Jahangir & the Early Seventeenth Century (Nur Jahan)

Continuous at-a-glance flow: accession -> consolidation -> Nur Jahan -> crises -> verdict

1. Reign frame

- 1605-1627
- continuity under pressure
- Topic 19/21 firewall

2. Accession & justice

- Allahabad autonomy
- twelve orders
- zanjir-i-adl = ruler-centred accessibility

3. Khusrau / Guru Arjan

- 1606 princely revolt
- Punjab-Lahore route
- layered source reading

4. Consolidation

- Mewar 1615
- Islam Khan in Bengal
- Kangra 1620

5. Europeans

- Hawkins and Roe
- Swally 1612
- facility, not sovereignty

6. Nur Jahan

- farmans + coin legends
- Itimad-ud-Daulah / Asaf Khan
- documented political actor

7. Junta debate

- Beni Prasad
- Nurul Hasan / Satish Chandra
- post-1622 sharper crisis politics

8. Khurram rebellion

- Qandahar trigger
- resource bargaining
- submission with hostages

9. Mahabat coup

- Jhelum 1626
- custody != control
- Nur Jahan manoeuvres

10. Jahangir as ruler

- composite nobility
- broad accommodation + coercive episodes
- Ustad Mansur / Jadrup

Prelims traps: 1606 = Khusrau/Guru Arjan | 1615 = Mewar | Roe = facility, not sovereignty | Mahabat = leverage, not full rule

Mains spine: accession -> justice -> consolidation -> Nur Jahan evidence -> junta debate -> Khurram -> Mahabat -> graded verdict
