms are the only way to sustain both simultaneously, and Section 6's central-sanction requirement is where that tension is actually adjudicated.

- WRONG: The 2024 FMR-scrapping decision is not a comprehensive solution to Myanmar-border insurgency and narcotics flow - VisionIAS's own "way ahead" notes continuing need for a single-mandate border force, expedited Integrated Check Post infrastructure and renewed engagement with Myanmar (PDF p. 25); treat it as one measure among several, not a closing move.

7. Must-Know Facts for Advanced Prelims

- FACT: Assam Rifles has historically deployed a larger share of its battalions to counter-insurgency duties than to pure border-guarding duties along the India-Myanmar border (per VisionIAS's cited figures).

- FACT: The 8 February 2024 decision to scrap the Free Movement Regime was attributed to illegal immigration/demographic change concerns, the 2023 Manipur ethnic tensions, Myanmar junta-soldier exodus into Mizoram, and a reported narcotics-flow surge from Myanmar.

- FACT: Suspension of Operations (SoO) is the standard mechanism for managing an armed group's transition toward political talks without requiring immediate disarmament.

- FACT: Singh's AFSPA position is explicitly two-sided: operational necessity (search/seizure powers) paired with an accountability obligation, not a one-sided endorsement - a position the Supreme Court's 1997 and 2016 rulings mirror (constitutionality upheld; no absolute immunity).

- FACT: AFSPA Section 3 governs the disturbed-area declaration, Section 4 the powers conferred, and Section 6 the requirement of prior Central Government sanction before prosecution.

- FACT: VisionIAS's own "way ahead" recommends either giving Assam Rifles the single mandate of border guarding or deploying another border-guarding force such as the BSF on the Myanmar border.

- FACT: Nagaland's constitutional protection runs through Article 371A and Manipur's hill areas through Article 371C - not the Sixth Schedule, which covers tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram.

8. Advanced Prelims traps

- WRONG: The 2024 FMR-scrapping decision was primarily a diplomatic/IR decision toward Myanmar. -> VisionIAS frames it as driven by domestic identity-conflict and internal-security concerns (Manipur violence, insurgent misuse, narcotics flow) - an internal-security-owned decision with external operational effect, not the reverse.

- WRONG: Assam Rifles' primary current function along the Myanmar border is border guarding. -> The cited battalion-deployment split shows it functions predominantly as a counter-insurgency force in practice, a "one force, one mandate" institutional gap.

- WRONG: SoO agreements amount to full disarmament or conflict resolution. -> They are ceasefire/dialogue-enabling arrangements; the underlying political demand still requires a separate negotiated settlement.

- WRONG: The 2015 Framework Agreement with NSCN (IM) is a final Naga settlement. -> It records agreed principles; competencies, territory and timelines were left to later negotiation, which is precisely why the process remains open.

- WRONG: AFSPA gives security forces absolute immunity from prosecution. -> The Supreme Court held in EEVFAM (2016) that there is no absolute immunity; Section 6 requires prior Central Government sanction, which is a procedural filter, not a bar on investigation.

9. CURRENT: Current-anchor note

- CURRENT: MHA announced its decision to scrap the India-Myanmar Free Movement Regime on 8 February 2024; do not convert the announcement into operational status without a formal notification.

- CURRENT: Revised UPF/KNO Suspension of Operations ground rules were signed on 4 September 2025 and remain valid through 3 September 2026. Use MHA's 23 April 2026 North-East peace-process update for the current accord map required by the 2025 PYQ, not the book's older list.

11. Mains-ready framework

Central thesis: The North-East's peace process demonstrates that political-structural accommodation (statehood, Sixth Schedule, SoO agreements) has been the primary durable tool for an identity-driven insurgency, while coercive instruments (AFSPA) remain operationally necessary but require continuous, transparent accountability to avoid reproducing the alienation that first fuelled the insurgency - a lesson most recently visible in how the 2023 Manipur conflict forced the 2024 Myanmar border-regime change.

1. Trace the historical-isolation-to-fragmentation causal chain (Section 3).
2. Distinguish identity-driven insurgency from resource-driven LWE, explaining why political-structural tools dominate the response here.
3. Present AFSPA's two-sided argument exactly as Singh frames it - operational necessity paired with accountability - without picking a one-sided stance.
4. Cite the 2024 FMR-scrapping decision, dated and reasoned, as a recent case of internal conflict driving border policy.
5. Name the Assam Rifles single-mandate gap as a live institutional challenge.
6. Build the "past decade" accord map strictly from the current MHA Annual Report.
7. Close by relating the peace process back to the master framework's coercion/accommodation distinction (Section 1 of 00_Master - Framework.md).

12. Probable questions

- ANALYSIS: Prelims: In what year was the India-Myanmar Free Movement Regime formalised, and on what date did MHA announce the decision to scrap it?
- ANALYSIS: Mains (15 marks, PYQ-linked): Map the North-East's internal-security challenges and the peace accords of the past decade, distinguishing accommodation from coercive instruments in the government's approach.
- ANALYSIS: Mains (15 marks): "Signing an accord and settling a conflict are different achievements." Examine with reference to the North-East peace process of the past decade.
- ANALYSIS: Mains (15 marks): "The 2024 decision to scrap the India-Myanmar Free Movement Regime illustrates how internal identity conflict can reshape border policy." Discuss.

CONSOLIDATED REGISTER NOTES

North-East Insurgency and Peace Processes: IDENTITY, AUTONOMY AND CROSS-BORDER CHALLENGE MAP

1. Historical-isolation condition: British excluded-area policy, limited links with the wider freedom struggle and distinct missionary and administrative experiences shaped later identity and alienation in the North-East.
2. Assamisation trigger: The 1960 Assamese official-language decision generated strong tribal-district resistance and fear of identity loss, illustrating how a proximate policy trigger can activate a deeper historical condition.
3. Statehood accommodation: Nagaland became a State in 1963; Meghalaya, Manipur and Tripura in 1972; Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh in 1987, showing political accommodation through territorial reorganisation.
4. Sixth Schedule boundary: The Sixth Schedule under Articles 244(2) and 275(1) applies to tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Tripura and Mizoram through Autonomous District and Regional Councils; it does not cover the entire North-East.
5. Articles 371A-371C boundary: Nagaland's special constitutional protection operates through Article 371A, while Manipur's hill-area mechanism is linked to Article 371C; these are not substitutes for the Sixth Schedule.
6. Insurgency-driver matrix: Identity and autonomy claims, inter-ethnic tension, demographic anxieties, underdevelopment, weak governance, difficult terrain, arms or narcotics routes and cross-border sanctuary interact differently across States.
7. Myanmar-border linkage: Shared ethnic ties, terrain and cross-border movement make Myanmar a major external linkage for North-East insurgency; current sanctuary or group claims require dated official evidence.
8. Composite strategy: The Government's composite approach combines talks with groups abjuring violence, lawful action against continuing violence, development and connectivity, and political or autonomy arrangements.
9. SoO boundary: A Suspension of Operations agreement is a renewable, revocable cessation-of-hostilities arrangement with ground rules; it is not disarmament, a final political settlement or verified rehabilitation.
10. Framework-agreement boundary: A framework agreement records agreed principles for future negotiation but leaves competencies, territory or implementation open; the NSCN (IM) Framework Agreement of 3 August 2015 is not a final settlement.
11. Settlement boundary: A Memorandum of Settlement or accord records specified commitments, but signature alone does not prove council formation, legal amendment, package disbursement, disbandment or reintegration.
12. Implementation boundary: Implementation is the separate rung where constitutional, statutory, financial and rehabilitation commitments are verified; accord counts cannot substitute for an implementation audit.
13. Past-decade accord map: The owner maps the 2019 NLFT(SD), 2020 Bodo and Bru-Reang, 2021 Karbi Anglong, 2022 boundary and Adivasi-group, 2023 DNLA, UNLF and ULFA pro-talks, and 2024 TIPRA Motha instruments, each requiring exact status.
14. UPF-KNO SoO status: Revised tripartite Suspension of Operations ground rules with UPF and KNO were signed on 4 September 2025 and stated to run through 3 September 2026; this is a ceasefire rung, not a Manipur settlement.
15. AFSPA sections: Under AFSPA 1958, section 3 governs disturbed-area declaration, section 4 confers specified powers in a notified area, and section 6 requires previous Central Government sanction before prosecution.
16. Notification-repeal firewall: Shrinking or withdrawing a disturbed-area notification ends AFSPA's operation only in the de-notified area for that notification period; it neither repeals the Act nor proves final peace.
17. AFSPA judicial boundary: Naga People's Movement of Human Rights (1997) upheld AFSPA with binding safeguards, while EEVFAM (2016) rejected absolute immunity and kept alleged excessive force open to investigation.
18. FMR decision boundary: MHA announced on 8 February 2024 a decision to scrap the India-Myanmar Free Movement Regime; an announcement must not be stated as the complete operational regime without the governing notification.

19. Assam-Rifles mandate issue: The owner identifies a border-guarding versus counter-insurgency mandate tension for Assam Rifles along the Myanmar border; current deployments and force numbers require dated official verification.
20. Peace-process end-state: Durable peace requires State- and faction-specific accommodation, lawful and accountable security, inter-ethnic reconciliation, border governance and verified implementation rather than signatures alone.

North-East Insurgency and Peace Processes: PEACE-INSTRUMENT LADDER AND PAST-DECADE ACCORD MAP

- Do not treat the North-East as one homogeneous insurgency.
- Do not treat every autonomy demand as a Sixth Schedule demand.
- Do not confuse SoO, framework agreement, settlement and implementation.
- Do not call an SoO disarmament or rehabilitation.
- Do not call the 2015 Framework Agreement a final Naga settlement.
- Do not treat accord signature as implemented peace.
- Do not equate reduced disturbed-area coverage with AFSPA repeal.
- Do not describe AFSPA as absolute immunity.
- Do not convert the 2024 FMR decision into operational abolition without notification.
- Do not carry book-period group strength or status into the present.
- Do not use border hardening as the only peace-process answer.
- Do not publish tactical camp, movement or force-deployment detail.
