ASCII MASTER FLOW — PANEL 1/40: CENTRAL QUESTION AND THE PRINTED SYLLABUS SPINE

```
+-- [00] CENTRAL QUESTION AND THE PRINTED SYLLABUS SPINE ------------------------------------+
| OFFICIAL CLAUSE, VERBATIM: "Human Values- lessons from the lives and teachings of          |
| great leaders, reformers and administrators; role of family society and educational        |
| institutions in inculcating values."                                                       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| TWO LIMBS, ONE ARGUMENT:                                                                   |
|   LIMB A (EXEMPLAR)      lessons from lives and teachings of leaders/reformers/            |
|                          administrators                                                    |
|   LIMB B (INCULCATION)   role of family, society and educational institutions              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| WHY ONE ARGUMENT: a value sits ABOVE attitude and BELOW codified law. It cannot be         |
| legislated into existence (so it must be FORMED -> Limb B) and a standard nobody has       |
| been seen to keep is not believed (so it must be MODELLED -> Limb A).                      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CENTRAL QUESTION: how does a public servant acquire, keep and apply a standard that        |
| operates exactly where the rulebook runs out?                                              |

ASCII MASTER FLOW — PANEL 2/40: WHAT A VALUE IS - THE FIVE-LEVEL LADDER

+-- [01] WHAT A VALUE IS - THE FIVE-LEVEL LADDER ------------------------------------------+
| L5 LAW / RULE / CODE      'you must'      external, enforceable, sanction attached       |
| L4 NORM                   'we do'         social expectation, stigma attached            |
| L3 VALUE                  'this is worth' ENDURING + TRANS-SITUATIONAL  <- SYLLABUS      |
| L2 ATTITUDE               'I favour X'    OBJECT-SPECIFIC  -> owned by Topic 03          |
| L1 BELIEF + FEELING       'I think/feel'  momentary, unstable                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DEFINING FEATURES OF L3: enduring (not a mood) + trans-situational (not object-bound)   |
| + evaluative (ranks options rather than describing them).                               |
| ADJACENT TERMS KEPT SEPARATE: norm (shared expectation) / virtue (settled excellence)   |
| / interest (what benefits me) / aptitude (capacity to perform -> Topic 04).             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| PRIMARY AUTHORITY BOTH WAYS:                                                            |
|   ARC 2.2.1  values UPSTREAM of law - 'Ethics provides the basis for the creation of    |
|              such laws and rules ... Our legal system emanates from a shared vision     |
|              of what is good and just.'                                                 |
|   ARC 2.2.4  values INDISPENSABLE DOWNSTREAM - rules 'cannot provide for all            |
|              situations'; 'the higher the echelon ... the greater is the ambit of       |
|              discretion'.                                                               |
|   PREFACE    'One cannot mandate honesty. The rule of law can only defeat the perverse  |
|              mind. However, it cannot defeat the perversity of the heart.'              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| TRAP -> defining a value as 'a good moral quality such as honesty' gives an EXAMPLE,   |
| not a definition, and collapses value into virtue.                                      |

```
+-- [02] CONCEPTUAL ORIGIN AND THE INSTITUTIONAL TIMELINE (PART 1 OF 2) ---------------------------+
| CONCEPTUAL ORIGIN (state it; do not date it):                                                    |
|   'ethics' <- Greek ethikos = 'arising from habit'  [ARC 1.2]  -> a habit is built by            |
|   repetition inside a community, which is why Limb B names family/society/school.               |
|   MINIMUM DATING RULE: a classical teacher DIAGNOSED an incentive problem; he did not            |
|   DESIGN a modern institution.                                                                   |

ASCII MASTER FLOW — PANEL 6/40: FIVE TRANSMISSION MECHANISMS - AND THE FAILURE MODE OF EACH

```
+-- [04] FIVE TRANSMISSION MECHANISMS - AND THE FAILURE MODE OF EACH ---------------------------+
| 1 MODELLING       copied from an observed actor; 'what is done here' beats 'what is          |
|                   said here'.  ARC PREFACE (Confucius): the ruler who governs by his         |
|                   virtues 'may be compared to the Pole star which keeps its place and       |
|                   all other stars turn towards it'.                                         |
|                   FAILS WHEN: the model is unrepresentative or copied selectively.          |
| 2 REINFORCEMENT   conduct that is rewarded is repeated (incentives, appraisal,              |
|                   promotion, stigma).  FAILS WHEN: espoused != rewarded (Cut 4).            |
| 3 IDENTIFICATION  'people like us behave like this'.  ARC Annexure-I(2), p.217:             |
|                   dismissal 'means disgrace for the entire family, and therefore,           |
|                   members of the family have an incentive to discourage corruption'.        |
|                   FAILS WHEN: the reference group's own norm is corrupt.                    |
| 4 INSTRUCTION     explicit teaching of a standard and its reasons (curriculum, code,        |
|                   iGOT module).  WEAKEST ALONE.  FAILS WHEN: taught as recall.              |
| 5 REFLECTIVE      inherited values tested against experience.  ARC BOX 2.7                  |
|   REVISION        (Vivekananda): 'as knowledge comes, person grows, morality is             |
|                   evolved, and idea of non-separateness begins.'                            |
|                   FAILS WHEN: revision without an anchor = rationalised convenience.        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DIAGNOSTIC RULE -> name WHICH mechanism failed. A modelling failure is not cured by a     |
| curriculum; a reinforcement failure is not cured by a website statement.                  |

| FOUR CHANNELS                          RISK WHEN INVERTED                      |
| 1 earliest modelling (pre-verbal)      models deceit as competence             |
| 2 reputational identification          shields wrongdoing to protect family honour |
|   [ARC: dismissal = disgrace for the   (LOYALTY CAPTURE = the first school of nepotism) |
|   entire family; a bar on later                                                |
|   private employment raises the cost]                                          |
| 3 allocation of opportunity            reproduces caste and gender hierarchy   |
|   (who eats first, who is schooled)                                            |
| 4 constitutionally named duty          NON-JUSTICIABLE; no legal sanction      |
|   Art. 51A(k); also 51A(e)                                                     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| THE PARADOX -> strongest transmitter, least regulable institution. The state cannot |
| script the content; it can set the CONDITIONS: (i) make office prestigious and |
| dismissal credible, which activates the ARC's reputational mechanism; (ii) guarantee |
| the Art. 21A entitlement so schooling a girl is not a household decision alone; |
| (iii) remove the material barriers - distance, escort, toilets, cost of the uniform. |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| MECHANISM CONDITION -> the ARC's family incentive works ONLY where office carries |
| prestige AND dismissal is credible. Slow or reversible sanction flips the incentive. |

| WHO IS ACTUALLY TEACHING:                                                      |
|   community/neighbourhood -> everyday repeated interaction                     |
|   religion/tradition      -> cosmology + prescribed conduct (durable: instruction +
|                              modelling + identification + ritual repetition in one)
|   peer group / cadre      -> 'what people like us do'  <- STRONGEST ADULT TRANSMITTER

|   civil society / associations -> 'LAW MERCHANTS'                              |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| PRIMARY FINDINGS [ARC Annexure-I(2), report p.216, reporting Cooter]:          |
|   'where people freely interact on a repeated basis, they are more likely to form
|    strong and legitimate norms'                                                |
|   'most citizens judge civil servants by social norms learned in these everyday
|    interactions'                                                               |
|   in low-corruption countries 'trade and professional associations, or community
|    groups' have functioned as 'law merchants', promulgating codes of good practice
|    and imposing anti-corruption sanctions                                      |
| THE MECHANISM RUNS BOTH WAYS [ARC 1.3]: interventions 'are seen as mere posturing';
| 'most people regard corruption as inevitable and any effort to fight it as futile.'
| 'This cynicism is spreading so fast that it bodes ill for our democratic system.'
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ADMINISTRATIVE PAYOFF -> the tehsil counter IS the classroom. Service-delivery quality
| is itself a value-transmission instrument. RELIGION BOUNDARY: personal motivation may
| come from a tradition; the JUSTIFICATION must be accessible to citizens of every
| tradition - the constitutional form of that boundary is Art. 51A(e).           |

|     (ii) binding statute or rule (iii) institutional mandate and code                           |
|     (iv) professional norm (v) personal conscience                                              |
|     -> a lower tier NEVER overrides a higher one; it chooses among options the                  |
|        higher tier leaves open. Where conscience cannot: recorded dissent, lawful               |
|        escalation or resignation - never quiet non-compliance.                                  |
|   3 SEEK THE OPTION THAT DISSOLVES THE CLASH BEFORE TRADING: redact and disclose;               |

|     rule so the next similarly placed claimant also receives it                                 |

|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| PROVENANCE LADDER - attach ONE label to every quotation:                                    |
|   P1 READ IN A PRIMARY/OFFICIAL TEXT HELD LOCALLY   -> cite it                              |
|      e.g. the five Arthasastra propositions, ARC Annexure-I(2), pp.214-215                  |
|   P2 ATTRIBUTED BY AN OFFICIAL REPORT, NO CITATION  -> 'as the ARC prints it'               |
|      e.g. Box 2.8 Seven Social Sins; Preface 'Be the change you wish to see'                |

| THREE FAILURE MODES: selective quotation (name the institutional context) /                 |
| anachronism (diagnosis yes, institutional design no) / moral substitution (a quotation      |
| that could be deleted without weakening the argument was ornamental).                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| THE POSITIVE CASE, WHICH MUST ALSO BE MADE: exemplars supply a MEMORABLE and PORTABLE       |
| standard, CREDIBILITY (a real person kept it under pressure), and MORAL IMAGINATION        |

| PRECISION POINT -> Jain tradition contrasts PARSHVANATHA's FOUR restraints with               |
| MAHAVIR's FIVE. Brahmacharya is the vow Mahavir's tradition SEPARATELY ENUMERATED,            |
| having earlier been understood within aparigraha - NOT an ethical idea he is                  |
| documented to have INVENTED.                                                                  |
| DECISIVE TRAP -> anekantavada != moral relativism. It is a claim about the COMPLEXITY         |
| OF TRUTH-CLAIMS, not a denial that some acts are wrong, and NOT a licence to defer.           |
| TRANSFER CONDITION -> BOUNDED consultation: a stated closing date, a published record         |
| of what was heard, and a reasoned statement of which representations changed the              |
| decision. Without these three, many-sidedness becomes a QUEUE OF VETOES.                      |

| METHOD NOTE -> the canonical owner deliberately STATES THE DOCTRINE rather than                 |
| attaching an unverified internet quotation. That editorial choice IS the Session-10             |
| lesson applied.                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DIAGNOSIS: GRADED INEQUALITY - inequality is not a single line but an ASCENDING SCALE          |
|   OF REVERENCE and a DESCENDING SCALE OF CONTEMPT, in which each stratum has someone           |
|   below it -> THE EXCLUDED DO NOT AUTOMATICALLY COMBINE.                                        |
|   ADMINISTRATIVE CONSEQUENCE -> a scheme designed for 'the poor' can be captured by the         |
|   least excluded among them. DISAGGREGATE; do not assume solidarity.                            |
| INSTRUMENT: CONSTITUTIONAL MORALITY - disciplined fidelity to constitutional values and         |
|   lawful procedure rather than to personal preference, majority sentiment or official           |
|   convenience. Content: equality before law, dignity, liberty, fair procedure,                  |
|   accountability - applied precisely when locally unpopular.                                    |
| SOCIAL DEMOCRACY -> political democracy without social democracy is a 'top dressing';           |
|   formal legal equality is the FLOOR, not the achievement.                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| THE OPERATIONAL TEST -> take the procedure that LOOKS NEUTRAL and ask whether its               |
| EFFECTS reproduce the existing hierarchy. Examples: a tender condition requiring three          |
| years of prior supply experience; a hearing fixed at district HQ at 11 a.m.                    |
| RULE -> PERSONAL BENEVOLENCE CANNOT SUBSTITUTE FOR INSTITUTIONAL JUSTICE.                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CROSS-TOPIC ANCHOR: 2025 GS-IV Q1(b) premise - 'Constitutional morality is not a natural        |
| sentiment but a product of civil education and adherance of the rule of law' (printed           |
| spelling preserved). ROUTED TO TOPICS 13 AND 14 - not claimed here - but its premise IS         |
| Limb B stated in constitutional language.                                                       |

| THE PROBLEM IS SELF-REPRODUCING, NOT ATTITUDINAL:                                          |
|   denial of girls' education + child marriage + caste-linked exclusion + widow stigma      |

|   CAN DO: make competencies explicit (FRAC); make learning continuous rather than               |
|     one-off at induction; make it role-specific; reach scale - 1.49 cr users, 4,342             |
|     courses, 7.26 cr course completions, 23 languages, AS ON 6 FEBRUARY 2026.                    |
|   MUST NOT BE CLAIMED: that completions prove internalisation; a general APAR linkage           |
|     absent a service-specific DoPT order naming scope; that reach figures are a                  |

| 1 QUOTATION SCRAPBOOK   sayings replace rules                                                    |
|   -> FIVE-SLOT TEST. Delete any quotation removable without weakening the argument.              |
| 2 SELECTIVE QUOTATION   the same leader justifies opposite choices                               |
|   -> name the SPECIFIC INSTITUTIONAL CONTEXT; an unbounded teaching proves nothing.              |
| 3 ANACHRONISM           'Kautilya recommended a vigilance commission'                            |
|   -> MINIMUM DATING RULE: classical sources supply diagnoses and incentive logic.                |
| 4 HERO-WORSHIP          admired character treated as a warrant for inferred positions            |
|   -> a life is evidence about what is POSSIBLE, not proof about what is CORRECT.                |
| 5 MORAL SUBSTITUTION    'we need a change of values' REPLACES naming the incentive,              |
|   the discretion and the accountability gap                                                      |
|   -> ARC 1.4's warning against 'overemphasis on values and character', whose implicit            |
|      assumption is that until values are restored 'nothing much can be done' - a                 |
|      COUNSEL OF POSTPONEMENT. Every value claim must terminate in a MECHANISM.                   |
| 6 FABRICATED PROVENANCE inventing a source for an untraceable line                               |
|   -> the PROVENANCE LADDER. 'Widely attributed' costs three words and protects the               |
|      whole answer. THIS IS THE ONE UNRECOVERABLE ERROR.                                          |
| COUNTER-CRITICISM (must also be made): dismissing exemplars entirely is its own error.           |
| Codes and sanctions cannot make a standard MEMORABLE, CREDIBLE or IMAGINABLE beyond the          |
| current rulebook. Only a kept example can. Art. 51A(b) makes cherishing the ideals of            |
| the national struggle a citizen duty.                                                            |
| INDIAN CAUTION -> invoking a leader's name is itself a contested political act, and              |
| different constituencies claim the same figure for incompatible programmes. SAFEGUARD:          |
| translate into a PROCEDURAL obligation (published criterion, recorded reason, declared          |
